Duke

The Weather
Today—Partly cloudy and somewhat warmer. Thundershowers in afternoon.
Yesterday—High, 78; low, 65.

The Washington Post

Single Copy Price 5¢

NO. 24,817 | Entered as Second Class Matter, Postoffice, Washington, D. C. | Copyright, 1944, By The Washington Post. | WASHINGTON: SATURDAY, MAY 27, 1944 | DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA AND SUBURBAN AREA CARRIER DELIVERY Daily and Sunday, $1.15 per Month Daily Only, .75 per Mo. Sunday Only, .45 per Mo. | SINGLE COPY PRICE Daily, 5c Sunday, .10

UNIVERSITY OF CALIFORNIA JUN 1 1944 LIBRARY

Allied Troops Overrun 9 Italian Towns

Miller Calm As He Tells Jury He Shot 'Other Man'

Denies 'Planting' Gun in Car; Was Of Unsound Mind, Psychiatrists Say

By Winifred Nelson

Robert I. Miller yesterday had his most dramatic day in the law courts where he has spent the best years of his life.

As the jurors leaned forward in their seats, the 67-year-old attorney told his own story of the slaying of Dr. John E. Lind at a downtown street corner on February 21.

"I shot him," Miller said quietly, without any show of the emotion that almost choked him when he spoke of his wife and his first knowledge of the affair that he said had "crucified" him.

Later in the day he heard two psychiatrists declare he was of unsound mind at the time of the killing.

"Stupid," Otherwise

Miller "was either of unsound mind or unbelievably stupid" if he planted the gun in Lind's car, as the Government contends, Dr. Antoine Schneider asserted on cross-examination.

"A man of his experience gained from 35 years of law practice would know it was an extremely foolish thing to do and very easily detected," he continued.

Miller was mentally unable to tell right from wrong when he took the life of Dr. Lind and was gripped by a mental disease called "severe compulsive psychosis" according to testimony of Schneider and Dr. Albert Marland, who examined the defendant at his jail cell at different times before the trial.

Miller was the first witness of the day. He walked heavily, leaning on the counsel table, as he took the stand.

Testimony followed:

Q. What was your intention when you approached the Lind car after you saw your wife enter it?—A. To get her out of the car and take her home with me.

Charges Threat to Kill

Q. What did Dr. Lind say?—A. He told Marguerite (Mrs. Miller) 'Don't get out of the car—I'll blow that old gray-headed bastard's brains out.

Q. Did you see Lind make any motion with his hands?—A. He put his hand back as though he was reaching for a gun.

Q. What did you do?—A. I shot him.

Q. Where was your gun?—A. In my pocket.

Q. Where did you aim it?—A. To shoot towards him.

Q. Did you deliberately shoot twice?—A. I didn't know that I shot twice until the next day at the morgue.

Q. After you pulled the gun

See MILLER, Page 2, Column 7

Nats Defeat Indians, 5-3, In Thirteenth

Cleveland, May 26 (AP).—The Washington Nationals staged two uprisings, one a 13th-inning stand, to defeat the Cleveland Indians, 5 to 3, today, chalking up their third consecutive triumph over the last-place tribe.

George Case banged a two-run single into center in the 13th, after Rick Ferrell and Johnny Sullivan hit safely.

A three-run rally in the seventh put the Senators into the lead, but an Indian tally in the same inning sent the ball game into overtime.

Early Wynn pitched the distance for Washington.

(Details in Sports Section)

Seaman, 17, Freed In Worker's Death

Norfolk, Va., May 26 (AP).—Judge Herbert G. Cochran of Juvenile Court dismissed today a charge of homicide against Erwin Schroeder, 17-year-old Navy enlisted man of New Britain, Conn., in the death of Clinton Curtis Case, a warworker.

Schroeder was accused of beating Case to death in the rear of Case's home at Ocean View on the night of April 24.

Detective Leon Nowitzky, after arresting Schroeder, quoted him as saying he had struck Case with his fists when Case started at him with fists swinging. This occurred, the detective said he was told, when Schroeder followed Case in an effort to quiet him after the warworker had abused members of his family.

Roosevelt Heartily Indorses Post's Plea To Call Assault on Europe the Liberation

Reciprocates Idea Set Forth in Editorial, He Tells Newsmen

By Edward T. Folliard

President Roosevelt yesterday heartily indorsed a Washington Post editorial suggesting that the forthcoming assault on western Europe be called the Liberation.

The matter came up at a White House news conference when a reporter asked the President to say something in a general way about the coming "invasion." Mr. Roosevelt said he had been waiting for somebody to use that word.

Then the President referred to the editorial which appeared in The Post on May 13. This said that invasion was a word used in military textbooks to describe an operation—"a word of the head."

"But this invasion," The Post said, "is something in particular. It is in a class by itself. Nothing like it, either in scope or purpose, has ever been attempted in recorded history. . . .

"A Word of the Heart"

"It is liberation. That is a word of the heart. Let us then call this invasion the Liberation—the end and not the means, the civilizing purpose and not the military mission, the war aim and not the battle operation."

President Roosevelt said he most

See LIBERATE, Page 2, Column 4.

What's in a Word

Surely our specialists in psychological warfare could have saved the warriors from dubbing the impending assault upon Hitler's fortress an invasion. An invasion is a common or garden episode in warfare. It is the means to a military end. You will find it used in the military textbooks as an operation. Only the unimaginative, thinking of the path to the imposition of our will upon the enemy, can think in terms of invasion. It is a word of the head. But this invasion is something in particular. It is in a class by itself. Nothing like it, either in scope or purpose, has ever been attempted in recorded history.

Its aim is, of course, military. Our fighting men, when they leap ashore from North Cape to the Mediterranean, will have one object: To bring down to defeat a malevolent foe who sought to bestride the entire world. The triumph of their arms is assured. Let us then think of the end when we refer to the means, the ultimate instead of the penultimate. Victory? Too tame and too military a word for what this invasion stands for. The word we need is an expression of the hopes astir in countless breasts in a score of lands. As a military operation the coming invasion will be so mammoth that the very earth is already atingle. But to the people in Hitler's clutches the victory is an explosive idea. On the pennons of the invaders there is inscribed food and freedom. The famished see sustenance, the enslaved see liberty. Both are magical with promise.

In a way we who don't live in these lands are finding the same glittering significance in food and freedom because we have had to fight to insure them. So the victory is a crusade. It will, please God, banish the fear that for so long has been gnawing at the vitals of mankind and enable us all to see our stars again. Call this an invasion when our backs are turned to a dying world and we are fronting a world seeking to be born? It is liberation. That is a word of the heart. Let us then call this invasion the Liberation—the end and not the means, the civilizing purpose and not the military mission, the war aim and not the battle operation.

House Votes To Restore FEPC Funds

Party Lines Crossed As Move to Withhold Appropriation Fails

BULLETIN

The House last night passed the $1,033,358,367 appropriations bill for a scor eof home-front agencies, including the Fair Employment Practices Committee.

By the Associated Press

After earlier voting to deny funds for the President's Fair Employment Practices Committee, the House last night reversed itself and restored a $500,000 fund for the agency in the War Agencies Appropriation bill.

A teller vote of 123 to 119 in the House proper set aside an earlier teller vote of 141 to 103 in committee of the whole to strike the FEPC fund from the bill.

In the earlier vote Southern Democrats were aided by a large group of Republicans in tentatively knocking the appropriation from the $1,033,000,000 omnibus bill financing almost a score of home-front war agencies for the fiscal year starting July 1.

The voting crossed party lines, about half of the Republicans present voting with Southern Democrats in support of the amendment deleting the FEPC item after being challenged by Southerners and one of their own colleagues to evidence the sincerity of their past criticism of New Deal bureaus by voting to deny the FEPC more money.

FEPC now is financed from the President's emergency fund.

Two days debate on the omnibus bill had been devoted almost entirely to the FEPC. The fight against it, led by Representative Tarver (D. Ga.), was based on contentions of Southerners that the agency, not specifically authorized by Congress, was more interested in advocating social racial equality

SEE FEPC, Page 2, Column 2.

President May See Churchill In 'Late Spring'

President Roosevelt told reporters yesterday that he might see British Prime Minister Winston Churchill sometime in the summer, autumn or late spring.

The question came up during a news conference discussion of post-war plans and because of the President's manner the reporters could not tell how serious he was with the observation.

The 1944 Presidential elections come in November.

When a reported noted that the President omitted winter, Mr. Roosevelt said he didn't like stormy weather.

When the President mentioned the word "spring," the reporters became alert. That would indicate that Mr. Roosevelt planned to run for a fourth term and expected to stay in the White House.

Asked about his plans in this respect earlier, the President had chuckled and answered that time would tell.

Bay Yields Body Of Lieut. W. J. Tate

Baltimore, May 26 (AP).—The father of the late Lieut. William J. Tate, jr., U. S. N., whose airplane crashed in the Chesapeake Bay April 13, said today that his son's body had been recovered and burial would take place in Baltimore tomorrow with full naval honors.

The older Tate, a lieutenant commander in World War I, reported that he was notified by Navy authorities yesterday that the body was found near Point Lookout by a landing barge from the Amphibious base at Solomons Island and that identification was made at the naval air station at Patuxent, where Lieutenant Tate had been stationed.

Truman Urges Court-Martial For Navy Man

Commander Admits Sending 'Restricted' Data To His Private Firm

By Douglas B. Cornell

Associated Press Staff Writer

A flushing, suspended Naval commander, who had acknowledged sending a "restricted" document to his private corporation with a request that it be burned after use, heard Senator Truman (D., Mo.) recommend yesterday that he be "immediately court-martialed."

The commander, John D. Corrigan, has testified before Truman's War Investigating Committee that half a dozen firms he inspected as a production "trouble shooter" for the Navy's Ordnance Bureau have engaged the private engineering and management consultation firm, Corrigan, Osburne & Wells, in which he still retains a half interest.

The Navy suspended the officer Thursday, and it was announced that a Federal grand jury convening in New York today will look into his case.

Still wearing his Naval uniform, he was questioned for an hour and a half yesterday by the Truman Committee. As he rose and stood beside his chair Truman shook a finger at him and declared solemnly:

"I think that Commander Corrigan should be immediately court-martialed by the United States Navy. I think it is the most flagrant violation of the rules and regulations of the Navy since this committee has been at work."

Sent List of Firms

Senator Ferguson (R., Mich.) expressed agreement with the statement. Corrigan reddened and walked away.

He said he had sent to David Amour, in the Chicago office of Corrigan, Osburne & Wells, a list of manufcaturers that had received money from the Ordnance Bureau for plant facilities.

Sitting in his office in the bureau one Sunday—September 13, 1942—Corrigan testified he dictated an accompanying letter which said:

"After you have looked this over and taken whatever data you want from it, will you be kind enough to see that it is destroyed by fire? You will notice at the top it says 'restricted,' which means it is not for general distribution.

"So when you get all the information you want off it please destroy it. But do yourself and your country a favor by selling some of these people on here a job and then proceed to get them the results that you gave Danly."

Identifies Copy of Letter

Under a barrage of questions, the witness conceded that the list showed firms he had inspected, that it would be valuable to his company, and that it would be valuable to himself.

But he said all the document did was to list separately companies having Army and Navy contracts, whereas all were grouped together on a War Production Board list which he said was available to anyone.

Corrigan identified a copy of a letter which he said he had sent

See TRUMAN, Page 2, Column 2

Sees Loss to Taxpayers

Grant Hits Free Enterprise Bill As 'Dangerous' Housing Plan

By Dorothy Williams

Maj. Gen. U. S. Grant 3d, Park and Planning Commission head, yesterday branded the Tydings-Randolph free enterprise bill "the most dangerous piece of legislation I have known of being introduced in my 43 years' connection with the District."

Grant, appearing before a House Judiciary subcommittee investigating slum clearance, called the measure a "pork barrel bill" which would benefit the private builders at the District taxpayers' expense.

"I am convinced that the citizens' associations and the Board of Trade would never have indorsed the Tyding bill if they had realized what harm can be done to them, to their property and to the District of Columbia as a whole if it is enacted," Grant declared.

The Tyding bill, which clears the housing field for private builders, would permit speculative builders to seize any or all privately owned property in the District and resell it at a loss to the taxpayers, Grant charged.

"The title of the bill, if it is to fairly represent what the bill permits, should be changed to read, 'A bill for the condemnation of any or all privately owned property in the District of Columbia for sale at a loss to the taxpayers, for the benefit of speculative builders to be selected by a new, autonomous agency entirely free of control except its own discretion,'" Grant told the subcommittee which is studying three housing bills now before Congress.

Grant outlined the broad powers which would be given the land agency provided for in the Tydings bill and declared the "setting up

See HOUSING, Page 2, Column 6

Senate Unit's Ward Report Stirs Up Row

McFarland Refuses To Sign; Declares Those Interested Were Denied Hearing

By Ben W. Gilbert

A report of a Senate Judiciary Subcommittee charging that the President "had no constitutional or statutory authority" to seize the Chicago properties of Montgomery Ward & Co. yesterday became the subject of bitter controversy before the ink was dry, while the Ward labor dispute headed toward a new impass, which could result in seizure for a second time.

Developments included:

1. Committee Member Ernest W. McFarland, (D., Ariz.) refused to sign the report issued by Judiciary Committee Chairman Pat McCarran (D., Nev.), on the ground that "the subcommittee should not have denied the interested parties an opportunity to be heard, and that it should not make a report that is based solely on documentary evidence, which may not be complete, and upon the conclusions of the investigators whose testimony is necessarily hearsay and second or third hand."

2. The report, which was signed by McCarran as chairman of the subcommittee and Senator Chapman Revercomb (R., W. Va.), was tabled by the full Judiciary Committee until June 12 on motion of Senator Carl A. Hatch (D., N. Mex.) to give all interested parties an opportunity to file "with the committee any application for hearings, protests or briefs, either in support or against the subcommittee report."

3. President Roosevelt condemned a proposal in the report of legislation making decisions of the War Labor Board subject to judicial review. Replying to a reporter's question by asking another question, the President said, if you have a decision of the War Labor Board affecting a firm which has failed to keep its word and locked out its employes, or a whole bunch of employes who have walked out, and then had to wait for the district court, the Circuit Court of Appeals, and the United States Supreme Court and congressional investigating committees, what would happen to the poor devils who are out, and who would pay for their food?

4. It was revealed that Attorney General Francis Biddle had requested McCarran to permit him to testify before issuing the report. McCarran had previously turned down a request from President Philip Murray of the CIO to give him a chance to be heard prior to issuance of the report.

5. The War Labor Board reentered the Ward picture by calling a hearing for next Wednesday to determine whether the terms of an expired contract should be extended pending negotiation of a new agreement. In view of established board policy, it is expected that the board will order the agreement extended, requiring reinstatement of a maintenance of membership clause and checkoff of union dues, and thereby joining the issue with Ward management.

Source of McCarran's Report

McCarran's report was based on material submitted by an investigator who went to Chicago immediately after the plants were seized and on data contained in the files of the Department of Labor, War Labor Board, National Labor Relations Board, and Department of Justice. No witnesses were called.

In sharp language, it condemned the part played by each of the Government agencies involved and specifically stated that the War Labor Board should have asked

See WARD, Page 2, Column 5

Roosevelt Gets Physical Check at Bethesda Center

President Roosevelt yesterday had a brief physical examination at the Navy Medical Center in Bethesda, Md., to determine whether his recent four-week vacation in the South had erased the effects of a series of bronchial ailments.

The checkup, which took up most of the morning, consisted principally of X-rays. His last examination was at the Navy hospital in March, shortly before his South Carolina trip, and at that time Admiral Ross T. McIntire, his personal physician, reported that the results were favorable.

The results of yesterday's examination probably will not be released until next week, Secretary Stephen T. Early said.

Aerial Ambush . . .

1. The camera of an American flying boat snaps a Jap bomber lazing along over the Central Pacific, a Nip caught napping, all unaware of the winged death streaking down upon him from a cloud cover

2. The Yankee strikes. His guns blast the enemy, and the Jap bursts into flame and smoke. Maybe the crew knew what happened to them, at the last and too late, maybe not. Aerial ambush can be a very fast thing, indeed

3. The Jap crashes into the sea and burns there and the Coronado shoots a picture of the wreckage across its own wing

U. S. Bombers Again Batter Lyon Railyards

London, May 26 (AP).—Between 500 and 750 Italy-based American heavy bombers today blasted railyards at Lyon, funnel point for Nazi defenses in southern France, for the second time in two days, and ripped other rail installations in the south of France, bringing a furious aerial offensive into its eighth straight day.

The weather halted the heavy offensive from Britain after a devastating week in which more than 32,000 Allied aircraft dropped some 35,000 tons of bombs. American Thunderbolts operating as fighter-bombers attacked enemy airfields and rail targets in northern France in the afternoon, however, and Britain-based Mosquito bombers resumed their harassment against Nazi installations in the same area, attacking without loss.

In the last daylight hours American medium Marauders attacked bridges in northern France and an airfield near Chartres while Havoc attack bombers raided an airfield at Beaumont-sur-Oise, also in France.

Few Fighters Encountered

The Fortresses and Liberators from Italy ripped into Lyon and the surrounding area and attacked rail installations at St. Etienne, 40 miles to the southwest; at Vaise, at the northwest edge; at La Mouche at

See RAIDS, Page 2, Column 1

Chinese Fear Loyang Is Lost; Contact Cut

Chungking, May 26 (AP).—The Chinese command announced tonight that contact with the ancient Chinese City of Loyang had been cut and an official Army spokesman said it probably had fallen to strong Japanese forces which have been besieging it for days. Tokyo claimed capture of the city yesterday.

Loyang, six times capital of China, lies in northwestern Honan on the Lunghai Railway, guarding an historic approach to interior China.

The Japanese drive through Honan westward toward Shensi Province has been halted at all main points, the spokesman said.

Denied official Chinese reports of last Tuesday that the Chinese forces in Yunnan Province had cut the Burma Road by capturing the town of Chefang.

The official communique was incorrect, he said, being based on a transmission error of field reports telling of the capture of Chifang, a village northeast of Tengchung, main Japanese base in Yunnan. The spokesman said the Chinese had reached a point 25 miles from the Burma Road town of Lungling.

Monsoon rains are hampering operations both in Yunnan and on the Myitkyina front in Burma.

The communique told of fight-

See CHINA, Page 2, Column 1

American Tank Forces Take Cori in 6-Mile Drive

Big Guns Batter Velletri, Enemy Strongpoint 18 Miles From Rome

Naples, May 26 (AP).—Veteran American tank and infantry forces smashed 6 miles beyond newly-captured Cisterna today and seized the enemy mountain stronghold of Cori and a companion drive to the northwest closed on Velletri, strongpoint of the Nazis' new "last ditch" defense line 18 miles from Rome.

Velletri was being pounded by massed artillery and its fate appeared to be sealed, a dispatch from the front reported tonight, and as the Allies fought up the Appian Way there came word from the Rome radio that the approaching battle already could be seen from the capital.

The Allied armies swept ahead on all fronts, headquarters announcing the capture of a total of nine towns and half a dozen important heights.

The plunge to Cori carried the beachhead forces nearly halfway from Cisterna to the Via Casilina, escape highway for tens of thousands of German troops hastily falling back toward Rome from the shattered Hitler Line in the Liri Valley and adjacent mountains. The imperiled enemy forces represented the bulk of the German 10th army.

Nazis Speed Withdrawal

There was evidence the Nazis were aware of the danger and were withdrawing with all speed toward their new defense line. Today they abandoned lofty Monte Cairo, towering height just north of Cassino, and the town of Roccasecca, eight miles further west. San Giovanni, at the southern edge of the Liri Valley and four miles from the Via Casilina, also was evacuated in the retreat. San Giovanni had been the scene of extremely bitter fighting in recent days.

Capture of Cori by the Americans brought under control a mountain mass from which German long-range guns battered the beachhead for nearly four months. The town is only 9 miles from where the Via Casilina intersects the new German defense line at Valmontone.

Swarms of Allied fighter-bombers continued their merciless attacks on German road and rail transport in the battle zone, derailing several trains, destroying more than 400 vehicles and damaging 300 others today. This brought the total of enemy vehicles destroyed or damaged by air attack in the past three days to 2500.

An air force spokesman said the Germans had been rushing reinforcements from north of Rome into their new defense line for two days, but declared highway conditions were "chaotic" on both sides of the Italian capital.

Prisoners Pass 12,000 Mark

The count of German prisoners taken in the 15-day-old offensive passed the 12,000 mark—equivalent to a division—and was growing rapidly during the enemy withdrawal. If the proportion of killed and wounded follows the usual pattern, the Germans already have sacrificed possibly a fifth of the manpower of their 17 divisions south of Rome.

Fifth Army forces pushing along inland at the edge of the Pontine Marshes from Terracina found that two Nazi divisions had been swung into position in the Lepini Hills south and west and parellel to the

See ITALY, Page 2, Column 3

Bombers Pound Biak on Route To Philippines

Allied Headquarters, New Guinea (Saturday, May 27 (AP).—Long-range Liberators are continuing their incessant pounding of Biak Island on the route to the Philippines, headquarters announced today.

In their twenty-second successive raid on the major Schouten Islands base, 260 miles northwest of captured Hollandia, the Liberators dumped heavy loads Thursday to bring their total tonnage to more than 700.

Today's Index

	Page		Page
Amusements	5	Financial	10
Columnists	5	Gallup Poll	5
Crossword	8	Leonard Lyons	5
Death Notices	10	Marquis Childs	5
Drew Pearson	5	Radio	9
Editorials	4	Shirley Povich	6
Federal Diary	3	Women's Page	8

Eisenhower Visits His British Troops

Led Task Force Against Japs

Associated Press WIREPHOTO
REAR ADMIRAL
A. E. MONTGOMERY,
who led the carrier task force which battered the Jap-held islands of Guam and Wake a week ago. Admiral Montgomery is well known in Washington, having been in command at the Anacostia Naval Air Station here in 1934, 1935 and 1936

Allied Chief Finds Men Well Fitted for Liberation Task

London, May 26 (AP). — Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower returned to supreme headquarters today after a swift inspection tour of British land forces under his over-all command, well pleased with their thorough training.

He pronounced the men fit and ready to avenge the Dunkerque of four years ago—and that propably was his word to their King, whom he visited briefly upon his return from the field.

Seeking to take the edge off German tension, drawn taut by 18 months of faltering defense topped by looming defeat in Italy and merciless battering by Allied bombers, the Nazi news agency DNB in a long dispatch went back to its favorite hint that Germans would not wait forever for the invasion.

"The broadcast dispatch said that German forces were charging up "energies of which the enemy may have some idea, but which will surprise him when one day they let loose—invasion or no invasion."

But the effect of waiting on German nerves was demonstrated in Denmark, where the Nazis arrested the chief of the entire Danish security police in Jutland, as well as the police commissar and chief of Aarhus and the chief at Tondern, according to Copenhagen reports reaching Stockholm.

No explanation was given, but Danish sources in Stockholm said the action was taken because of continuing espionage and sabotage in Jutland, a vital defense sector of Hitler's fortress. The same sources said there was also a report that all police chiefs in the Jutland area were arrested by the Germans, but the report could not be confirmed immediately.

Throughout the arsenal of Britain all Allied vehicles were being made ready for landing on the Continent. It was disclosed in London that tanks and jeeps were being marked with a white star, symbol of American fighting forces on land and in the air, but it was understood that the RAF still will use its red, white and blue target as insignia.

Japs Lose 8500 Of 30,000 Men In India Drive

Kandy, Ceylon, May 26 (AP).—Japanese attempts to seize the Imphal Plain in India have cost them 8500 men since March and are continuing to bleed them heavily, Allied headquarters announced today, while on the monsoon-drenched north Burma Front at Myitkyina the enemy still was reported clinging desperately to all main positions in the stronghold.

The slaughter was going on in the Imphal area, with heavy casualties inflicted upon the Thirty-third and Fifteenth Japanese Divisions plus reinforcements which originally totaled about 30,000 men, a headquarters spokesman said.

While no specific details were available on north Burma, it appeared from front dispatches that the enemy held all principal positions in Myitkyina except those lost immediately after the original appearance of the American and Chinese Marauders last week, and probably still control two-thirds or more of the city.

A headquarters communique said Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's forces maintained pressure northwest of the stronghold, while another Allied column attacked on the north side of the town, killing more than 50 Japanese.

CHINA

From Page 1

ing in Hupeh Province, with the Chinese repulsing Japanese attacks south and southwest of Hankow.

The headquarters of Lieut. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's Fourteenth Air Force reported widespread attacks by American-Chinese air units ranging from Hainan Island, Thailand and Indo-China on the south to the Yangtze and Yellow River areas on the north.

Victory Drive Pledged

Meanwhile, China's governing body, the Central Executive Committee of the Kuomintang, pledged to turn all of the country's available strength toward achieving an early victory.

The committee in a manifesto expressed confidence that all, "aware that we have entered a decisive stage of the war on the Asiatic continent, will give greater aid in equipping our army and air force and in strengthening our wartime economy by furnishing us supplies which are most needed."

"Japan singled out China as her first victim of aggression, and Japan shall meet her doom on the Chinese mainland," the manifesto said.

RAIDS

From Page 1

the southeast edge, and at Chambray and Grenoble.

The heavies also smashed rail yards at Nice and at the Var River bridge 5 miles to the southwest.

Few enemy fighters were encountered.

Apparently the American bombers were going all-out to choke off supplies to the front below Rome.

Italy-based Fortresses also bombed German troop concentrations at Bihac, 70 miles south of Zagreb in Yugoslavia, just outside Zara, destroying a number of grounded planes.

The great week of aerial offensive which began last Friday night hammered steadily from the north and south, as Allied bombers spared scarcely any target which might stand in the way of a successful land assault.

Allied Losses Run 1%

Together the bombers made 81 attacks against key rail centers upon which the Germans lean heavily for flow of front line supplies both for Italy and the rest of the continent.

In aerial combat the Luftwaffe lost 206 planes, and more than 200 additional planes were damaged or destroyed on the ground.

Combined Allied losses computed from all available sources were put at 368 planes—about 1 per cent of the total forces employed. In both theaters the losses were broken down into 70 American heavy bombers, 100 RAF heavies, 98 American fighters, 24 RAF fighters, eight American medium and light bombers and 68 aircraft not distinguished by type in the communiques.

TRUMAN

From Page 1

an old friend, H. M. Stranck of the Utah Construction Company, San Francisco, in which he said his "fine Italian hand" had played a part in the Westinghouse Company's taking over a Hudson Motor Company Plant at Center Line, Mich.

"It took me a little longer to get this company out of that plant and switched over to Westinghouse than it should have," the letter said." . . . Next week I expect to have another one of my bad actors on his ear . . ."

The letter was written October 25, 1943. On November 29, 1943, the Norden Co. took over a Remington Rand plant at Elmira, N. Y.

Corrigan acknowledged that a few days before this latter event, there had been a discussion in the Ordnance Bureau, in which he did not participate, of the possibility of Robert Wells, who succeeded him as president of Corrigan, Osburne & Wells, resigning to manage the Elmira facility.

Talks of Elmira Plant

"You know as a fact," Ferguson asked, "that Norden was assured by the Ordnance Department that Corrigan, Osborne & Wells would go in as operational managers if they took it over?"

"I did not know that," the witness declared.

"Did you know that when Norden took the plant," the Senator went on, 'that immediately following. . . Corrigan, Osburne & Wells employes went into the plant?"

"No, sir, I don't know that," Corrigan replied.

He said he did not know, either, that his firm got $44,190 for work done at the Elmira plant after it was taken over.

Corrigan sat to one side in the hearing room while Frederick C. Wappler took the witness chair to testify that his company, American Cystoscope of Brooklyn, had hired Corrigan, Osburne & Wells after a visit from Corrigan.

He said it paid the firm $31,000 and he did not think it got its money's worth.

Corrigan, he said, went into great detail "on what he could do and what a competent management firm could do," and mentioned his own concern.

Sappler said he had received writen assurances from a district naval ordnance official that it was all right for him to engage Corrigan, Osburne & Wells. But he said he wouldn't have had anything more to do with the firm had he know Corrigan still was drawing $1000 a month from it.

FEPC

From Page 1

than in preventing discrimination against Negroes.

The bitter debate brought warnings of grave racial problems in the future and a remark from Representative Gibson (D. Ga.) that "there are only two things that are going to save this nation: one is ballots and the other is bullets."

Eight Little Gifts For Jerry

Army Air Forces Photo
BOMBS AWAY—Eight casks of destruction drop from an American Marauder to the railroad yards at Florence, Italy, further disrupting the German route of supply for their troops fighting south of Rome

More Retreats Due in Italy, Germans Hint

London, May 26 (AP).—The German radio, admitting withdrawals on the Italian Front, hinted tonight of more retreats to come, and chorused with unprecedented gloom of the Allies "great superiority of material."

Martin von Hallensleben, radio commentator of the Nazi agency DNB, said the "sweeping might of Allied tanks" had forced Field Marshal Gen. Albert Kesselring to order withdrawals to a front line now running through Velletri, and admitted the Germans already were expending reserves at several weak points.

Correspondent Reinhardt Albrecht said the "fierceness of battle and the amount of material used by the enemy recall the most difficult hours of our fathers during the battles of material of the last World War."

Ludwig Sertorius, commentator for Transocean, German propaganda agency, took to the microphone twice yesterday — an unprecedented course for him—to explain the retreats in terms of "yielding elastically to the overpowering pressure, in particular, very strong masses of tanks."

"Katastrophe" Banned

Naples, May 26 (AP).—The German command in Italy has banned the word "katastrophe," meaning catastrophe. An order captured today said the word would be eliminated from all reports and orders and "also from our vocabulary in general."

ITALY

From Page 1

Via Casilina to protect the long, exposed flank of German troops beating their way up from the Liri Valley.

An Allied communique announced the capture both of Piedimonte and Aquino, last surviving strongholds of the Hitler Line in the Liri Valley, and disclosed that the Canadians had established a bridgehead across the Melfa River, 13 miles from Cassino.

American and French forces, driving forward against bitter Nazi resistances in the mountains near the center of the line, captured Monte aglia, northwest of Pico; Monte Civitella, west of Vallecorsa, and other important points. Littoria, center of the model farms development in the Pontine Marshes between the west coast and the Appian Way, fell to American troops without a fight in the general German withdrawal from that entire region.

Taken After Bloody Struggle

Cisterna, pivotal point of the Nazi's entire defense ring around the Anzio beachhead, was captured by American tanks and infantry late yesterday after four days of savage fighting—three days to surmount its outer defenses and another day of bloody house-to-house street fighting.

In fanning out from the rubbled town, Yank columns threw back several vicious Nazi counterattacks on the way to Cori. They also advanced toward Doganella, 3 miles off the Appian Way east of Cisterna.

(A Reuters dispatch from Zurich said eyewitness reports reaching Switzerland indicated the Germans "are preparing to withdraw altogether from central Italy and make a final stand in the north.")

Although German artillery fire continued to be lighter than was expected in the Cisterna area, field dispatches said the enemy's defenses north of Cisterna were well organized in depth and that continued heavy opposition could be anticipated. American forces were encountering thick minefields as they drove toward the Alban Hills.

(Friday's German high command communique said an "embittered struggle" was in progress south and east of Velletri, and claimed that 80 Allied tanks were destroyed in that sector on Thursday.)

Capture by the Canadians of Aquino, near the eastern extremity of the battle front, gave the Allies a modern airfield in the Liri Valley only 65 miles from Rome.

The Mediterranean air forces flew a total of 3000 sorties Thursday, including a long expedition by heavy bombers into France. Of 80 German planes encountered, 20 were destroyed. The Allies lost 6 heavy bombers and 6 other craft.

Part of Cantor Television Song Silenced

New York, May 26 (AP).—C. L. Menser, National Broadcasting Co. vice president, said today that an N. B. C. program director chose last night to cut off the sound portion of a television broadcast of a chorus of "We're Having a Baby—My Baby and Me," after Eddie Cantor protested its deletion and threatened to cancel the program.

The cut occurred during the first regularly scheduled commercial television show on the New York-to-Philadelphia link of a relay system.

N. B. C. officials explained that the visual portion of the operation was continued, and that the "audio" portion was faded out.

"When the song was submitted to N. B. C., objection was made to certain parts of the lyrics," Menser said. "Mr. Cantor protested the deletion and threatened to cancel the program.

"Our program director was faced with the alternative of canceling the whole show or permitting the song to go and cutting the parts deemed objectionable by N. B. C."

"He (the program director) didn't say he would cut me off," Cantor said, "and led me to believe that it was all right with him."

He said he had no quarrel with deletions from programs when it was a matter of policy "but when during the same evening you hear someone else doing the thing they objected to, I say, 'Why him? Why not me?'"

"I'm singing the song Sunday on the Hall of Fame program on the Blue Network," Cantor said. "I've sung that song to several million servicemen since a few weeks after Pearl Harbor. I've never received a single complaint from a chaplain, a commanding officer or personnel, including nurses."

LIBERATE

From Page 1

heartily reciprocated this idea. The forthcoming blow, he said, was intended to be a liberation, and he added that all our plans are based on the idea of liberation.

The President went on to say that liberation involved more than the military operations; it also included the planning for the postwar world.

He recalled that in a book he read recently it was brought out that it was late in the summer of 1918 before the United States began a study of postwar problems. Then, he said, our experts Col. Edwin House, Dr. Isiah Bowman and others—began throwing information together hurriedly.

Cites Progress

In this war, Mr. Roosevelt continued, we have made far greater progress in this respect than we did the last time. He pointed to the various conferences that have been held or scheduled — the United Nations Relief and Rehabilitation Administration conference at Atlantic City, the International Labor Conference held recently in Philadelphia, and the forthcoming monetary conference at Breton Woods, N. H.

Mr. Roosevelt said the United States is constantly building up its friendships with other of the Allied nations, and that we were getting along all right.

A reporter reminded the President of what Secretary Hull has said earlier in the day, that American plans for organizing a postwar world organization probably are ahead of those made by any other government.

The President said that when he had met with the other leaders at Casablanca, Cairo and Teheran, they had talked about the postwar world and had gone into the problem thoroughly. Since then, he added, the discussions had been reduced to what he called the first-draft form.

He said he wouldn't give out the first-draft form of something like that any more than he would let people see the first draft of one of his speeches. Grinning, he said a speech in that form would horrify people.

The President was asked if he found Soviet Russia a satisfactory collaborator in postwar planning, and his answer was yes—absolutely.

He declined to comment on Prime Minister Churchill's speech Wednesday outlining a program for a world council of the major Allied powers to maintain peace and a world assembly of other powers.

Tickets to Go On Sale Today for Watergate Series

Reserved series tickets for this summer's Watergate Concerts go on sale today at the National Symphony Box Office in Kitt's Music Store, 1330 G st. nw.

The summer season will begin on June 11 with a concert conducted by Hans Kindler, permanent conductor of the National Symphony, and will continue for six weeks. Eighteen concerts will be played in that time—on Sundays, Wednesdays and Fridays.

Single tickets for the opening concert will go on sale Monday, June 5.

Among the soloists engaged for the Watergate Concerts are Dorothy Maynor, Gladys Swarthout, the Don Cossack Chorus, Percy Grainger, Todd Duncan, and Lucille Manners.

Jap Flying P-38 Bombs Liberty Ship

Richmond, Calif., May 26 (AP).—A Japanese flier in a salvaged or captured American P-38 fighter plane bombed a Liberty ship in the Pacific and killed one person and wounded 40, it was related today in the current issue of "Fore 'n' Aft," publication of Henry J. Kaiser's Richmond shipyards.

The ship was the S. S. Stephen Crane, built in the Richmond yards, the paper stated. The article said it was able to reach port.

Berserk Slayer Of 4 Must Die

Associated Press WIREPHOTO
LIEUT. BEAUFORT G. SWANCUTT, sentenced to death by a military court yesterday. He is shown in hospital recovering from wounds inflicted in his capture after he killed four persons and wounded four others the courts for a mandatory injunction to enforce its orders, instead of asking President Roosevelt to seize the plants.

WARD

From Page 1

McCarran based this conclusion on a ruling by Judge T. Alan Goldsborough which the Government has appealed. Biddle, in appearing before the House Ramspeck committee which held hearings on the seizure, disagreed with Goldsborough's reasoning and asserted that another district judge, in Kentucky, had decided that a mandatory injunction could not be issued.

The National Labor Relations Board was charged with "dilatory tactics" in McCarran's report for having failed to order a collective bargaining election among Ward employes until the Government seized the property.

The War Labor Board was charged with applying a "distorted and unwarranted" interpretation of the Connally-Smith anti-strike act in extending for 30 days the Ward contract, which had expired 36 days previously.

(Further extension of this contract will be considered by the War Labor Board at the hearing Wednesday. Then, unless the company does the unexpected, and agrees to an extension of the contract, the Ward case will be back in a state of crisis. Barring unexpected abandonment by the Government of its contention that it cannot risk tying up labor disputes in court, the case would then go to the White House for another seizure action.)

Tick Fever Death, Three Cases Noted In Arundel Area

Annapolis, Md., May 26 (AP).—The first cases of tick fever for the year in Anne Arundel County were reported today by county health director Dr. William J. French, who disclosed that one person had died and three others had been hospitalized this week from the bite of the carriers of Rocky Mountain spotted fever.

Dr. French said Charles Larson, 80, died at his home at Shady Side, while a 71-year-old woman and two young children had been admitted since then to the Annapolis Emergency Hospital for treatment of tick infections.

The county health director, expressing alarm at the early appearance of so many cases, said that in 1943, 11 cases were recorded in the county, including two deaths from the disease. Eight of last year's cases occurred in late July and August. The others were reported during late May.

3 Hurt in Fire At Radford Plant

Radford, Va., May 26 (AP).—Miss Rea McPeak of Copper Valley was seriously injured and two other persons suffered minor injuries in a fire and slight explosion in the final press house at the Radford ordnance works yesterday afternoon, Maj. H. H. Welch, jr., acting commanding officer at the plant, said today.

Miss McPeak, the report said, received severe head injuries. Miss Irene Carter, Dublin, and Lloyd Tuck of Vicker, who received minor injuries, were given ambulatory treatment and released.

Damage to the building was slight and production will be resumed in approximately 24 hours.

Takoma Peony and Rose Show Will Open Today

The sixteenth annual peony show of the Takoma Horticultural Club will be held today and tomorrow at the Takoma Park (D. C.), Elementary School, Piney Branch rd. and Dahlia st. nw., in conjunction with the annual rose show of the Potomac Rose Society and the Takoma club.

Exhibits may be viewed without charge from 7 until 10 p. m., tonight and from 9 a. m. until 9 p. m. tomorrow. The school will be open at 7 a. m. today for reception of flowers. Will H. Carleton, president, announced there will also be vegetable classes.

Dr. Morrison Elected Charles Town Mayor

Charles Town, W. Va., May 26 (AP).—Dr. G. P. Morrison was elected Mayor of Charles Town yesterday in the municipal election despite a circular campaign urging write-in votes. He defeated former Mayor Frank R. Cockrell, 429 to 7.

Oscar B. Darlington, a write-in, was credited with one vote.

The balloting, heaviest in 15 years, also resulted in reelection of the entire incumbent council. Dr. Morrison will assume office June 5.

U. S. Officer Must Hang For Killing 4

Camp Anza, Calif., May 26 (AP).—Standing erect and seemingly emotionless, Second Lieut. Beaufort G. Swancutt today heard a court-martial's recommendation that he be hanged for the gunfire murder of his girl friend and three other persons last March 5.

The 12-officer board deliberated an hour and a quarter before its president, Lieut. Col. Duncan P. Frissell, emerged from an anteroom and announced the decision.

Handcuffs were clapped immediately on the La Crosse, Wis., officer and he was led to a wheelchair to return to the camp hospital where he is recovering from police bullets that ended his murderous foray with a service pistol. A chain was linked from the handcuffs to the chair.

"I Forgot My Cap"

"Oh, hell," Swancutt said as he was wheeled out of the room, "I forgot my cap."

Somebody returned to the counsel table for the overseas cap.

Later the officer, who had testified his mind blacked out before the shootings, told a reporter:

"I told the truth. That's all I could do. I am not afraid to die."

Outside he met his gray-haired, widowed mother, Mrs. Caroline Swancutt of Detroit, who appeared near collapse. Standing with his arm about her waist was another son, Corpl. Wellington Swancutt of the Santa Ana Army Air Base. Also present for the brief reunion were the accused's sister, Mrs. Beatrice Wright of Detroit, and his wife, Gertrude.

Verdict to Be Reviewed

The court's recommendation will be reveiwed by Col. J. K. Herbert, commanding officer of the Los Angeles port of embarkation, and the Army's Judge Advocate General in Washington, who are empowered to reduce the penalty. The President will fix the time and place of execution.

Swancutt, 31, was convicted of killing his sweetheart, Miss Dorothy Douglas, and her friend, Miss Lourdine Livermore, each 19 and from Long Beach, Calif.; his commanding officer, Capt. Aubrey G. Serfling, and a Riverside policeman, Arthur Simpson. Their deaths occurred in rapid succession during Swancutt's rampage that started in the Camp Officers Club.

The defense contended that Swancutt suffered from a form of epilepsy and periods of amnesia and insanity.

Wellington Swancutt disclosed that his brother, who he called "Buck," had told him before the verdict was given:

"No matter what happens to me, I want you to stick it out and be a good soldier."

A third brother is a flier in the Pacific war theater.

HOUSING

From Page 1

of such an agency . . . is manifestly a very dangerous thing to do and entirely inconsistent with the present structure of the municipal government which places administrative responsibility in the Commissioners of the District and planning responsibility in the National Capital Park and Planning Commission as technical advisor of the District Commissioners."

In explaining the terms of the compromise bill drawn up by the planning commission and sponsored by Senator Arthur Capper (R., Kans.) and Representative Jennings Randolph (D., W. Va.), Grant said that it provides for the National Capital Housing Authority or any other agency authorized by Congress to undertake projects which private housing cannot do without what he termed "exorbitant subsidies."

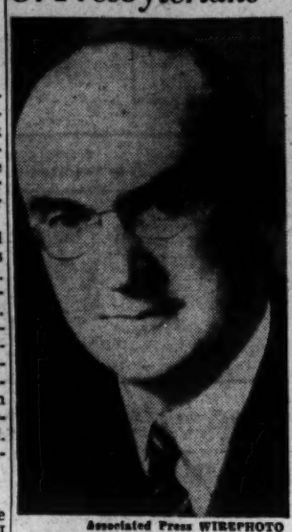
On the other hand, Grant told the subcommittee, "the pork barrel bill leaves no bidders except private enterprise."

Sees Constant Temptation

This wuold present a constant temptation, Grant said, for the agency "to write down cost of the land and write up rents so as to make the greatest number of soles or leases, always remembering rents are going to be made up by the welfare board at the cost of the taxpayers."

The planning commission bill, he said, leaves the public agency and what that agency can do as a basis for comparison with the propositions of any private builders.

New Moderator Of Presbyterians



Associated Press WIREPHOTO
DR. CHARLES L. KING
of Houston, Tex., who has been chosen moderator of the Presbyterian Church in the United States (Southern). His selection was made Thursday at a meeting at Montreat, N. C.

MILLER

From Page 1

trigger, what happened next? A. The last thing I remember was backing away from the car and standing on the curb. After that, everything was just a blank.

Denies "Planting" Gun

Q. You sat here and listened to Lamar Johnson tell how you planted a white envelope containing a gun in the seat of the car? A. I did.

Q. Is it true? A. It absolutely is not true.

Miller's face reddened and he shook with sobs on three occasions, once when he said it "crucified" him to learn last summer that his wife Marguerite, 25 years his junior, was keeping love-trysts with the doctor.

"Do you still love your wife?" asked Defense Attorney H. Mason Welch.

"I do!" exclaimed Miller vehemently, his emotions once more seemingly near the breaking point.

In cross-examining Dr. Schneider, Prosecuting Attorney Charles B. Murray asked:

Q. You believe that when the defendant fired two shots he was of unsound mind? A. I do.

Q. Was he capable of forming a purpose at 1 o'clock in the afternoon to kill a man, and keep it in his mind until 1:25? A. Yes sir, I believe he was capable of so doing. I'm not saying he did that, however.

Seen Crippled by Obsession

Q. Was he capable of rejecting wrong in choosing right? A. I don't believe so. His whole mind was obsessed with only one thing to the exclusion of matters that should be pretty important to the normal individual."

"An accumulation of severe mental strain caused mental aberrations that resulted in his killing an individual without consequences of right or wrong," the psychiatrist continued.

Asked if Miller's emotional reactions to his domestic troubles had been normal, Dr. Schneider explained they were abnormal for two reasons, (1) Miller became incapable of forming his own decision and asked for advice in a promiscuous manner, although for many years he had followed the tenets of his profession to give advice; and (2) he built up an ultra-religious fixation in his mind which he did not have previously.

He intimated that the normal reaction is either to affect a reconciliation or terminate the affair by divorce or separation. But Miller "ran about in a surprisingly confused manner for a man of his profession and seemed to have no definite plan," Dr. Schneider said.

To Attorney Murray's question of whether psychiatry is a science, Dr. Schneider asserted "it was not so considered today."

Dover Straits Calmer, Clear Weather Forecast

London, May 26 (AP).—Wind and sea moderated in the Dover Straits tonight and prospects were good for clear weather.

The sun broke through after a cloudy morning and the barometer rose. At 10 p. m. (4 p. m. Eastern War Time) the temperature was 49.

High tide at Dover and Calais tomorrow will be at 4:06 a. m. and 4:19 p. m. and 10:19 a. m. Eastern War Time).

Maryland Tobacco Prices Show an Upward Trend

Upper Marlboro, Md., May 26 (AP). Fair and low qualities of dark and green tobacco reached last Friday's level on the southern Maryland tobacco auction market today after a sharp price drop in opening sales this week, the War Food Administration reported.

Describing the upward trend as gradual throughout the week, the WFA reported that both grades showed losses of from $4 to $8 per 100 pounds in most cases as compared with last Friday.

While crude nondescript varieties declined around $2, better quality grades advanced $1 to $2 per 100 pounds with the majority selling at $62, the ceiling.

The general quality of this week's offering was improved by farmers bringing some of their better grade tobacco to the markets, the WFA report continued. Due to transportation and labor conditions several buyers were unable to remove their purchases from the floor—necessitating a reduction in the number of selling days.

Crude nondescript grades were still being offered in high percentages, but the volume of this variety was reduced as compared with opening sales, the WFA said.

The Upper Marlboro Market operated on Monday, Wednesday and Friday, while the Charles County market sold on a daily basis.

Gross sales on the Southern Maryland markets this week were estimated at 2,875,000 pounds at an average of $48 per 100 pounds bringing the season's total and average to approximately 3,700,000 pounds at $48.50 per 100.

Average prices on a limited number of United States standards grades for the week ending May 26 as compared with the week ending May 19 were as follows:

Heavy crop: fair light red $62 per 100 pounds, up $1; fair dark red, $59, unchanged; low green, $29, up $7.

Tips: fair dark red, $52, per 100 pounds, down $3; low green, $19, down $7.

Thin crop: good light red, $63 per 100 pounds, unchanged; good dark red, $62, up $1.

Seconds: good light red, $62 per 100 pounds, up $2.

Nondescript: commonest crude, $15 per 100 pounds, down $2.

Aid of Doctors Asked ni Drive For Hospital

The Montgomery County Medical Society will be asked to appoint a medical advisory committee to work in conjunction with other committees of the Silver Spring Hospital Association and coordinate their activities, the construction board of trustees voted at its meeting Thursday night.

It is expected the committee will be composed of physicians who practice in Silver Spring where the association is sponsoring a membership drive of 10,000 subscribers in an effort to start the ball rolling for construction of a 250-bed hospital.

James W. Gill, chairman of grants committee, urged the board to consider "what type of hospital it wants" so that it can readily vote on the matter in a month or two when a grant is applied for.

Survey Approved

The executive board was authorized to decide whether to accept an offer from a firm of engineers to make a survey and recommendations of the proposed project covering all phases from its beginning to completion. The plan was described by Fred L. Lutes, president, who said the firm is offering its services free of charge, as it plans to engage in that work after the war.

John J. Dolan, chairman of the sites committee, reported that his group has three or four locations under consideration. The committee, he said, favors a site of at least 10 acres and a multi-story building. He suggested that an option be taken on the tracts under consideration until the association is ready to buy the land.

Although the membership drive officially opens Thursday, Charles Kopeland, speaking for Lee H. Robinson, chairman of membership, declared many persons already have made contributions at hospital headquarters, 8602 Georgia ave., supervised by Mrs. Virginia Klopp.

A total of $506.60 is in the bank, Ira C. Whitacre, treasurer, reported. Future meetings will be held at the call of the president, in an amendment voted to the constitution and by-laws.

Other reports were made by Paul Coughlan, chairman of special gifts, Dr. W. B. Mehring, medical survey, and Ralph Boyd, cooperating organizations.

Park Fees Abolished

Discontinuance of fees for the use of tennis courts in the Montgomery County park system was announced yesterday by Park Commissioner E. Brooke Lee.

Courts will be reserved for adults, Saturdays, Sundays and holidays but high school students who are regularly employed during the summer will be allowed to use them on these days.

When adults are not using the courts on Saturdays, Sundays and holidays, children will be permitted to use them. Lee pointed out that when adults arrive to play children will be required to finish the set they are playing and then give up the court.

Arrives Safe Overseas

Safe arrival of Aileen T. Allen, daughter of Mrs. James T. Allen, 32 Denwood ave., Takoma Park, in Australia, has been announced by the American Red Cross.

Miss Allen, formerly legal secretary for the American Security & Trust Co., is doing secretarial work. A sister, Sergt. Jacqueline Allen is with the Women's Reserve of the United States Marine Corps and a brother, Capt. Robert Allen, is also with the Marines. She is the daughter of the late Capt. James T. Allen of the USMC.

Troupe Encore Tonight

The Black Minstrel Troupe of the Takoma Park, Presbyterian Church Brotherhood Club will repeat a performance tonight at 8:30 in the church hall, Maple and Tulip aves. Written and directed by Roy Harbin the show has a cast of 25 members.

To Elect Officers

The Women's Republican Club of Silver Spring, will elect officers at a meeting Monday at 8 p. m. in Jesup Blair Community House, Georgia ave. and the District line.

Md. Woman Stabbed In Fight With Attacker

Baltimore, May 26 (AP).—Miss Cassie Wilkins, 24, was reported in an improved condition at Johns Hopkins Hospital today after a struggle with a Negro who she said dragged her into an alley and stabbed her last night.

Police said they took a 21-year-old suspect into custody, but that the victim's condition precluded any attempt to identify him. She was admitted to the hospital last nigh in what was described as a serious condition.

Schindler's
PEANUT BUTTER
--Nutritious!
"Your America"
PRESENTED BY THE UNION PACIFIC RAILROAD
SATURDAY 5-5:30 pm
NBC NETWORK
WRC

Rabies Outbreak Reported Waning

Gets 2½ Years

Police Chief Appeals Jail Term in Death

Luray, Va., May 26 (AP).—A Page County Circuit Court jury last night found Lawrence Good, 36, former police chief of Stanley, Va., guilty of involuntary manslaughter in the death of Marvin Jones, 19, and his punishment set at 2½ years in the penitentiary.

When the verdict was returned after more than three hours deliberation, Elliott Marshall of Front Royal, attorney for Good, made a motion before Judge H. W. Betram to set aside the verdict as contrary to law and evidence and for "other reasons to be assigned in writing."

The judge set Monday, June 5, consider the motion. Meanle, Good's release on bond of ,000 was continued.

The former police officer went on trial Tuesday charged with administering the beating which was alleged to have resulted in the death of Jones, also of Stanley. One of the witnesses for the Commonwealth, Dr. J. H. Dyerle, of Harrisonburg, testified that he saw Jones at the hospital after he had been injured and that his death resulted from a fractured skull.

In his testimony during the trial, Good said he hit Jones three times with his nightstick after the youth had been ordered o leave town and he had asked him to comply with the order. He said that after he had arrested him Jones attempted to attack him with a knife.

Officials Find Few Infections in Many Md. Dog-Bite Cases

By the Associated Press

Maryland's year-old rabies outbreak, which has resulted in the imposition of dog quarantines in much of the south-central portion of the State, was reported by officials yesterday to be "more or less static" with no real increase in incidence.

Dr. A. L. Brueckner, head of the livestock sanitary service of the University of Maryland, which is responsible for imposition of quarantines in affected areas, said the most recent rabid dog was found several days ago at Turners Station in Baltimore County.

Five persons, two of them children, were bitten by that animal before he was discovered to be rabid, Baltimore County police reported.

Dr. Melvin B. Douglas of Dundalk said none of the five was in any apparent danger of developing rabies, since they had been given the Pasteur treatment.

Two Cases in Two Months

State health and game departments officials confirmed generally Dr. Brueckner's assertion that the disease, if not on the wane, was at least under partial control.

Dr. C. H. Halliday, State health department epidemiologist, said an average of 20 to 25 dog bites were reported daily, but said that a check of each of these cases in the past two months had shown only two rabid dogs.

Dr. Brueckner declared that approximately 150 cases of rabies have been found since the start of the current outbreak, but there have been no human casualties. Animals infected included dogs, cats, a horse, pigs, cows and foxes.

He said the present quarantine includes all of Prince George's Anne Arundel, Howard, and Montgomery Counties and portions of Baltimore City and Baltimore County. The Anne Arundel County quarantine, scheduled to expire June 15, was extended for another 90 days Wednesday.

Outbreak Now in W. Va.

Meanwhile, reports from across the State line in Charles Town, W. Va., were that an outbreak had occurred there. Dr. G. P. Morrison, health officer, said that 10 persons had been bitten by dogs subsequently found to have been rabid.

Dr. Bruecker said that the present Maryland outbreak apparently started in Virginia and moved northward through the District of Columbia, where there were two human fatalities. It was first noted in the counties adjacent to the District. Prince Georges and Montgomery.

He said State law provided that the livestock service impose quarantines of 90 days, after which they may be renewed or allowed to lapse. During a quarantine, all dogs must be kept confined or leashed when walking.

Harold Smith Kolmer, State game and inland fish department secretary, said that "as far as I know, only a few foxes among the wild animals have been infected, most of them in Anne Arundel County and a few in Prince Georges and Montgomery."

He said foxes were not protected in Anne Arundel County, and might be killed with any weapons. Most fur bearing animals may be infected by rabies, he said, but no cases have thus far been found except among foxes.

Cases Summarized

Dr. Robert H. Riley, State health department director, said the department or its health officers investigated every reported dog-bite case, ordering the animal confined and giving inoculations to the persons bitten.

If no symptoms of the disease show in 10 days, he said, the animal is cleraed of disease-carrying possibilities.

He gave this summary of the department's anti-rabies campaign during this month:

Baltimore City — 147 persons bitten by dogs, of which 24 were strays and 1 was found to be rabid.

Baltimore County — 70 persons bitten by dogs, of which 3 were strays and 3 were found to be rabid.

Anne Arundel County—27 persons were bitten, and 4 rabid dogs were among the animals. In addition, three more rabid dogs were found, although they bit no one. One rabbit and one pig were found to be infected.

Montgomery County—13 rabid dogs were found during May.

Graduates of Maryland School for the Deaf

IN FREDERICK—Six boys and one girl are being graduated by the Maryland State School for the Deaf at Frederick, Md., this year. Members of the class are, seated, Robert B. Hanks, Raspeburg; Robert Lee Jones, Cumberland. Standing, James C. Peddicord, Frederick; James L. Ferrell, Issue; Lois Virginia Schaefer, Grantsville; Robert Alton Duley, Croom; Harold F. Manahan, Sabillasville

Dr. Harris, 66, Dies; Former Va. Legislator

Fredericksburg, Va., May 26 (AP). Dr. W. A. Harris, who served three terms in the General Assembly as delegate from Fredericksburg and Spotsylvania County, died unexpectedly at his home at Spotsylvania Court House last night.

The 66-year-old physician was prominent for many years in the civic and political life of this section. He had served as county coroner, as secretary of the now defunct Board of Public Roads and as county health officer. He was formerly a member of the board of visitors of Virginia Polytechnic Institute.

Dr. Harris entered the Army Medical Corps in World War I and rose to the rank of lieutenant colonel. He saw active service in France.

The physician received his medical degree from the Medical College of Virginia in 1901. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Mattie Putkett Harris; two daughters, Misses Virginia and Dorothy Harris of Spotsylvania; a son, Joseph A. Harris of Richmond; two sisters, Mrs. Thomas Frazier and Mrs. Charles Andrews of Spotsylvania, and two brothers, Dr. R. Marvin Harris of Orange and Innis D. Harris of Whitefield, Kans.

Rites will be conducted at the grave in Confederate Cemetary, at 2:30 p. m. Sunday.

Douglas C. Jackson

Charlottesville, Va., May 26.—Douglas Cary Jackson, 51, long in the mercantile business at Keswick, died this morning at his home. An active member of the Keswick Hunt Club, he was for years a prominent figure at the annual horse shows held throughout this section.

Mr. Jackson married Miss Mary Shipman, of Montclair, N. J., who survives, with two children, Douglas Cary Jackson, jr., and Evan Shipman Jackson.

Robert T. Belew

Charlottesville, Va., May 26.—Funeral rites for Robert Tucker Belew, 78, retired farmer, who died at his home at Crozet, were held this afternoon. He married Miss Mattie Ann Belew of the county, who survives, with four sons.

Eugene A. Perry

Charlottesville, Va., May 26.—Eugene A. Perry, 64, died here this morning. He was a partner in the firm of Nichols, Perry & Nichols, members of the New York Stock Exchange. Since 1931 he had made his home in Charlottesville. He was a member of the Sons of the American Revolution, Charlottesville Lodge of Elks, the Redlands Club, and the Farmington Country Club.

Fidelity Checks Mailed in Md.

Baltimore, May 26 (AP).—State Insurance Commissioner Lawrence E. Ensor announced today that checks totaling $426,378.96 are being mailed to 791 Maryland contract holders of the Fidelity Assurance Association, formerly the Fidelity Investment Association.

The company has been under liquidation by officials of Maryland, West Virginia, where it was incorporated, and other States since 1941. Liquidation proceedings have been delayed by a long court fight involving former officers of the company who attempted to reorganize the business and the securities and exchange commission. Under a mandate from the United States Supreme Court the case was dismissed by the United States District Court on May 22, 1943.

Police Locate Lost Auto Left in Ditch by Owner

Winchester, Va., May 26 (Spl.)—City police have done their good turn for the month.

When Frank H. Repass of Arlington came to the station and reported that he had lost his car they sent out an alarm which finally located the auto in a garage at Middleburg.

Repass, who was not familiar with the roads, was forced into a ditch. He stopped a bus on the road into Winchester. At police headquarters he found to his embarrassment he didn't know where he had left the car.

Va. Backers Of Roosevelt Organizing

Richmond, Va., May 26 (AP).—Work of organizing the Virginia State Committee of 100 for the re-election of President Roosevelt was reported today to be gaining momentum.

The committee, which is headed by Col. Christopher B. Garnett of Fairfax, plans to organize a committee of 100 for the State, committees of 100 each for the congressional districts, and committees of 100 for each of the counties and cities, and for some of the larger towns.

Rixey Smith, secretary of Senator Carter Glass and a member of the organization committee, said some 250 invitations had been sent to Democratic members of the General Assembly and others in the State. Nearly 100 acceptances have been received, he added.

"The committee is not "anti-anything," Smith said, but is designed to help carry Virginia for Roosevelt this fall. The only chance for Dewey, he added, would lie in a light vote.

Members of the organization committee, in addition to Col. Garnett and Smith, are former State Senator Frank Ball, Mrs. Alma Ramsey, former Floor Leader Charles Henry Smith, J. Nelson Anderson, and Mrs. Clifford Durr.

Meanwhile, E. R. Combs, Virginia national committeeman, said he believed the Virginia delegation would be sent to the Chicago convention uninstructed. He predicted that no resolutions would be adopted indorsing President Roosevelt, Senator Byrd or any other person.

Combs said he anticipated that the Virginia convention would name electors and would not, like South Carolina, wait until after the national convention starts before making the selections.

Walker Executed For Winchester Criminal Attack

Richmond, Va., May 26 (AP).—Howard R. Walker, 27-year-old Negro, convicted of criminally attacking a young Winchester matron, was put to death in the electric chair at the Virginia Penitentiary early today. Maj. W. Franklin Smyth, superintendent of the institution, said that Walker died at 8:41 a. m.

Under the State law, no details of the execution were available.

Walker originally had been sentenced to die on April 26, but Governor Darden had granted a 30-day reprieve, on the request of the condemned man's counsel, to allow an appeal to be made to Judge Burr P. Harrison of the Corporation Court of the City of Winchester. Judge Harrison dismissed motion for writ of error in a lengthy opinion, holding that Walker had been given every opportunity to present his defense testimony, but had elected to plead guilty and waived jury trial.

Walker was charged with attacking the young woman while she was alone in her home on the night of March 27. Commonwealth's Attorney James P. Reardon said Walker had confessed to the attack.

City Stores to Close For Hospital Dedication

Martinsburg, W. Va., May 26 (Spl.)—Retail merchants here announced today they would close their establishments for the afternoon of June 9 when the formal dedication of the new Newton D. Baker Hospital, four miles east of this city, is held.

Col. E. [illegible] Cook, commanding officer at the 2,000-bed, 5 million dollar hospital which has been taking care of patients since January has issued an invitation to the general public to attend the ceremony.

Richmond Hog Pens Again Are Swamped

Richmond, Va., May 26 (AP).—Hog producers, who have been marketing their hogs in record numbers during recent months, again have flooded the Richmond market, J. H. Meek, market director of the State Department of Agriculture, said today.

"All hog pens in the Union Stock Yards," Meek said, "are again filled to capacity and we can see little or no relief in sight until June 1. Producers are urged to withhold shipments until June 1.

Cow Auction Held

Frederick, Md., May 26 (AP).—The eighteenth annual consignment sale under the auspices of the Frederick County Holstein-Friesian Association was held today at the fairgrounds when 67 cows from the best herds in the State were auctioned.

Benefit Sale Today

Purcellville, Va., May 26.—The Junior Guild of St. Peter's Episcopal Church is sponsoring a garden party and food sale at the home of Mrs. Mary V. Smith in Purcellville at 3 p. m. tomorrow. Mrs. Robert I. Bready is president of the Junior Guild.

TRAFFIC TIPS AND QUIPS

A BAFFY DRIVER, NAME OF BILL,
ALWAYS PASSED CARS ON A HILL.
THE SAME THING WENT FOR DASHING DON—
ONE DAY THEY MET, AND BOTH PASSED—OV!
NATIONAL SAFETY COUNCIL

Improper passing on hills and curves continues to take an unusually large toll of lives in Virginia, say the State Police. All of the highways in the State are marked for unsafe passing zones and yet hundreds of motorists disregard these warnings. Never cross a solid white line. Pass only where you have sufficient sight distance to be sure your move can be made in safety!

State Bankers Warned of Duty To Avert Spree

Baltimore, May 26 (AP).—The bankers' greatest duty now and for some time to come will be to see that deposits are not used to finance a spending spree that will bring on serious inflation, Dr. W. Randolph Burgess, vice president of the American Bankers Association, declared today.

Speaking at the concluding session of the forty-ninth annual meeting of the Maryland Bankers Association held in Baltimore, Dr. Burgess pointed out that bank deposits in this country now stand at about 100 billion dollars and that the national debt is nearly twice that amount.

"Our greatest postwar danger is not a depression but is the danger that this huge mass of buying power will break loose and throw our economy out of gear," he explained.

James Dixon of the Easton (Md.) National Bank was elected president of the association at the convention and Frank W. Wrightson, president of the Provident Savings Bank, Baltimore, was named vice president.

Tentative plans for a celebration of the fiftieth anniversary of the organization next year were discussed.

Driver, 17, Given 6-Month Sentence In 2 Auto Deaths

Portsmouth, Va., May 26 (AP).—Clinton D. Gatewood, 17, today faced two jail sentences of six months each following his conviction on charges of manslaughter in connection with an automobile accident last February 27. Two young women who were passengers in his automobile were drowned when the car plunged off the Churchland Bridge.

Gatewood was convicted Thursday in Norfolk County Circuit Court. Judge A. B. Carney ruled that the sentences run concurrently, and a motion to set aside the verdict was continued until the July term of the court.

The young women drowned in the accident were Mary Pauline Horton, 19, of Portsmouth, and Anna Ruth Lawson, 20, of Highland Park.

In imposing sentence, the court said that the automobile apparently was operated with "wanton recklessness" at one of the most hazardous places in the Norfolk County highway system.

New Town Treasurer

Purcellville, Va., May 26.—Mrs. W. W. Zimmerman, of Purcellville, wife of Major Zimmerman, has been appointed treasurer of the town of Purcellville to fill the vacancy caused by the death of John B. Nichols, who had held the office for a number of years.

Area Soldiers Lost in Action Listed by Army

The War Department yesterday announced the names of 536 United States soldiers missing in action. Among them were the following Virginians:

Missing in the European area: Staff Sergt. Harvey T. Belcher, Chester; Second Lieut. Merlin F. Kulp, Lynchburg; Flight Officer Thomas H. Rivenbark, whose wife lives at Front Royal; Second Lieut. Sterling T. Strange, jr., Richmond.

Mediterranean area: Second Lieut. William B. Ely, Norfolk; Second Lieut. James E. Faris, jr., Fortress Monroe; Staff Sergt. Marshall W. Feltner, son of Mrs. Clara Feltner, Berryville; Pvt. Edward A. Gibson, Callands; Staff Sergt. Harry A. Parsons, jr., Charlotte; Second Lieut. Robert M. Wade, jr., Roanoke.

Among the Marylanders missing in action were:

Tech. Sergt. James W. Beard, son of Mrs. Cecelia L. Beard, Westminister, missing in the European area.

Missing in the Mediterranean area were Sergt. Albert M. Cline, Baltimore; Staff Sergt. Saul D. Goodman, son of Mrs. Sarah Goodman, Cumberland; Staff Sergt. Lloyd E. Sanbower, son of Mrs. Grave V. Sanbower, Boyds, and Tech Sergt. John D. Vinson, Baltimore.

WFA to Supply Va. Schools With Canning Foods

Richmond, Va., May 26 (AP).—The War Food Administration will supply Virginia schools with snapbeans, beets, tomatoes, carrots and cabbage to can for use in their own lunch programs Stanley Munro State supervisor of the WFA's office of distribution here, announced today.

The WFA also will pay the schools from two-and-a-half to seven cents for each can depending on its size, Munro said.

The program is to begin immediately, Munro stated, and the Virginia WFA is now contacting schools of the State to ascertain if they want the vegetables. The purpose of the program, he explained, is to insure maximum utilization of foods which are in relative abundance. The offer extends to all schools on the high school level or under, which are non-profit making and which have facilities for canning.

Brentsville District 4-H Club Organized

Manassas, Va., May 26.—Thirty-six boys and girls of the Brentsville district enrolled as members of the Nokesville 4-H Club at an organization meeting in the Nokesville School auditorium.

Officers elected are as follows: Ray Smith, president; Marie Kerlin, vice president; Mary Frances Flory, secretary-treasurer; Hubert Rowe, cheer leader; Barbara Thayer, song leader. Ernest C. Goff will be the leader for the boys' group and Mrs. George Thayer will lead the girls' group. Meetings will be held on the last Tuesday in each month at the Nokesville High School.

Two Held in Theft From Maryland Doctor

Frederick, Md., May 26 (Spl.)—Two Frederick men, Edwin O Mackley and Crawford Falk, are being held under $1,000 bond each on a charge of larceny. State police said the men robbed the office of Dr. Harvey F. Getzendanner, this city, of a physician's satchell yesterday. The satchel, according to Dr. Getzendanner, contained 100 morphine capsules.

Tire Thief Fined $500 And Given Year in Jail

Winchester, Va., May 26 (Spl.)—Edward Harris of Front Royal charged with stripping a car of five tires in 1942 was given a year's sentence and fined $500 yesterday by a jury in Frederick County Circuit Court. The larceny was committeed at Stephens City in this county.

Va. Liquor Rationing Liberalized

Richmond, Va., May 26 (AP).—An additional fifth of domestic whisky will be made available to holders of liquor ration books, effective June 1, the State Liquor Board announced today.

The extra whisky will be in addition to the two pints or quart to which the regular June tickets would entitle a new book holder and will be available upon the surrender of the upper half of coupon No. 83 in the back of the new book. No sale in June can be made except on the new book.

Exchange Extended

Exchange of old books for new will be continued through Monday instead of being stopped tomorrow night, as was originally announced.

Those who do not procure new books by Monday night will have to register an original application after June 1, which will necessitate the presentation of documentary identification.

Added to the ration free list of items will be sloe gins, fruit-flavored gins, fruit flavored brandies, spceial liqeurs, domestic cordials and ligeurs and nine balzac imported items.

Dubonnet, which is on the ration free list for May, will be returned to the list requiring coupons, but the three brands of rums and imported sherries and ports will still require no ration tickets. Foreign gins are placed back on the regular ration list.

Domestic Types Only

Current June coupons will be good for four fifths of domestic brandies and foreign rums not listed in the ration free list; four-fifths of fortified wines, and for the usual two pints, one quart or one fifth of distilled spirits.

The additional or bonus amount can only be one fifth, and not a pint, and can be taken only in domestic whisky, which excludes Scotch whiskies.

Merger of Two Utilities in Va. Consummated

Richmond, Va., May 26 (AP).—The merger of the Virginia Electric & Power Co. and the Virginia Public Service Co. became effective as of last midnight after all steps necessary to consummate the action had been completed successfully, J. G. Holtzclaw, Vepco president, announced today.

A joint statement by Holtzclaw and W. E. Wood, executive vice president of Vepco, said all of the officers of both companies will continue to serve as officers of the merged company.

The board of directors of the merged company will consist of 19 members, 17 of whom are residents of the State of Virginia.

"More than 90 per cent of the customers of the merged company are within an air line radius of 100 miles of headquarters located in Richmond," the official said. "In our opinion the merger will result in a strong, sound, integrated company."

W. H. Peirce Dies; Md. Metallurgist

Baltimore, May 26 (AP).—William Henry Peirce, 78-year-old metallurgist under whose presidency the Baltimore Copper Smelting and Refining Co. achieved the world's largest copper refinery, died yesterday at the Johns Hopkins Hospital.

Peirce received in 1931 the James Douglas medal, one of the highest honors awarded to men in his field. He retired in 1933 after having held successively the posts of assistant manager, manager, vice president and president. During his tenure the company became a subsidiary of the American Smelting and Refining Co. Since 1933 he had lived at his country home at Cockeysville. He is survived by his widow. Funeral services will be held tomorrow.

Bishop Tucker Honored

Associated Press Photo

GIFT FROM DIOCESE—The Right Rev. H. St. George Tucker, D. D. (left), who resigns in June as Bishop of Virginia to continue as Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church in the United States, is shown receiving a gift of the diocese from the Right Rev. Frederick D. Goodwin, D. D., Bishop Coadjutor of the Diocese of Virginia, at a special gathering in Richmond. The check is for $2500, representing the part of a fund to be spent at Bishop Tucker's discretion for the rehabilitation of the church in the Orient

The Federal Diary

By Jerry Kluttz

Federal Workers' Union 1944 Platform Drawn Up

The 1944 platform of the American Federation of Government Employes calls for: The payment of actual time and a half to Federal employes for overtime work; the establishment of a health program, a uniform differential for night work, the restoration of holidays as soon as the military situation justifies it, and the uniform application of annual and sick leave regulations. These were among the planks adopted yesterday by the executive council which is in session at the Statler Hotel. The AFL union won't hold a convention this year. The council also recommended that each Federal worker be given a vacation this year and that any employe who foregoes his vacation be paid for it.

CONQUERING GENERAL: The other day an official of General Mills, the big Minneapolis food concern, came here to discuss his problems with top Government people. One person he had to talk with was Lieut. Gen. Brehon Somervell, chief of the Army Service Forces. He called the general's office half a dozen times during the day and each time he was nicely brushed off by the secretary. Then he had an idea. He picked up the phone, got Somervell's office, and, speaking with authority, he demanded:

"This is General Mills, let me talk with General Somervell."

"Just a minute, General," said the secretary sweetly, "I'll put him on."

When he appeared before the House Appropriations Committee, OWI Chief Elmer Davis was asked if he had a newspaper background. "To some extent," he explained, "I was 10 years in that business and I was in radio for three years. I was an unemployed author for about 15 years" . . . NRD is a new one in Government personnel lingo. Lieut. Gen. William N. Haskell, OCD director, used it when he told the committee that his new deputy, Col. Frank A. McNamee, would be a NRD.. It means "nonreimbursable detail." In other words, the Army will continue to pay McNamee's salary . . . War Relocation Authority Chief Dillon Myer said that the demand for Jap domestics was 10 to 15 times the supply. He added that from 1200 to 1500 Jap girls had been trained to be nurses aides.

SOUND ASLEEP: Representative Lambertson (R., Kans.) was surprised to hear that OWI had a domestic branch. He thought it had been discontinued a year ago. And he also thought the branch was used to "curtail" the press rather than to supply it with news . . . OWI, incidentally, has its own security office and it, with the help of Civil Service and the FBI, makes a "spot" check on all employes before they are put on the job . . . Ralph K. Davies, the $10,000-a-year deputy petroleum administrator, made half a dozen times that figure when he was with Standard Oil of California and as a "big businessman" his views of Government work and salaries are interesting. He told the committee. The substance was that the 1400 people in his organization were overworked and underpaid.

When Corrington Gill, executive officer for the Congested Area Committee, was relating to the committee how his agency had aided the war, Representative D. Lane Powers (R., N. J.), interrupted to ask: "What happened to the war effort before the committee was created 11 months ago?" To which Gill replied: "It got along, but I do not think it got along quite so well." Powers led the fight to kill the agency and the House is expected to back him up . . . The Germans are conducting a letter-writing campaign to their prisoners of war in this country and in one recent shipment 18,000 bags of mails arrived on a single ship. Each letter must be read by employes in the New York office of the Office of Censorship and Director Byron Price told the committee that a report is made on about 1 per cent of them.

B. & O. Express Kills Trio in West Virginia

Parkersburg, W. Va., May 26 (AP). The fast Baltimore & Ohio National Limited killed three persons last midnight when, apparently confused, they stepped from safety into the path of the speeding eastbound train.

A woman telegraph operator reported the victims, two young women and a man, moved onto the main line—one of three tracks at the spot—after she shouted and waved a lantern to warn them.

2 Schools to Graduate

The commencement exercises of Sherwood High School, Sandy Spring, will be held June 13, when 20 graduates will be awarded diplomas. The Damascus High School commencement will also be held June 13, with 18 graduates.

Livestock and Produce

Baltimore Livestock

Baltimore, May 26 (AP) (WFA Office of Distribution).—CATTLE—Receipts, 125; cleanup deals steady with Thursday; canner cows, 6.50@8.00; cutter and common, 8.50@10.00; medium dairy cows, 10.50@12.00; top sausage bulls quotable 12.00; small lot good feeder steers around 770 lbs., 14.00.

CALVES—Receipts, 50; nominally steady; good and choice vealers, 16.00@17.00; medium, 12.00@16.00; common, 8.50@11.00; culls down to 6.00.

HOGS—Receipts, 1100; active; steady with Thursday; unchanged.

SHEEP—Receipts, 100; no early action; undertone steady on spring lambs; strictly good and choice spring lambs quotable 16.00@17.00; fat wooled slaughter ewes 7.50 down.

(Note: The Baltimore livestock market will be closed to trading on Tuesday, May 30, in observance of Memorial Day.)

Chicago Livestock

Chicago, May 26 (AP) (WFA).—SALABLE HOGS—Receipts, 8000; total, 13,000; very dull, steady on weights 270 lbs. and down, weak on heavier weights and sows; good and choice, 180-270 lbs., 13.75, the top; 280-300 lbs., 13.65@12.15; weights over 300 lbs. down to 11.25 and less; good and choice, 150-170 lbs., 12.00@13.00; medium, 150-220 lbs., 11.50@12.75; good and choice 300-350 lb. sows, 10.60@10.85; approximately 12,000 unsold, virtually all support hogs.

SALABLE CATTLE—Receipts, 1500; salable calves, 500; weekend market dull, adversely affected by process of sharply reduced slaughter next Monday; most large local packers very indifferent buyers; general trade weak to 25 lower; steers steady to weak, heifers 10 to 15 lower; cows and bulls weak to 25 lower; vealers weak; some medium grade steers taken off market; no strictly choice steers here, best 15.90, bulk 13.75@15.75; best heifers 15.60, several loads 15.00 and 15.25; cutter cows slow at 9.00 down; most beef cows showed considerable grass and drassed at 10.00@11.50; after advancing early in week bulls lost upturn, most sausage offerings today 10.00@11.50, with few at 12.00; fat bulls shared decline at 13.60 down; vealers weak at 16.00 down; stock cattle well cleaned up.

SALABLE SHEEP—Receipts, 3000; total, 4000; steady; two loads good and choice 90 lbs. shorn lambs, Nos. 1 and 2 pelts, 14.00; load good and choice 81-lb. weights 13.90, sorted 47 plain lambs average 70 lbs. at 11.50; two loads shorn lambs held above 13.75; small lots lightweight native springers 15.50 to city butchers; few shorn native ewes 7.00 down.

Richmond Markets

Richmond, Va., May 26 (AP) (U. S. Dept. of Agr.) (Prices represent sales on wholesale market)—WHITE POTATOES—Receipts light, market steady, 100-pound sacks, U. S. No. 1, Maine, 3.00@3.25.

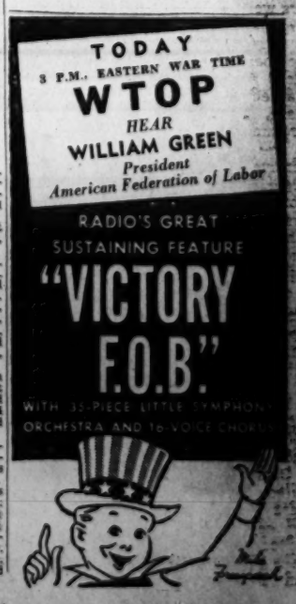
CABBAGE — Receipts light, market strong, 50-pound sacks, Florida, green, 1.75@2.00.

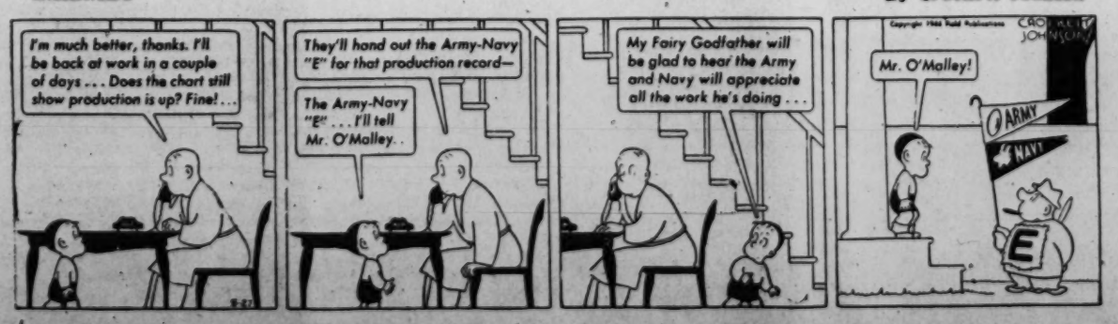
POULTRY AND EGGS—Supplies liberal. Current receipts weak. Market steady. Federal-State grading stations, whites and browns, U. S. grade A, large, 32; U. S. grade A, medium, 28; U. S. grade A, small, 25; U. S. grade B, large, 30; U. S. grade C, 27. Nearby unstraded eggs, current receipts, whites and mixed colors, 56 pounds and under, 25@26, mostly 26; 57-60 pounds, 28. Pullet eggs, 18@20.

LIVE POULTRY—Receipts moderate on young chickens, liberal on hens. Market dull and weak. Broilers, fryers and roasters, 30½. Fowl, colored, 22-24 pounds, mostly 22; Leghorns, 20. Old roosters, 16.

HOGS—All hog pens at Union Stockyards are again filled to capacity. Producers are urged to withhold shipments until Thursday, June 1.

CATTLE—Market stronger, early sales of strictly good steers brought 15.00@15.75; few choice higher; medium to good, 13.50@15.00. Fat dairy type cows bring 9.00@10.50; medium to good, 8.00@9.50; common, 6.00@7.00; canners, 5.00@6.00. Butcher bulls, 10.00@11.00; sausage bulls, 9.00@10.00. Vealers fully steady, good and choice topping around 15.50@13.75.





BARNABY
By Crockett Johnson
I'm much better, thanks. I'll be back at work in a couple of days . . . Does the chart still show production is up? Fine! . . .
They'll hand out the Army-Navy "E" for that production record—
The Army-Navy "E" . . . I'll tell Mr. O'Malley . .
My Fairy Godfather will be glad to hear the Army and Navy will appreciate all the work he's doing . . .
Mr. O'Malley!
ARMY
NAVY
E

The Washington Post

Registered in U. S. Patent Office.

An Independent Newspaper
(Published every day in the year.)

Eugene Meyer, Editor and Publisher

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in this paper and local news of spontaneous origin published herein. Rights of republication of all other matter herein are also reserved.

New York Office.....270 Madison Avenue
Chicago Office.....360 North Michigan Avenue

CARRIER DELIVERY

District of Columbia and Suburbs.

Daily and Sunday	Sunday Only	Daily Only
One week ...$ .35	One week ...$ .10	One week ...$ .15
One month.. 1.10	One month.. .45	One month.. .65

Elsewhere

Daily and Sunday	Sunday Only	Daily Only
One week ...$ .30	One week ...$ .10	One week ...$ .20
One month.. 1.30	One month.. .45	One month.. .85

BY MAIL—PAYABLE IN ADVANCE

Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia and North Carolina

Daily and Sunday	Sunday Only	Daily Only
One year...$12.00	One year....$5.25	One year....$7.00
Six months.. 6.50	Six months.. 2.75	Six months.. 4.00
One month.. 1.30	One month.. .50	One month.. .85

Other States, Mexico and Canada

Daily and Sunday	Sunday Only	Daily Only
One year..$12.75	One year....$6.00	One year....$7.50
Six months.. 7.00	Six months.. 3.00	Six months.. 4.25
One month.. 1.30	One month.. .55	One month.. .85

Rates to Foreign Countries not listed will be furnished upon request.

Entered at the Postoffice, Washington, D. C., as second-class mail matter.

TELEPHONE NATIONAL 4200.

Saturday, May 27, 1944.

FEPC

The House Appropriations Committee showed a wise tolerance, we think, in recommending the allotment of half a million dollars for continuation of the President's Fair Employment Practices Committee. If the recommendation is approved by both houses of Congress, as we very much hope it will be, the FEPC will cease to be merely a presidential agency and will have independent status under congressional authorization. This is as it should be. The Post has expressed indorsement, in principle, of Senator Russell's proposal requiring all Federal agencies set up by executive order to secure an appropriation from Congress after they have been in existence for a year. We should regret very much indeed, however, to see this sound general requirement employed, as some intended, to end the FEPC's useful career.

There is particular need of the FEPC at the present time. To Negroes, the minority most urgently in need of its protection, the agency symbolizes the Government's recognition of their plight. Through the activities of the FEPC, war employment otherwise barred to them because of racial prejudice has been opened up to Negroes. The war effort of the Nation has been accelerated by the utilization of their skills and energies. By gradual, patient, constructive effort the areas of discrimination are being reduced. The effort must not be abandoned now if we are to keep faith with the democratic principles we profess.

Bonuseering

The American people have been put on notice that bonuseering is again on the march. Last week the House passed a bill granting pensions to widows and children of veterans of World War I who had no service-connected disability of any kind. It was the worst kind of vote-getting bill which unless arrested will leave a weight of woe on future generations.

To be sure, the bill is a logical sequel to the constant "improvements" which have been made to pension legislation. The laws have already been liberalized to such an extent that pensions are being paid to the families of veterans whose death may have been only remotely connected with service-incurred disabilities, if at all. For instance, Congress passed a law in 1924 declaring all veterans who became disabled prior to the first of January, 1925, to be presumptively service-connected casualties. On their deaths, the wives and children of such men are entitled to pensions. The pension laws have also been progressively liberalized to permit dependents of deceased veterans to draw pensions if the latter had any service-connected disability, however slight, at the time of death. Pensions are payable, moreover, under such circumstances even though the veteran's death may be due to a nonservice-connected disability.

Now it is proposed to sweep away all pretense that the pensioning of families of World War I veterans must be linked to service-connected disabilities and bring into the pension system wives and children of all deceased veterans (with minor exceptions) who can prove need of assistance. According to General Hines' estimate, the dependents of about 148,000 deceased veterans would be eligible for benefits under the House bill, and the first year's pension outlays might amount to 60 million dollars. We might perhaps take the view that Congress has already departed so far from the original purpose of limiting pensions to dependents of service-disabled veterans as to warrant going the whole way toward ignoring existing distinctions between the dependents of service-disabled veterans and others. However, such reasoning is dangerous, for passage of the House bill would almost surely pave the way for similar blanket pension laws applicable to millions of dependents of veterans of World War II.

House and Senate have already passed and sent to conference an omnibus "bill of rights" that makes most generous provision for postwar aid to able-bodied veterans in search of employment, as well as for training, education and hospitalization of veterans. And undoubtedly the people of this country wish to make generous provision for the dependents of veterans who lose their lives or suffer serious disability because of their service connections. But we do not want to saddle upon future generations of Americans, literally for decades to come, enormous pension bills for the support of wives and children of men who have served their country without sustaining injuries affecting their earning capacity. The cost of necessary pension relief—relief that nobody grudges—is going to be staggering in any case. It would be intolerable to have essential outlays swollen by pensioning dependents of deceased servicemen who had experienced no service disabilities whatever.

Yet if the bill that has just passed the House should become law, it would constitute a precedent for extending pension protection indiscriminately to dependents of World War II veterans. Surely Congress must realize that. Lack of such realization will persuade million of Americans that Congress is completely bereft of statesmanship.

Chicago Adventure

Attorney General Biddle is left standing firmly in midair by the McCarran-Revercomb report on the Montgomery Ward case. If the findings of this Senate subcommittee are correct, Mr. Biddle distorted the facts, misconstrued the law and improperly approved the use of force where other remedies were available. In short, these two members of the Senate's investigating subcommittee believe the Montgomery Ward affair to have been an adventure in governmental lawlessness. Senator McFarland did not sign the report, but he presented no dissent from its findings.

Particularly damning is the accusation that the Attorney General misrepresented the facts of the case. He informed the President that in 1942 the NLRB "found that the company had been guilty of unfair labor practices in its plant in Chicago." "The fact is" says the McCarran-Revercomb report, "that the record of the hearing and the order of the National Labor Relations Board states plainly that the company was absolved of all charges as to unfair labor practices."

The Attorney General also informed the President that all orderly and peaceful means of disposing of the dispute had been exhausted. Actually a suit instituted by Montgomery Ward against the WLB was pending at the time, and the court had held that "if the board's proper order was not obeyed it would have the right to go into the District Court and ask for a mandatory injunction to compel compliance with its order." Moreover, the case was carried to the courts soon after troops had been used to seize the mail-order house. It seems to us, as to the subcommittee, that these facts reduce the Attorney General's contention that no legal remedy was at hand to a mere quibble.

As to distortion of the law, the report points out that Section 3 of the War Labor Disputes Act is an amendment to Section 9 of the Selective Service Act and must be read in the light of that basic legislation. Section 9 relates directly to the taking of plants when companies refuse to manufacture or furnish supplies for the Army and Navy. To say the very least, the language of these acts leaves a large question as to the President's authority to seize nonwar plants, and it seems to us that that doubt should have been resolved by carrying the case to the courts.

The subcommittee gives Mr. Biddle's other argument, that the seizure can be justified under the President's general war powers, the short, blunt answer that it deserves: "The powers given the Chief Executive in time of war by the Constitution relate to his position as Commander in Chief of the Army and Navy and are military powers only. All other powers which the President may exercise in time of war have been derived from acts of Congress." In short, the investigating Senators believe that the President had no constitutional or statutory power to issue the order under which the Chicago mail-order house was taken over.

Several other disturbing aspects of the case are brought to light. The investigators could find "no basis of fact to support a finding that the dispute 'may lead to substantial interference with the war effort.'" Such a finding by the Conciliation Service was necessary under the law to certification of the dispute to the War Labor Board. The subcommittee concludes that the certification was "purely pro forma." Then there is the disconcerting fact that the Chicago regional WLB declined to take jurisdiction in a Sears, Roebuck & Co. case three months after the WLB in Washington had issued orders to Montgomery Ward. One of its reasons for not interfering is that Sears' mail-order house in Minneapolis "was not engaged in war production." But Ward's mail-order house in Chicago is regarded as an integral part of war production.

Such inconsistencies, casual findings and loose construction lead inevitably to the conclusion that our war-inflated bureaucracy is playing fast and loose with the law and the rights of the people. That is the gravest sort of indictment—an indictment that cannot be sloughed off by tossing epithets at obstinate and reactionary Sewell Avery.

Bulgar Crisis

The Bulgarian crisis is approaching an acute stage. Russia is said to have sent an ultimatum to Sofia threatening a break in relations unless Bulgaria stops helping Germany. So far there has been no confirmation of this report, though there is no reason to doubt its essential truth. In any case the sands appear to be running out for Bulgaria. For too long has she played the Axis game even while retaining her link with Russia. Now, on the eve of great and decisive military events, an invasion of the Balkans among them, Bulgaria must choose, and choose quickly, which side she is really on. If she continues to support the Reich, she courts certain defeat and probable destruction. Her only hope of salvation is to break with Germany while there is still time.

One of the things that has held Bulgaria back up to now was her desire to retain the ill-gotten territorial gains she acquired with the aid of Hitler. Recently Bulgarian emissaries approached Russia and made an offer that Russia agree to allow Bulgaria to keep these gains. In return Bulgaria was to kick out the Germans and aid the Allies. To Russia's credit this offer was spurned. Bulgaria was told that the decision regarding Bulgaria's future boundaries was one for United Nations action.

That there is some truth in this report is indicated by the fact that the failure of this peace mission was followed by the resignation of the Bulgarian government. The regency then named a pro-Nazi, Christo Kaloff, to head a new regime, but, after trying to organize a government, Kaloff failed. In the meantime Swiss reports tell of the dispatch by Germany of large forces into Bulgaria and the closing of the Bulgarian-Turkish frontier. There is thus a real possibility that Bulgaria will become another Hungary. For only a short time is a certain freedom of movement available to the authorities at Sofia.

Nazi Commissars

The Nazi government, in the fifth year of war and on the eve of decisive military events, has found it necessary to borrow a page from the book of the hated Bolsheviks, a page which, however, the Bolsheviks months ago threw into the wastebasket. Political commissars have been put into the German army. Presumably their functions will be the same as those of the Russian army commissars, who served both as propaganda agents and as government spies. More often than not they also interfered with the conduct of strategy, as at Hango in the Russian-Finnish War of 1939-40, when a political commissar stood on the bridge of the Kirov and guided it, with disastrous results, right into the line of fire of the Hango guns.

The system may have had its uses when large numbers of Czarist officers were employed in the ranks of the Red army. Inevitably, however, it broke down in the war with Germany and was finally abolished. An army that could fight with the valor and hardihood of the Red army needed no indoctrination and certainly did not need to be watched. But apparently this is not true, at least not true any longer, of the German army. It looks as if the Nazis no longer feel sure of the loyalty of the German army and its morale. As one of these newly named commissars, Lieut. Fritz Hein, explains the matter in Hermann Goering's newspaper, the Essener Nationalzeitung: "Our great decisive offensive of 1918 failed because the soldiers who were ordered into battle had not been mentally prepared and were therefore unable to stand the heavy strain." The political education of the soldier, adds Lieutenant Hein, "is at least as important as his military training." The innovation is another sign of German weakness.

Harold Bell Wright

If we except the writers of juveniles like Horatio Alger, jr., William Taylor Adams (Oliver Optic), Edward Stratmeyer (Arthur M. Winnfield, Capt. Ralph Bonehill) and Gilbert Patten (Burt L. Standish), probably no American writer ever had such an audience and held it so long as Harold Bell Wright. More copies of The Winning of Barbara Worth were sold in the years of its popularity than of any other American novel except Uncle Tom's Cabin and Gone With the Wind. At the last audit more than 2,000,000 had been sold, and the book is still being read. The sales of Wright's other novels were only a little less amazing.

Wright was an extraordinary and perhaps inexplicable phenomenon. His books have none of the sex spice and melodrama of Mrs. Mitchell's opus, none of the excitement of the horse operas of the late Zane Grey. Born in poverty, reared in squalor, and almost entirely without formal schooling, he was by turns a bound boy, a hobo, an itinerant painter and, finally, a Baptist preacher. His stories were formless, without subtlety or style. But they were full of a sort of stubborn and naif optimism and a crude idealism, which in some strange way seemed to express the inarticulate aspirations of millions of simple and humble American souls.

For Wright himself, though he died a millionaire and, apparently, like many another millionaire, could think of nothing better to do with his pile than to buy a ranch with it, was an extremely simple and humble man. "I do not," he wrote in his autobiography, "think very highly of myself as a writer . . . I have never in my work looked toward a place in literature. But I have hoped for some small part in the life of the people for whom I have written . . . the people of whom I am one and to whom I belong as wholly today as I did in those years when I labored with the tools of a quarry instead of a pen."

Those words are not without a certain clumsy eloquence. They have, moreover, the ring of that sincerity for which many an artist, immeasurably more gifted than Harold Bell Wright, has striven in vain.

ON THE ASCENSION OF OUR SAVIOR

And dost Thou leave Thy flock behind,
O Holy Shepherd, in the valley blind,
And rising through the air of heaven alone
Withdraw to Thy immortal throne?

Thy onetime happy children, Lord,
Afflicted now, then playing by Thy knee,
What shall they turn their faces toward
When reft of Thee?

What can the eyes regard with joy
That saw the beauty of Thy face?
What can employ
The ears that heard Thy words of grace?

Who now in this mad sea
Can calm the tempests raging free,
Can make the winds obey, and save
Our ship all broken on the tidal wave?

How rich! how rich! it draws away,
The cloud that envied us one joyful day,
The cloud enveloping our Lord, our gladness.
How poor! how poor! it leaves our world of sadness.

FRAY LUIS de LEON adapted by LAURENCE DAVIS.

Good Neighbors

By Virginia Prewett

Bolivia's First Step

AFTER THE FIRST impact of Bolivia's dramatic round-up of Germans and Japanese has passed, it is becoming very apparent that immediate recognition cannot result from it, as some observers assumed when the story first broke. This is by far the most convincing step the La Paz junta has taken to show they mean it when they say they have thrown the pro-Nazis out of their group. It is an extremely important step forward toward solution of the unhappy impasse. But in view of the whole situation, it can only be a first step.

The junta timed their move against the Axis perfectly. For weeks past all kinds of pressures have been brewing. Appeasers within the United States and outside it have been clamoring for us to change our stand. They point out that the junta has called elections, passed a decree expropriating Axis property and accepted the resignations of six members of the pro-Fascist MNR. But Secretary Hull has stood squarely on his original position, taken because the Bolivian revolution's Axis ties constitute a threat to hemisphere safety in time of war.

With each day of uncertainty about recognition the junta's future has grown more insecure. The United States has kept on buying tin. But our antimony contract, Bolivia's third most important in money value, was not renewed after it expired late in December. Their wolfram contract, second in importance, expires June 30. If it is not renewed, the government will face a severe economic problem.

Ambassador Warren

When Ambassador Avra Warren appeared in La Paz to investigate their pleas of sincerity in breaking Axis ties, the junta got busy and rounded up the big majority of leaders in the German and Japanese colonies and turned them over to us. United States Army planes brought them to this country for internment last week.

The extreme significance of this move comes from the fact that the Germans control the most important importing exporting and retail commerce of the country. The most important schools are German. The rich colony has wide financial and social connections.

The deportation of 79 leaders has torn a gaping hole in this network. Yet the clean-up cannot be complete until the decree expropriating Axis property is carried through.

This is going to be hard to bring about. Bolivians will need financing to buy in the firms. These German networks have been getting goods from Argentina, and from Spain and Portugal through Argentina. We will have to supply these imports when the Axis channels to "neutrals" are cut. German managers and technicians will have to be replaced. Bolivia is lacking in many of these skills. The change is going to affect the country's whole economy very deeply. Yet it must come.

But there is an even more important step that Bolivia must take before American republics can be sure that they have merited recognition. This is to prove that the resignation of the MNR cabinet members, whom the reorganized junta is now repudiating, was not part of a temporary expedient to get recognition. In other words, if Bolivia's forthcoming election puts the known MNR totalitarians into control again, we shall be right back where we were when recognition was refused. We shall have in Bolivia a small replica of what we see in Argentina and be responsible for it.

Difficulties and Tragedies

Nobody is more aware of the difficulties and tragedies of the Bolivian situation than this writer. The nation today desperately needs the best economic and advisory aid that the strong nations of the hemisphere can give. Bolivia's extreme need, however, has been made the excuse for working hand in glove with the enemies of hemisphere stability. Behind this shield, Fascists and Nazis have made a determined attempt to sabotage the entire New World cooperative system so painfully built up for common defense.

The United States has been at all times in a position of extreme difficulty in the Bolivian matter. We have pledges to protect the hemisphere and we could not pass it over when the fascistic Argentines and their Axis friends attempted to set up a puppet regime in Bolivia. Yet if we had used direct action to bring down the junta, only to have the old crowd seize power again, our position before Latin America would have been very embarrassing.

Today we must accept the move to clean out the Axis at its proper value and even applaud it. Before the overturn came, our Government showed its willingness to help out on the economic problem. Yet we cannot afford to rush in and lead a parade toward recognition, only to have the junta turn back into a pro-Fascist MNR machine through the electoral process.

As much as economic help, Bolivia needs a government that represents all progressive political sectors in Bolivia. This is the only kind of government we can trust. It is the only kind that can establish stability and go forward with a program to relieve the country's distressing economic troubles.

Churchill And Spain

By Barnet Nover

Rejoicing Over One Sinner Saved

MANY OF WINSTON CHURCHILL'S admirers, and they are legion, will find it more than a little difficult to swallow his "kindly words about Spain."

Those words were decidedly out of character with the Churchill the world has come to know since 1940. They seem to be the echo of another and different Churchill—the Churchill who once proclaimed Mussolini a "great man," the Churchill whose normally acute vision was so blinded by surface appearances and class prejudices as to lead him, at the outset of the Spanish civil war, to proclaim his approval of the Mussolini-inspired and Axis-aided rebellion in the peninsula.

Churchill changed his mind about Mussolini and he changed his mind about the Spanish civil war. He may change his mind on Spain again. In casting up the balance of the contributions the Franco regime has made to the Allies as against those it has made to the Axis he may reach a very different conclusion from that he reached in his last speech.

THE BRITISH Prime Minister went completely overboard in expressing his gratitude to Spain. But, except for the recently concluded agreement regarding wolfram shipments to Germany and the closing of the German consulate at Tangier, the Spanish acts of good will which he cited were negative rather than positive.

Spain did not go to war with the Allies. She did not permit a German occupation. She remained "tranquil and friendly" during the days when the North African landings were being planned and Gibraltar was crowded with ships and planes.

These items are written in black ink in the Spanish ledger of the United Nations. But there are many red-ink entries about which Mr. Churchill says nothing.

HE SAYS NOTHING about the seizure of Tangier in violation of Spain's treaty commitments. He says nothing about the Blue Legion through which Franco actively participated in the war against Russia and added to the overwhelming difficulties which the Red army had to contend with during the most critical period of the war on the Eastern Front.

Furthermore, Mr. Churchill turns a Nelson eye on the continuous campaign of abuse, inspired by the Spanish government and directed against the Allies. He says nothing about the German agents who, until only just the other day, were permitted to use Spanish Morocco as a base of espionage. He says nothing about the pro-Axis, anti-American, anti-United States activities of the Falange in Latin America.

These actions constitute a far truer reflection of the Franco government's attitude than those for which Mr. Churchill is so warmly grateful. And some credit for what Spain did not do, when the going was hard for the Allies, certainly belongs not to Franco but to the Spanish people.

MR. CHURCHILL gives his case away when he says that Spain's entry into the war against the Allies would have been accompanied by the German occupation of Spain. It is possible, although the British statesman does not once suggest the possibility, that it was the unwillingness of the Spanish people to have their nation overrun by the Nazis far more than the generalissimo's objections, that made Hitler think twice before crossing the Pyrenees.

SECRETARY HULL recently said that fascism and free government "cannot exist together in the world."

One would have imagined, in view of what has happened in the world, that this was axiomatic. Certainly if this war is not a struggle against fascism it is purposeless.

But the menace, if Mr. Churchill is to be believed, is not against fascism as such but against German and Italian and Japanese fascism. We are determined to extirpate the wolves but intend to feed the cubs. They are so little, so friendly, so harmless. Yet cubs have a way of growing up.

Mr. Churchill also expressed the hope that "she (Spain) will be a strong influence for the peace of the Mediterranean after the war." With all due respects, this sounds like the late unlamented Neville Chamberlain speaking of the Fascist Italy that was.

If Spain becomes a strong influence for peace in the Mediterranean, and one can only hope that she will, it will not be the Spain of Francisco Franco. It will be a Spain of free men.

Letters To The Editor

Communications must carry the writer's name and address, though pen names are permitted at the editor's discretion. Letters should be held to not more than 200 words. They are subject to condensation.

"Churchill's Survey"—Correction

The dropping of a line in yesterday's editorial, "Churchill's Survey," resulted in a wrong construction. The line that was left out is italicized below.

He (the President) will not listen to those who say that the risks we run in not burying the hatchet with De Gaulle before the invasion are far greater than those we invite by burying it. By far the greater danger lies in keeping it exposed.

Recognize the Committee

The American troops were for the most part warmly welcomed when they landed in North Africa. Today, only a year and a half after that invasion, the prestige of the United States in this area is at a very low level. Why? A bungling political policy carried on by certain mediocre politicians who refused and still refuse to recognize realities and the fact that the American military failed to prepare its personnel to intelligently acclimate itself to and to cope with the local way of life are certainly not the least important of the causes. History alone will judge.

Rumors of the American experience in North Africa and Italy have already reached the peoples of the occupied countries. Our past mistakes have been widely used by the Axis propagandists to create more confusion and uncertainty for the hard-pressed victims of Nazi rule. Tomorrow, these same agents will be underground (part of the Third German Plan) carrying on the work of separation, for the peace and far after the peace.

Everything is supposed to be ready for the continental invasion in the west. Much is at stake. Much more, I'm afraid, than most Americans realize. All events in the past few months seem to point to the conclusion that the United States Government is about to embark upon a continuation of her bungling North African policy in France. No matter what Roosevelt may personally think of De Gaulle, anyone who is familiar with the resistance movement inside France knows that the majority of French people are united against the Germans. De Gaulle represents to the people inside France the symbol of that resistance in France as well as outside.

The role which De Gaulle will play in France tomorrow will depend upon himself and not upon anything Washington does or does not do. He will live in the hearts of his countrymen because he dared to resist, not only the Axis, but threats of Anglo-American domination as well. Further opposition to him from Washington can only make him the greater martyr in the eyes of Frenchmen—can only make more certain his chances for success tomorrow.

A strong, free and friendly (to America) France is important not only to America's tomorrow, but to that of the whole world, for France has been and will be again the light of our civilization. This very valuable relationship has been threatened by American activities in North Africa. Present political tendencies make one believe that it will be more dangerously threatened tomorrow. PHILESTE.

Washington, May 25.

Good Neighbor Policy

What are we doing to be a good neighbor? Aren't we trying to make over all the countries south of the Rio Grande into a likeness of ourselves?

Why should we in our arrogance presume to think that our ways are better than theirs. They have many customs and ways of life that might go far to make ours a better nation while we have much that might improve their nations. But would these improvements make for happier and more contented peoples?

Do we understand them? Do they understand us? The answer is an unquestionable "no"!

And the answer is that we have no common ground or foundation on which to build towards complete or even partial understanding.

Why not make a new beginning, build a foundation for the structure of understanding that will gradually grow and become great in the years to come.

We are the great nation of the Western Hemisphere, or so we like to think. But are we? Are we tolerant? Are we big enough to do the bigger things? Of course, we can give or lend money and give unlimitedly of our very able and sound advice, in our own opinion.

But can we say: Here we will start the foundation for that great future structure called understanding by meeting all the peoples of the Western Hemisphere on a common ground?

Few people realize that there are mroe Spanish-speaking people in the Western Hemisphere than all other people combined. But we pride ourselves in being the most educated in that we have the smallest percentage of illiterates.

The greatest thing we could do to promote the friendship of all our neighbors in the Western Hemisphere is to teach Spanish in all our elementary schools, high schools, and colleges and require the same number of credits in Spanish as we require in English.

Let us meet these people and even go well beyond the halfway mark. Learn their language so that we may begin to understand them, let us work with them, visit their countries, see their countries, of which they are justly proud, and then we will have gone far toward starting the structure of understanding that will in the years to come lead to real Pan Americanism and to a real practical Good Neighbor Policy. C. W. KIMLER.

Washington, May 25

Petain In Paris

By Paul Winkler

Saving Vichy Regime

MARSHAL PETAIN'S return to Rambouillet, near Paris, is causing much conjecture among the French. Was it, they ask, dictated by a concern for personal safety? For there has been speculation about the possibility of Allied parachute descents on Vichy at the time of the invasion, to capture members of the Vichy government. That would be more difficult in the Paris region, where Petain would enjoy the protection of the considerable concentrations of German troops there. Or was the move a preparation for some political coup by which Petain and his friends would attempt to regain some of their lost prestige with the Allies, and perhaps prevent the establishment in France after the invasion of the republican regime planned by the French Committee of Algiers?

Petain's move back to the region of the French capital, however, looks much more like closer association with the Germans than the opposite. Almost since the beginning of the German occupation there has been steady pressure upon Marshal Petain and his government to leave Vichy and return to Paris. The press and radio of the capital were the instruments of this pressure, but the Germans were the instigators, for they felt that their psychological domination over France would be more complete if the government returned to its traditional capital—where, also, it would be more firmly under the thumb of the occupying army.

Marcel Deat

Marcel Deat, today Vichy's Minister of Labor, but earlier one of the pro-German outsiders, harped on the theme of a return of the government to Paris regularly in his articles in the Paris Oeuvre. Today, he is too busy rounding up slave labor for the Germans to pay much attention to this campaign.

Pierre Laval started two years ago to transfer the government bit by bit to Paris. The technical departments of many of the ministries were moved back to the capital, and many of their leading officials spent only a day or two of each week in Vichy, which gradually lost much of its importance as an administrative center.

Marshal Petain, however, preferred to stay in Vichy. One reason was the confidential reports of his private services indicated that his unpopularity in the Parisian region was so great that anti-Petain demonstrations might have greeted him. That was a risk he did not desire to take.

But on April 26 of this year he finally came back to the capital to take part in funeral services for the victims of the Allied bombings of the Paris region. The Vichy propagandists took full advantage of this occasion to indulge in strong anti-Allied propaganda, and to attempt to arouse sympathy for the marshal by stressing the sacrifice he was making in going to Paris to perform this painful duty.

Parisians considered also that the occasion was not one on which it would be seemly to organize anti-Petain manifestations, and so the incidents which had been feared did not materialize when Petain came to the capital. A prearranged welcome occurred instead, and Petain interpreted this, plus the absence of open opposition as an encouragement. Reassured, probably too easily, about his personal popularity, he decided to remain in Rambouillet accompanied by his secretarial staff and Dr. Menetrel, who is both his personal physician and his confidential aide.

Plan to Hoodwink Allies

Underground organizations suspect that Petain's return to Paris is part of a plan discussed some time ago which involves, in case of a successful invasion, an attempt on Petain's part to get himself accepted as a partner by the Allies, to save his regime. In this effort, they believe he will be following a strategy agreed upon with the Germans. One of its first steps will probably be to represent his residence at Rambouillet as meaning that the Germans are holding him as a hostage.

The situation which threatens to arise is this: The Germans may hold on to Petain in Rambouillet to play the same role now allotted to Mussolini in northern Italy—in which they would be supported by such personages as Marcel Deat, Philippe Henriot and Joseph Darnand. Meanwhile in Vichy, the discredited Senators and Deputies might attempt to reconvoke Parliament, in order to save their positions—though if, in the meantime, the committee's authority to undertake the civilian administration of France were clearly defined, they would probably rally around it. It is conceivable also that there might be other attempts by groups with nothing to lose and everything to gain by bidding for Allied support to win control of the levers of government in order to forestall the French Committee in Algiers. The committee's intimate knowledge of the sins and weaknesses of those who aided the enemy is entirely too precise for the comfort of those with uneasy consciences.

The confusion which might arise from so many conflicting bids for power would threaten the efficient action of Allied military forces on French territory. Only the recognition by the Allies in advance of a clearly constituted French authority can insure them against this danger.

Today and Tomorrow

By Walter Lippmann

Mr. Churchill's Agenda

BEFORE HE TALKED about the world organization, Mr. Churchill talked about Germany. And before he talked about Germany, he talked about the Soviet Union and France and Poland. The order in which he took up these subjects is a promise that this time we are "scarred and armed with experience", and shall not make the same mistakes as in 1919.

LIPPMANN

For then the order of business was, first, to dissolve the grand alliance which had won the war, and then to treat the settlement with Germany as relatively unimportant, and then to place upon the newly formed League the burden of organizing and maintaining an unsettled peace. This time, as Mr. Churchill's speech indicates, our first business is to consolidate the victorious alliance, then to have it take measures to prevent Germany from renewing the war, and on this firm foundation to organize the new world order.

The difference between these two ways of settling the war is the difference between experience and inexperience.

THE PROBLEM OF peace in the western world will not forever be the problem of Germany. But since about 1900 it has been the problem of Germany, and unconditional surrender will not in itself solve the German problem. That will take at least another generation,—at least until this generation of Nazis and pan-German militarists has passed away, and there is a new generation of Germans who have been reared in a Europe where the renewal of German aggression is to them inconceivable.

The renewal of aggression will not be impracticable, and therefore, inconceivable, if they see about them only another League of Nations in which the principal powers are the non-European states of Britain, Russia, and America. These three are the indispensable guarantors. But they cannot make their guaranty truly effective unless the immediate neighbors of Germany are strong and willing supporters and enforcers of the settlement. For this reason a complete understanding with liberated France and with restored Poland is essential. If Germany's two nearest neighbors are weak, divided, and are disaffected from Britain or Russia or America, the ground will be prepared upon which the Nazi and pan-German underground can maneuver and plot to disrupt the settlement and to restore German power.

THE NEW WORLD organization is not a substitute for a settlement with Germany, arranged so that the nations of Europe will enforce it with the backing of the great non-European powers. The Anglo-American armies have to invade France in order to defeat Germany; the Soviet armies have to invade Poland. To make the settlement with Germany effective, the three great powers see to it that France and Poland do not have to be liberated again. For that they must be strong in their own right and sure of reinforcements if they are threatened.

This is the only solid foundation of European security in the coming generation during which, we must assume, Germany will acept the settlement only if there is no alternative. The new League must be erected upon this foundation. It cannot be, as many imagined in 1919, a substitute for a firm, coherent, enforcible settlement with Germany.

AMERICAN THINKING tends in these matters to swing between two extremes: either we want no world organization or we want one which does everything. Among many of us, idealistic universalism is a sentimentally inverted form of isolationism: the league is all or nothing.

But in fact the new league is bound to be, until it is well-proved and tested in long practice, an experiment which, if it works well, can supplement, reinsure, and reinforce, the settlement of the war and concrete agreements among nations specifically concerned with the terms of settlement.

IF THE SETTLEMENT with the enemy is not well-conceived, and firmly organized by the enforcing powers, no new league is likely to work any better than the old one. Mr. Churchill's address makes it evident that this is his view, and since in all great matters he is so careful not to play a lone hand, we may be certain that this is now the view of the grand alliance as a whole.

The Gallup Poll

By George Gallup

Director American Institute of Public Opinion

Princeton, N. J., May 26.—The Government's seizure of the Chicago plants of Montgomery-Ward late last month attracted more public attention than almost any other domestic event of recent months.

In fact, a survey just completed, covering every State in the country, reveals that an overwhelming 87 per cent of the Nation's voters have either heard or read about the case.

This does not of course mean that all of these people are familiar with the basic issues at stake in the dispute which culminated in a presidential order to take over the plants of the giant mail-order house. The survey finds that about two out of every three who have heard or read about the affair say they have not studied the case closely enough to be familiar with the arguments.

Therefore, the present survey placed special emphasis upon getting the opinion of those who are comparatively well informed about the Montgomery-Ward case. This group, totaling approximately one-third of all those who have heard or read about the case, consists of people who, in the course of questioning by field reporters for the institute, showed that they know what the chief arguments in the case are about. They were asked:

"From what you know about this case, which side are you more inclined to believe is in the right—Montgomery-Ward, or the Government?"

Those expressing an opinion vote as follows:

Believe Montgomery-Ward in the right	60%
Believe Government in the right	40

The survey finds, interestingly enough, that the opinions of the informed group do not differ from the opinions of the country as a whole, the latter being 60 per cent in favor of Ward's, 40 per cent in favor of the Government, among those with opinions.

The group most outspoken in favor of the Government is organized labor. Among labor union members familiar with the arguments in the case, the survey finds 60 per cent with opinions siding with the Government, 40 per cent with Montgomery-Ward.

In a survey conducted immediately after the Government took over the Ward plants on April 26, the institute found that, on the basis of first reactions, 61 per cent of those with opinions throughout the country were inclined to side with Montgomery-Ward, 39 per cent with the Government.

War Dead Will Be Honored In Greenbelt Rites Tomorrow

Greenbelt residents are scheduled to turn out en masse tomorrow afternoon at 1:30 p. m. to commemorate Memorial Day and to dedicate an honor roll for the Greenbelters in military service, under the sponsorship of the Greenbelt Town Council and American Legion Post 136. The exercises will be held at the business center and the honor roll will be unveiled by Mrs. James J. Sommers, mother of William Sommers who was killed a few weeks ago in the line of duty.

The plaque will contain the names of the six Gold Star Greenbelters, William Sommers, Army Capt. Fred Yeatts, Navy Chief William Eubanks, William Swartz, Robert Williams and Glen Soellner. It will be dedicated by Town Manager James T. Gobbel.

The Greenbelt Community Band will play. The audience will sing "God Bless America" and Maj. J. N. B. Nesbit, legion post chaplain, will offer prayer. Post Commander Edward Kaighn will speak and three Gold Star certificates will be presented to the families of Eubanks, Sommers and Yeatts. Certificates will not be presented to the other three families as they have moved from town.

Miss Lydalu Palmer will sing the "Star-Spangled Banner" and the program will be concluded with the benediction by Rev. Wilmer Pierce Johnston, pastor of the Greenbelt Community Church.

The names of several hundred Greenbelt men in uniform, who were residents or employes of the town on December 7, 1941, will be added to the honor roll in the near Future.

The legion committee, working with the Town Council, consists of Dr. James W. McCarl, Frank Riley and Leon Benefiel.

Legion to Dance Tonight

The Greenbelt post of the American Legion will hold their semi-annual dance this evening in the elementary school auditorium at 9:30. Music will be furnished by the Greenbelt Serenaders.

Dead to Be Honored

A delegation headed by Judge Thomas Freeman and Greenbelt American Legion post members will attend the honor roll plaque dedication exercises at the Peace Cross at Hyattsville tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock when the Prince Georges County military dead will be honored.

There will be 54 names on the plaque and Greenbelt will take dual honors with Hyattsville as the towns with the largest number of men who have paid the supreme sacrifice. Each town has four gold stars.

Greenbelt men whose names will appear on the tablet are William Sommers of the Army, Chief William Eubanks of the Navy, Capt. Fred Yeatts of the Army and Robert Williams of the Navy.

Off The Record

By Ed Reed

"Yes, he's really attached to that baby."

The Washington Merry-Go-Round

By Drew Pearson

GENERAL EISENHOWER has just issued an order which will mean all the difference in the world to harmony between United States and British troops during the invasion.

He has ordered that all American Red Cross entertainment centers and other recreational hotels shall be open to all Allied troops, and that prices shall be lowered to meet the pay of the lowest-paid soldier.

This may not seem so on the surface, but to those familiar with the unfortunate feeling between British and American troops in England, it is all important. It goes back to the fact that American troops are the highest paid in the world, and have been able to put British troops in the shade socially through superior buying power.

When British Tommies see their girls go off with strangers who can afford to buy them a better time, it doesn't help morale. In addition to this, the American Red Cross has taken over various big mansions in England and transformed them into comfortable, sometimes luxurious recreation centers for American troops.

This has been an excellent thing—except in one respect. British troops, seeing American soldiers living off the fat of the land, with mansions at their disposal, have resented it.

No 'Keep Out' Signs

SOME AMERICAN Red Cross workers have taken the initiative into their own hands and invited British troops into American centers. Their theory has been that, when soldiers of the Allied armies got to know each other, bickering and jealousy would disappear. The idea has worked when tried out, but it has not been tried out very much.

Finally, the whole problem came before General Eisenhower. He has now ruled that, when the British, American, Canadian, New Zealand and other Allied troops land in Western Europe, American centers shall be thrown open to all Allied troops, and that prices shall be reduced to meet the meager salary of the British Tommy. American soldiers, naturally, will get the benefit of this price reduction too.

General Eisenhower felt that it would not be good for Allied cooperation if British troops, when near an American recreation center, should be met with a "Keep Out" sign. Naturally, British hostels will be open to American troops also.

Note—American Red Cross centers in England are managed by well-trained Americans, but a great big part of their staff, aside from the top people, are volunteer British workers.

First Negro Congresswoman?

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS, in the past accustomed to electing a Democratic Congressman from Harlem, largest Negro community in the world, now admit privately that Harlem probably will elect a Republican this year.

Furthermore, the Republicans will probably send the first Negro Congresswoman in history to Washington. She is Mrs. Sarah Pelham Speaks, recently nominated on the GOP ticket to run from New York's new Twentieth District.

Opposing Mrs. Speaks will be flamboyant Adam Clayton Powell, Negro clergyman, newspaper publisher and left-wing member of the New York City Council.

Mrs. Speaks comes from one of Harlem's prominent families. Her husband is a doctor who formerly played with a jazz orchestra. She herself is one of the most successful criminal lawyers in Harlem.

Meanwhile, Herbert Bruce, Negro leader of Tammany Hall, has refused to support Mrs. Speaks' opponent, Adam Powell. This, together with the zeal of Negro women to elect one of their own sex to Congress, probably means certain Republican victory.

Merry-Go-Round

WITHOUT ANY breast-beating, Henry Kaiser did a whale of a job in operating the Brewster Aeronautical Corporation for the Navy, and didn't take one cent of pay. He put the company's plants on an efficient, up-to-date basis, and the fact that the Navy finally discontinued production had nothing to do with his management. Quite the contrary . . . The shipping boys are staging a terrific lobbying drive on Admiral "Jerry" Land to up the valuation on vessels, increase compensation when ships are lost, and boost their profits in other ways. Taxpayers should keep an eye on Jerry to see if he gives . . . Banker Jesse Jones has now branched out as an expert on the shipping business. He has just written quite a tome on postwar shipping from down in Texas, where they shoot straight and write hard. Si Casady, editor of the McAllen (Tex.) Monitor, has written Senator McKellar of Tennessee: "Would it be too much to ask that you autograph the inclosed clipping of verbal pyrotechnics, preferably with a pen dipped in Pearson's blood, and return it to us for our scrapbook?" The clipping was a report of McKellar's speech in the Senate denouncing this columnist.

Show Time in the Downtown Theaters

STAGE

National—Katharine Cornell in "Lovers and Friends" at 2:30 and 8:30 p. m.

Catholic University—"Sing Out, Sweet Land," at 8:30 p. m.

SCREEN

Earle—"The Story of Dr. Wassell," at 9:55 a. m., 12:50, 3:45, 6:45 and 9:40 p. m. and 12:40 a. m. Stage shows at 12:15, 3:10, 6:10 and 9:05 p. m. and 12:05 a. m.

Metropolitan—"Man From Frisco," at 11:10 a. m., 1:15, 3:20, 5:30, 7:35 and 9:45 p. m.

RKO-Keith's—"A Chip Off the Old Block," at 11:35 a. m., 1:40, 3:45, 5:50, 7:55 and 10 p. m.

Capitol—"Broadway Rhythm," at 10 a. m., 1, 3:55, 6:50 and 9:55 p. m. Stage shows at 12:15, 3:10, 6:05 and 9:05 p. m.

Palace—"Gaslight," at 11 a. m., 1:40, 4:15, 6:55 and 9:35 p. m.

Columbia—"Up in Mabel's Room," at 11:15 a. m., 1, 2:50, 4:35, 6:25, 8:10 and 9:55 p. m.

Little—"Private Life of Henry VIII" at 11:15 a.m., 1:25, 3:25, 5:30, 7:35 and 9:45 p.m.

Pix—"Shake Hands With Mother," at 1:30, 4:10, 6:50 and 9:30 p. m. and 12:10 a. m. "Hey, Rookie," at 2:35, 5:10, 7:50 and 10:35 p. m. and 1:15 a. m.

Trans-Lux—Newsreels and shorts at 10:15 and 11:30 a. m., 12:45, 2, 3:15, 4:30, 5:45, 7, 8:15, 9:30 and 10:45 p. m. and 12:05 a. m.

Ambassador—"The Story of Dr. Wassell," at 1:20, 3:55, 6:30 and 9:10 p. m.

AMUSEMENTS AMUSEMENTS

DANCE CRUISES on the Streamliner NIGHTLY 8:30

MOUNT VERNON
2 Trips Daily At 10 A.M. — 2 P.M.
Round trip, 70c plus 30c admission to Mount Vernon. Children under 12, 40c. Children admitted free to grounds.

Ride the Modern Stream liner SS. Mount Vernon.
FREE DANCING to music by Davy Crocker and his Orchestra.
Round trip 90c, inc. tax; children under 12, 45c; Sundays, holidays $1, inc. tax.

Marshall Hall Park
OPENS FOR THE SEASON TUESDAY, MAY 30TH

No Cameras or Radios permitted on Steamer (U. S. Gov't Regulation)

WILSON LINE
7TH STREET WHARVES NATIONAL 2440

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

Wallace's Political Chances

ANY OF HENRY Wallace's implacable enemies who still cherish the hope that he is being sent to China merely to get him out of the way politically had better give up the idea. His mission to Siberia and Chungking is far more important than anyone has said publicly.

CHILDS

For one thing, the Russians are going to show him their remarkable new industrial cities in Siberia. He was assured before he left Washington that he would be allowed to visit flourishing communities that no American has ever seen before.

In relation, of course, to the ultimate line-up for the final blow against Japan, these industrial centers may have great importance. When he flew back home across the top of the world, Wendell Willkie visited one such community, Yakutsk, capital of the Republic of Yakutsk. In his book, "One World," Willkie gave a glowing account of this community of workers that had been carved out of the Siberian wilderness.

Wallace will be able to gauge the strength of this military-industrial potential. He will report fully on it on his return. This chore is in addition to his good-will mission—which has other implications, too—to China.

THE DAY BEFORE he left on the mission that will take him thousands of air miles across country few Americans have ever seen, Wallace had an hour's talk with Robert E. Hannegan, chairman of the Democratic National Committee. Neither man has disclosed the nature of their conversation, but it's a pretty safe guess that the question of the vice presidential nomination was at least mentioned. The background of this talk is interesting.

Hannegan, a professional politician and a capable one, has been interested in finding a more acceptable candidate for second place on the fourth-term ticket; acceptable, that is, to party henchmen who must get out the vote, and to Southern conservatives. He thought that his job in the fall would be an easier one with a less controversial figure as a running mate for Roosevelt.

In the course of a discussion with the President Hannegan is said to have intimated that in his opinion Wallace was a political liability. F. D. R. took issue with that judgment. His reply went something like this:

"You will have to prove to me that Henry is a liability. And it will be difficult to convince me."

ALTERNATES SUGGESTED by Hannegan included Secretary of State Hull, who ducked a similar suggestion in 1940, and Senator Harry S. Truman of Hannegan's own State, Missouri. Many of Truman's friends have been hopeful that second place would go in the final showdown to the chairman of the War Investigating Committee. The Missouri Senator has in recent weeks increased his speech-making activities, appearing on platforms in various parts of the country.

Apart from his excellent showing in the polls, and the fact that organized labor, within the CIO at any rate, is pledged to him, Wallace has the loyalty of the President. F. D. R. has an almost superstitious reluctance to part with those who have been his close associates. It would be very difficult for him to reject Wallace at the moment when he must decide on his running mate.

Nevertheless, there's still a chance he will be thrown to the Southern wolves that now are baying for blood. The current threat of the little oligarchy which rules the South is apparently a real one.

Despite a popular vote for Roosevelt, the Democratic candidate, in the November election, electors chosen by the oligarchy might cast their vote for someone else. Nothing in the Constitution would prevent them from doing so. It would, of course, be a step calculated to cause the utmost confusion and uncertainty at a critical time, tending to throw as much discredit as possible on the democratic process which may be what the oligarchy wants.

Going off with his Russian grammar in his pocket, serious-minded Henry Wallace will return with a report which should be of vital interest to the country. His position as a candidate should be strengthened rather than weakened.

LEONARD LYONS

Broadway Glossary

New York, May 26.

FIGHT: When Sergt. Joe Louis arrived in England, the Army officials immediately took him in hand and prepared him for his first press interview there. Louis listened to the instructions, nodded, and then the reporters were brought in . . . "Suppose you should meet Max Schmeling on the battlefield?" one reporter asked. "What would you do?" Louis, instinctively, held out his two hands, palms up. "I'd kill him," he said, flexing his fingers—then he remembered the officials' advice, and added, "with a gun."

HERBERT HOOVER

PARTY: Recently Herbert Hoover was one of the dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Ogden Mills. He said that he'd advise the People, in November, to change horses in mid-stream. "In the last war," said Hoover, "the people of France changed horses and got Clemenceau. It was to their advantage. And England changed horses, and got David Lloyd George. It was to their advantage. In this war, England changed horses, and Churchill replaced Chamberlain. And it will be to the advantage of the American people to change horses in November and replace Mr. Roosevelt." . . . Ruth Bryan Rhode asked the ex-President: "But Mr. Hoover, you can't possibly compare Roosevelt with Chamberlain, can you?" . . . Mr. Hoover didn't answer because just then Frederick Lonsdale, the British playwright, left the table and went home.

BALLOON: The building in London which houses the Public Relations Office for the European Theater is protected by a barrage balloon. A visitor heard some of the PRO officers refer to their balloon as "Wendell Willkie," and asked why . . . "We named it 'Wendell Willkie,'" was the explanation, "because it often breaks loose and goes wandering around."

WAGER: Jules Glaenzer, of Cartier's, was the friend of two directors of a well known corporation. Last year one of these men bet the other that the war would be over in Europe by Christmas, 1943. It was a $2000 bet, at odds of 2 to 1 . . . On September 30, the man who had been so optimistic about the end of the war, died. A few days ago his executor called at the survivor's office and delivered a check. "We found a memo of the bet, in the deceased's files," he reported. "And his widow says that her husband wouldn't rest in his grave until this bet he had lost was paid in full."

SPEED: Major George Fielding Eliot dined at the home of Rep. Clare Boothe Luce. During the dinner the butler informed the hostess that a startling newsflash had just been announced concerning a military event which altered completely the complexion of the war. Mrs. Luce repeated the news to her guests . . . "I must leave immediately," said Major Eliot, and he rushed away . . . A few minutes later Mrs. Luce, wanting to hear more about the news-flash, turned on the radio. From the loudspeaker came the voice of Major Eliot, analyzing at length the significance of this new turn of events in the conduct of the war.

REVERSE: Dorothy Stickney, who has been playing Mother in "Life With Father" these past few years, was out of the show for a few days because of illness. The other day at the last minute the star was rushed to the theater and went on in place of her understudy who is sick.

AMUSEMENTS AMUSEMENTS

SEE! CUSTER'S LAST STAND AVENGED!

1 of 1,000 thrills in the screen's biggest epic!

BUFFALO BILL in Technicolor

A 20th CENTURY-FOX PICTURE

LOEW'S PALACE—THURSDAY

Grin And Bear It

By Lichty

"I think the doctor is just trying to get even! Keeping us waiting almost as long as HE has to wait for his money!"

Nelson B. Bell About the Showshops

'Story of Dr. Wassell' A Hit at the Earle; So Is Service Band

TWO MONTHS AFTER its single, world-premiere presentation in Constitution Hall—one of the genuinely distinguished occasions of the year, incidentally—Cecil B. De Mille's Technicolor production of "The Story of Dr. Wassell" yesterday opened its first regular Washington engagement on the screen at the Earle Theater. Quite appropriately, it attracted a standing-room crowd to its first showing for the general public and was saluted by rousing applause at its final fadeout.

LARAINE DAY

We find that on Monday morning, April 3, this column had the following to say, which stands as its present appraisal, without amendment:

Inspired by the President's broadcast of April 28, 1942, in which he related the story of the Arkansas doctor, serving as a lieutenant commander in the Navy Medical Corps, who rescued a group of severely wounded survivors of the United States cruisers Houston and Marblehead, the picture goes beyond the heroic exploit of evacuating the stretcher cases marooned in Java and doomed to capture and death by the Japanese unless immediately removed beyond the reach of enemy arms.

While principally based upon the story of this adventure, as subsequently told by Dr. Wassell and 15 of the wounded sailors involved, the script prepared by Allen LeMay and Charles Bennett explores the earlier life of its principal character in China, where, as a medical researcher, he had saved the lives of countless thousands.

Story of Wide Scope

By this comprehensive utilization of factual material, the scenarists have compounded a partial biography that embodies a free play of comedy and a sustained vein of romance to relieve the stark realities of its more grim and suspenseful periods.

DeMille has encompassed this far-flung recital on the screen with characteristic skill. The action opens with the safe landing of the survivors in Java and never is the fact that their ultimate safety comprises the major concern of the film subordinated to any of the less urgent activities in Dr. Wassell's eventful life.

These contributory phases of his earlier usefulness in the Orient are introduced as flashbacks, merely punctuating and rounding out a thrilling screen narrative which, otherwise, never could have fulfilled the implications of its title.

The surge of events mounts rapidly as the invaders press nearer and nearer to the hospital base, bomb and strafe from the air and force Allied evacuation. When an amended order directs that only those who can walk be taken off and stretcher cases left behind, Dr. Wassell elects to remain with the helpless men in his charge and find a way. That way, in the face of the military necessity of fighting men or nothing, is hard.

Duplicates Actuality

Finally securing aid from a train of British lorries, headed for an embarkation point 50 miles away, and then getting his men aboard a coastal steamer bound for Australia by a bit of subterfuge and honest deception, Dr. Wassell wins his Navy Cross on the screen just as he did in actual performance.

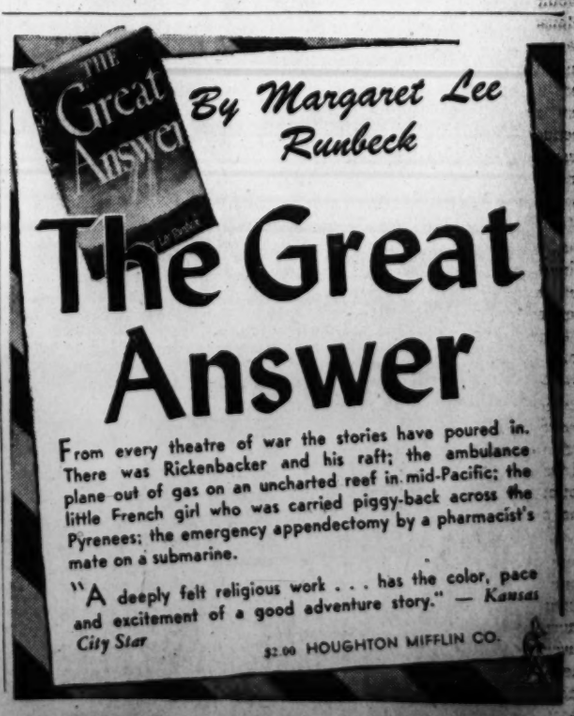
The variety and contrast of the stretcher cases, the effects of the ordeal on the different temperaments and the logical introduction of attractive nurses to form the basis of supplementary romances, poignant tugs at the heart and frequent bursts of rough-and-ready comedy give "The Story of Dr. Wassell" unusual breadth of appeal.

With his customary insistence on detailed completeness of scene and fidelity to character, DeMille has given his broad canvas both depth and balance, set off by the realistic hues of Technicolor at its best.

Cooper Well Cast

In the title role, although bearing no physical resemblance to the figure he impersonates, Gary Cooper finds himself in the part of another homely and unpretentious American completely within the range of his talents. His stature as an actor is enhanced by the complete dissimilarity of his Dr. Wassell and Sergeant York. Neither is there any suggestion of Hemingway's Robert Jordon, in "For Whom the Bell Tolls." His present is one of the star's most believable performances.

As his own romantic interest, Laraine Day, beautiful and competent young actress that she is, has less opportunity to engage and hold interest than Signe Hasso, as Bettina, the nurse or Carol Thurston, who exerts an especially potent appeal in the picturesque and plaintive charcter of Three Martini, the native nurse, whose devotion to "Hoppy" Hopkins eventually overcomes his loyalty to Arkansas mud. "Hoppy" is efficiently and valiantly played by Dennis O'Keefe.



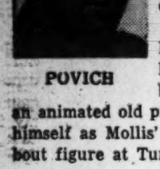
THE Great Answer
By Margaret Lee Runbeck
The Great Answer
From every theatre of war the stories have poured in. There was Rickenbacker and his raft; the ambulance plane out of gas on an uncharted reef in mid-Pacific; the little French girl who was carried piggy-back across the Pyrenees; the emergency appendectomy by a pharmacist's mate on a submarine.
"A deeply felt religious work . . . has the color, pace and excitement of a good adventure story." — Kansas City Star
$2.00 HOUGHTON MIFFLIN CO.

Nats Down Tribe, 5-3, on Case's Hit in 13th

This Morning

With Shirley Povich

Cleveland, May 26.—It's a success story, win or lose, for old Tommy Mollis when he climbs into the ring at Griffith Stadium Monday night to fight Rocky Graziano. The mere fact that Mollis is setting foot in that ring as party to a main bout is an amazing achievement for the Baltimore colored man.



POVICH

Mollis wasn't even serious about this business of prize fighting a few months ago until he suddenly discovered that he could lick about everybody they matched him with. Gabe Menendez, who makes the matches for Promoter Joe Turner, dropped him into a few preliminary bouts at Turner's Arena simply to fill out the card. Then Menendez discovered he had an attraction on his hands.

The best break Mollis got was when Walter Haight, The Post's interim fight writer, adopted him in a kindly sort of way. Haight was intrigued by the style of the ancient Mollis who boxed like an animated old print out of the history of pugilism and appointed himself as Mollis' press agent. He publicized Mollis into a main bout figure at Turner's Arena.

That wasn't hard to do. Not only was Mollis a crowd pleaser but he kept on winning his fights at Turner's Arena—eight in a row. The customers began to feel cheated when Mollis wasn't on the card. They went for him. There were weeks when Mollis was the only man on the program who could box in the sense of the skill it implies.

That's what Mollis is, a boxer, pretty to watch, and it's obvious he didn't pick up that skill overnight. His age is something of a mystery, but he has been fighting for most of 15 years. He quit the game to tend strictly to his job of stevedoring on the Baltimore docks until he found out most of the present crop of welterweights were soft touches for him.

Mollis is still fighting only in his spare time. He isn't giving up that job on the docks. His wife doesn't want him to fight, but he says she forgets to be mad about it when he brings home the dough from his bouts. He never figured on picking up more than 50 or 60 bucks every couple of weeks, but he fought his way into a couple of $600 purses.

For his bout with Graziano, part-time fighter Mollis will take only one day off from his job on the docks to taper off his training. Heaving that freight keeps him in shape. He'll pick up a couple of grand for his end, more money than he ever dreamed of getting in a year of preliminary bouts. Prosperity is here for the Mollis folks.

You're apt to feel sorry for Mollis when they call 'em into the center of the ring for the pre-fight instructions. That is, if you haven't seen Mollis before. He looks like a little old man and none too rugged. But he can take care of himself very well. Not only that, but he can hand it out. The pace doesn't tire him either. There's nothing wrong with his stamina.

The only fight he has lost since his come-back was his knockout by Red Doty. He was cooled off in one round in that one. It didn't happen in Washington, though. Mollis has never lost a fight in Washington. He asked for a rematch with Doty at Turner's Arena, got it, and then gave Doty a consummate boxing lesson to win a lop-sided decision from the man who knocked him out.

Mollis may not win Monday night. He's in with a very rugged fellow in Graziano, who belted out Bobby Brown and has 17 other knockouts to his credit. Graziano is one of the better welterweights. He'll go into the ring the betting favorite. Graziano will have to take the early rounds from Mollis to beat him, though. The longer it goes, the worse it may be for Graziano. Mollis has a way of fathoming the styles of his opponents after the early rounds and then setting a style for himself. That's when he calls on his ring lore to get him home. He may be no knocker-out but he can tap the hell out of you.

Anyway, Mollis has made the grade by his mere presence on top of the card at Griffith Stadium. That, alone, is an upset.

On the Line

With CONSIDINE

New York, May 26.—Lefty Gomez, bespectacled former pitching star who now serves as an athletic director for Norden bombsight plants, was umpiring an inter-plant soft-ball game recently. He called one that enraged the young pitcher. The pitched stormed in, red of face, and started an abusive blast.

"Just a minute," Lefty said. "What the hell are you getting so mad about? Haven't I been saying for 17 years that umpires are blind?"

CONSIDINE

Lefty says he tried wearing glasses at one period of his pitching life. But he gave them up. "I quit 'em one day against Philadelphia. I was pitching shutout ball for six innings. Then I wiped off my glasses and recognized Foxx Never wore 'em again."

Twilight Tear, the tomboy, goes after her seventh straight victory tomorrow afternoon in the Coaching Club American Oaks, at Belmont. She'll be asked to ru na mile and a half, with Conn McCreary and enough lead bolts to make 121 pounds on her back. That's farther than she's ever traveled, but she'll probably be the shortest priced favorite of the racing season. May be such an odds-on choice that the track will lose money, through a minus pool, if enough fillies face her to insure betting.

McCreary, winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness, now says that words were put in his mouth when he was quoted as saying Twilight Tear could run away and hide from Pensive. Conn told that to Eddie Arcaro immediately after Pensive won the Preakness. Anyway, nothing seems able to top Twilight Tear in this area. Whirlette, Whirlaway's full sister who gave great promise, has been packed off to stud. Durazna, Brownell Coombs' fast filly, is in Chicago. A defeat of Twilight Tear in the Coaching Club would be the season's biggest upset. She's that much tougher than any other equine lady of her age.

Postwar New York is certain to see the following two major changes in baseball and racing, according to a man who usually knows:

1. Sale of the New York Yankees to a syndicate headed by Lieut. Col. Larry McPhail.

2. Erection of a super racetrack near the site of the World Fair grounds, to be backed by Whitney and Vanderbilt money and to be called Greentree Park. Bill Corum will be offered the post of general manager.

Joe Louis' wife, Marva, will open at the Cafe Zanzibar on Broadway next week. She's a singer, something along the lines of Lena Horne. The joint's publicity department will try to get sports writers, instead of music critics, to cover the opening, which may not be an insurmountable job.

"We want you to review her just as you reviewed Joe Louis the night he stepped into the ring and won the championship from Max Baer," the publicity man writes.

I guess that eliminates us. We were one of those luckless souls who didn't see Louis win his title from Baer. We only saw him win it from Jim Braddock.

Bucky Walters, who has attracted hundreds of thousands of fans to ball parks in his time, says "I'd pay my way into the park every day to see Pepper Martin play." . . . Valerie Scott, one of the British Wightman Cup team's tennis players who remained in this country when her country went to war, has volunteered to be sent to any war zone by the new USO camp show sports unit. . . . Big leaguers say Rip Sewell's "Ephus" pitch, sometimes called the "blooper" is strictly for the grandstand. Rip is too smart to use it when he's in trouble. . . . Ernie Lombardi says he's now going to master bunting, to take advantage of infielders who play him back on the grass. Ernie has been having trouble beating out triples to first base. He'll have to drug rival infielders to beat out a bunt.

Work of the Nats

BATTING

Player.	GG.	AB.	R.	H.	2b.	3b.	Hr.	Rbi.	Pct.
Carrasquel	6	7	0	2	0	0	0	1	1.000
Lefebvre	5	3	0	3	0	0	0	0	1.000
Hutchinson	4	11	1	5	1	0	0	0	.455
Candini	8	12	3	5	2	0	0	1	.417
Leonard	5	12	1	5	0	0	0	2	.417
Ferrell	18	64	4	22	1	0	0	7	.359
Wolff	7	18	4	6	0	0	0	0	.333
Newsom	31	121	18	38	5	0	0	17	.314
Torres	32	131	10	40	8	1	0	16	.305
Kuhel	27	100	19	28	6	2	1	13	.280
Guerra	18	55	9	15	1	0	1	7	.273
Sullivan	33	112	19	30	2	0	0	10	.268
Spence	32	125	18	32	5	0	0	17	.256
Wynn	34	106	8	27	1	0	0	10	.255
Case	17	77	7	19	1	0	0	6	.247
Total	35	96	14	24	6	1	3	15	.250
Layne	9	27	2	6	0	0	0	4	.222
Wynn	14	30	2	5	1	0	0	0	.167
Nizzeling	6	18	1	3	0	0	0	1	.167
Haefner	6	12	0	0	0	0	0	0	.000
Ulrich	2	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	.000
Vahlkamp	1	1	0	0	0	0	0	0	.000
Gomez	2	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	.000

PITCHING

	G.	IP.	H.	Bb.	So.	Gs.	CG.	W.	L.
Leonard	5	34	33	2	4	5	3	4	0
Nizzeling	6	39	44	22	19	6	4	3	1
Wolff	7	43⅔	48	13	20	6	3	3	2
Haefner	6	49	39	13	14	6	5	4	2
Wynn	12	81⅓	82	21	14	7	4	5	4
Carrasquel	6	16	19	6	5	1	0	1	2
Ulrich	2	4⅓	7	2	1	0	0	0	0
Lefebvre	1	⅓	1	0	0	0	0	0	0
Candini	8	29	35	23	8	0	0	0	3

Major Leagues

American League

	W.	L.	Pct.	G.B.
*New York	17	10	.630	...
WASHINGTON	18	14	.563	1½
*St. Louis	19	15	.559	1½
Philadelphia	17	15	.531	2½
*Boston	14	17	.452	5
Detroit	15	19	.441	5½
*Chicago	13	17	.433	5½
Cleveland	14	20	.412	6½

*Does not include night games.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

WASHINGTON, 5; Cleveland, 3 (13 innings).
Philadelphia, 3; Detroit, 2.
New York at Chicago (night).
Boston at St. Louis (night).

GAMES TODAY

WASHINGTON at Cleveland.
New York at Chicago.
Boston at St. Louis.
Philadelphia at Detroit.

National League

	W.	L.	Pct.	G.B.
St. Louis	22	9	.710	...
Pittsburgh	17	11	.607	3½
*Cincinnati	17	12	.586	4
Philadelphia	13	15	.464	7½
*New York	13	17	.433	8½
Boston	15	20	.429	9
Brooklyn	13	18	.419	9
Chicago	10	18	.357	10½

*Does not include night games.

YESTERDAY'S RESULTS

St. Louis, 5; Brooklyn, 3.
Pittsburgh, 7; Boston, 5.
Chicago, 9; Philadelphia, 1.
Cincinnati at New York (night).

GAMES TODAY

Cincinnati at New York.
St. Louis at Ne wYork.
Chicago at Boston.
Pittsburgh at Philadelphia (night)

Chicubs Lace Phils, 9-1, for Sixth Straight

Philadelphia, May 26 (AP).—The Chicago Cubs removed the jinx formerly held over them by Lefty Al Gerheauser in routing the Phillies, 9 to 1, for their sixth successive victory today.

The Bruins landed on Gerheauser for seven hits and six runs in the first three innings, while Paul Derringer sprinkled nine hits sparsely over the route to get credit for the victory. The Cubs recorded 14 safe wallops in all.

The Phillies escaped a shutout when Jimmy Wasdell and Charlie Letchas doubled in the sixth inning.

Chicago.	AB	H	O	A	Philad'ia.	AB	H	O	A
Sh'ster,ss.	5	2	1	3	Mullen,2b..	4	1	4	6
C'retta,1b	5	3	15	0	Adams,cf..	4	2	5	0
Sauer,lf...	5	0	0	0	Klein,rf...	4	0	5	0
Nich'son,rf	4	0	5	0	Wasdell,lf..	4	2	1	0
Pafko,cf...	5	1	4	0	Lupien,1b..	3	0	10	0
Hughes,3b	5	3	0	1	Letchas,3b.	4	1	1	2
J'hnson,2b	4	3	0	6	Finley,c....	4	1	1	0
Holm,c....	3	0	2	0	Hamrick,ss	4	1	0	5
D'ringer,p.	4	2	0	1	G'eauser,p	1	1	0	0
					C'vington,p	1	0	0	0
Totals..	40	14	27	11	*Stewart..	1	0	0	0
					Donohue,p.	0	0	0	1
					†Seminick.	1	0	0	0
					Totals..	36	9	27	14

*Batted for Covington in seventh.
†Batted for Donohue in ninth.

Chicago	0	4	2	0	0	0	1	2	0—9
Philadelphia	0	0	0	0	0	1	0	0	0—1

Runs—Schuster, Cavarretta, Pafko (2), Hughes (2), Johnson, Holm, Derringer, Wasdell. Errors—Hamrick, Letchas. Runs batted in—Johnson (2), Derringer (3), Schuster, Holm, Pafko, Cavarretta (2), Letchas. Two-base hits—Johnson, Cavarretta (2), Schuster, Adams, Wasdell, Letchas. Double plays—Johnson to Shuster to Cavarretta, Hamrick to Mullen to Lupien (2). Left on bases—Philadelphia, 9; Chicago, 6. Base on balls—Derringer, 2; Gerheauser, 1; Covington, 1. Hits—Gerheauser, 7 in 2⅓; Covington, 3 in 4⅔; Donohue, 4 in 2. Losing pitcher—Gerheauser. Time—1:49. Umpires—Stewart, Maserkurth and Dunn.

Rich Oaks Field Today Is Topped By Twilight Tear

New York, May 26 (AP).—Only five rivals were named today for Warren Wright's Twilight Tear in tomorrow's $10,000 Coaching Club American Oaks of a mile and three furlongs at Belmont Park.

The Bull Lea 3-year-old filly, winner of seven straight races, is the 1 to 2 favorite in the early betting and will be ridden by Conn McCreary. She will carry 121 pounds.

Others named to start are Mrs. W. S. Farish's Plucky Maud; William Woodward's Vienna; Mrs. Dodge Sloane's Dare Me; Miss Biscuit from the barn of Mrs. B. K. Douglas and the Phantom Farms' Oh Ma Ma. The latter gets a 5-pound m iden allowance.

Chicubs, Sailors Clash August 2

Bainbridge, Md., May 26 (AP).—The Chicago Cubs are scheduled to play an exhibition game here with the Bainbridge Naval Training Center baseball team, August 2, officials of the Center reported today.

The team will play its first doubleheader Tuesday when it takes on Franklin and Marshall College nine at Bainbridge and then plays the Curtis Bay Coast Guard Training Station ball club in the third game of the Eastern Service League.

The Commodores will have a full week of baseball next week when they play seven games in six days. After the twin bill Tuesday they entertain the Curtis Bay Cutters on both Wednesday and Thursday and Fort Meade on Friday. Over the weekend they go to Virginia to play the Quantico Marines on Saturday and Camp Lee on Sunday.

Dodgers Send Hart To New Orleans Club

New York, May 26 (AP).—The Brooklyn Dodgers announced today they had optioned Bill Hart, a short stop, to the New Orleans Club of the Southern Association, and had purchased Jack Bolling, a first baseman, from the Montreal Club of the International League. Bolling, a lefthanded batter, had a trial with the Philadelphia Phillies two years ago.

Flock Errors Give Cards 3-2 Victory

Brooklyn, May 26 (AP).—In the only game played of a scheduled three-game series, the St. Louis Cardinals, taking advantage of three Brooklyn Errors, defeated the Dodgers, 5-3, today.

Max Lanier, seeking his seventh win of the year, held Brooklyn scoreless until the sixth. Then with two on and two out, Gilbert English smashed a home run into the left field stands to account for all Brooklyn's runs.

The Cardinals had assumed an early lead, scoring single runs in the first and third. Hal Gregg, gunning for his sixth victory of the campaign, hit Johnny Hopp and Stan Musial in succession with pitched balls in the opening inning, and Walker Cooper scored Hopp with a double. A pair of two-base hits by Musial and Cooper accounted for the other tally.

The Cards tied the score in the seventh, when Howard Schultz erred on Debs Garms grounder, pinch hitting for Lanier, allowing Marty Marion, who har doubled, to score.

The Dodgers defense crumbled in the next frame and the Cards scored twice on one hit. Errors by English and Gregg paved the way for both winning runs.

Al Jurisch hurled the last three rounds for the Cardinals and held the Dodgers scoreless to gain credit for the victory.

St. Louis.	AB	H	O	A	Brooklyn.	AB	H	O	A
Verban,2b.	3	0	4	2	B'garay,3b	4	2	4	3
Hopp,cf...	4	1	2	0	Galan,lf,cf	3	2	0	0
Musial,rf..	3	2	2	0	Olmo,cf....	3	0	3	0
W.C'per,c.	4	2	6	1	P.Waner,rf	1	0	0	0
L'whiler,lf.	2	1	4	0	W'ker,rf,lf.	4	2	1	1
K'owski,3b	3	0	0	1	Schultz,1b.	3	0	10	3
S'nders,1b	3	1	6	1	English,ss.	4	1	2	3
Marion,ss.	3	1	3	4	Bragan,c..	3	0	2	2
Lanier,p..	2	0	0	0	†L.Waner.	1	0	0	0
*Garms...	1	0	0	0	Basinski,2b	4	0	3	3
Jurisich,p.	1	0	0	0	Gregg,p...	2	0	0	0
					Webber,p..	0	0	2	0
Totals..	32	8	27	9	‡Owen....	1	0	0	0
					Totals..	33	7	27	17

*Batted for Lanier in seventh.
†Batted for Bragan in ninth.
‡Batted for Webber in ninth.

St. Louis	1	0	1	0	0	0	1	2	0—5
Brooklyn	0	0	0	0	0	2	0	0	1—3

Runs—Hopp, Musial (2), W. Cooper, Marion, Galan, Walker, English. Errors—Lanier, Schultz, English, Gregg. Runs batted in—W. Cooper (2), English (3), Sanders. Two-baseh its—W. Cooper (2), Bordagaray, Musial, Walker, Marion. Home run—Enblish. Stolen base—Sanders. Sacrifice—Litwhiler. Double plays—Kurowski to Verban to Sanders, Walker to Bragan to English to Schultz to Bordagaray, English to Basinski to Schultz, Bordagaray to Basinski to Schultz. Left on bases—St. Louis, 7; Brooklyn, 6. Base on balls—Lanier, 2; Jurisich, 1; Gregg, 3; Webber, 1. Strikeouts—Lanier, 3; Jurisich, 2; Gregg, 2. Hits—Lanier, 6 in 6; Jurisich, 1 in 3; Gregg, 8 in 7⅔; Webber, 0 in 1⅓. Hit by pitcher—Gregg (Hopp, Musial). Winning pitcher—Jurisich. Losing pitcher—Gregg. Umpires—Reardon, Goetz and Jorda. Time—2:38.

Disorderly Charge Against Phillies' Letchas Dismissed

Philadelphia, May 26 (AP).—A charge of being drunk and disorderly, filed against Third Baseman Charley Letchas of the Philadelphia National League Baseball Club after a minor automobile accident last night, was dropped at a hearing today.

Magistrate Edward Henry continued the cases of Outfielder Jimmy Wasdell, arrested on the same charge, and Outfielder Ron Northey, charged with assault and battery by automobile and disorderly conduct.

Patrolman Harry Fryman said they became abusive when he questioned them after a car operated by Northey and another automobile collided. The driver of the other car, Isadore Light, 51, was charged with assault by auto.

The charge against Letchas was dropped after Light testified that he remained in the back seat of Northey's car and did little talking. The other cases were continued because Northey, who took a draft physical examination today, was unable to be present.

Ken Raffensberger Of Phils in Navy

Philadelphia, May 26 (AP).—Ken Raffensberger, Phil pitcher, passed his draft physical examination today and was accepted for Navy service.

A team mate, Catcher Benny Culp, passed and was accepted by the Navy yesterday.

Outfielder Ron Northey also was examined at an induction center this morning. He was ordered to return for further examination tomorrow. Northey has been in 1-AL (limited service) for several months because of high blood pressure and ear trouble.

Detroit's Al Unser Accepted by Army

Detroit, May 26 (AP).—Albert Unser, utility infielder of the Detroit Tigers, was accepted today for general military service. He said he would remain in baseball until ordered to report. Unser is 27 years old and had transferred his preinduction physical examination from Decatur, Ill.

Charley Metro, reserve outfielder, also took his examination today but was ordered back tomorrow for a recheck. He is 25 and transferred from Mayfield, Ky.

Top Form in This Season's Tennis

Associated Press Photos

These five tennis gals are expected to battle it out this year for most of the net honors. Going into the many tournaments, Pauline Betz is rated the No. 1 player, but there are many who think Louise Brough, ranked second, will come into her own this year and upset the champ. Doris Hart moved up from sixth to third place last year and has shown considerable improvement this season. Margaret Osborne is rated fourth. Shirley Fry is No. 1 in the girls' division and will give the older ones plenty of competition before she is through. Miss Brough and Miss Osborne are the national doubles champs.

Athletics Drop Tigers Again; This Time, 3-2

Detroit, May 26 (AP).—The Philadelphia Athletics continued to cool off the once red-hot Detroit Tigers, winning, 3 to 2, today behind the pitching of Bobo Newsom and jittery Joe Berry for their third straight victory. It was Detroit's twelfth home defeat in 13 games and sixth in succession.

Newsom blanked his former mates for eight innings but was removed after passing the first two batters in the ninth. The Tigers then broke through for two runs after 17 scoreless innings before Berry stamped out the rally. Newsom lost to Detroit on two unearned runs last week.

The A's gathered nine hits off Paul Trout, who suffered his fourth defeat, but all three runs were unearned. Trout had beaten Philadelphia seven straight games.

The A's scored two runs in the first and one in the third. With two out, Ford Garrison was safe in the first on Joe Hoover's error and stole second. Frank Hayes doubled Garrison home and scored on Dick Siebert's single.

George Kell singled and took second on Roger Cramer's error in the third and scored on Hayes' single.

Rudy York and Pinky Higgins drew passes in the ninth, and Jimmy Outlaw greeted Berry with a single, scoring York. The bases were filled on a fielder's choice, but Berry fanned Bob Swift and got Pinch Hitter Paul Richards on a run-scoring fly. Pinch Hitter Don Ross then lined out.

Philad'lia.	AB	H	O	A	Detroit.	AB	H	O	A
White,rf...	4	0	2	0	Hoover,ss..	4	2	0	2
Kell,2b....	4	2	1	3	†Ross....	1	0	0	0
G'rrison,lf	4	0	3	0	Cramer,cf.	4	1	1	0
Hayes,c...	4	2	4	0	Mayo,2b...	4	1	3	4
Siebert,1b.	4	2	6	0	York,1b...	3	0	8	1
Estalella,cf	3	1	6	0	Higgins,3b.	3	0	4	0
Hallis,ss..	3	0	3	1	Outlaw,lf..	4	3	3	0
Busch,3b..	4	2	2	2	Host'ler,rf.	4	1	2	0
Newsom,p.	4	0	0	0	Swift,c....	4	0	5	2
Berry,p...	0	0	0	0	Trout,p....	3	0	1	2
					*Richards.	1	0	0	0
Totals..	34	9	27	6	Totals..	35	8	27	12

*Batted for Trout in ninth.
†Batted for Hoover in ninth.

Philadelphia	2	0	1	0	0	0	0	0	0—3
Detroit	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	0	2—2

Runs—Kell, Garrison, Hayes, York, Higgins. Errors—Kell, Hoover, Cramer. Runs batted in—Hayes (2), Siebert, Outlaw, Richards. Two-base hits—Busch, Hayes. Three-base hit—Busch. Stolen base—Garrison. Sacrifice—Hall. Double plays—Hall to Busch to Siebert, Hoover to Mayo to York. Left on bases—Philadelphia, 7; Detroit, 8. Base on balls—Newsom, 2; Trout, 1. Strikeouts—Newsom, 3; Trout, 4. Hits—Newsom, 7 in 8 (none out in 9th); Berry, 1 in 1. Hit by pitcher—Trout (Estalella). Winning pitcher—Newsom. Umpires—Stewart, McGowan and Pipgras. Time—1:35.

Wilson Trackmen Win Annual Meet

Woodrow Wilson High, 1943 interhigh track champion, amassed a total of 57 points yesterday afternoon to easily retain its title in the forty-seventh annual running of the scholastic track and field meet at the Central Stadium. McKinley Tech, something of a dark horse, parlayed its nine finalists into second place in the final standings with 38 points, while third position was taken by Eastern with 36 points.

The titular Green Tigers were paced to another championship by sprinter Phil Ewing and Johnny Colvin, the jumping star, who equally split four firsts between them. Ewing captured the century in 10.5 seconds and came back later to run a winning 220 in 23.3. Colvin's victories came in the pole vault, in which he cleared 11 feet, and the high jump which he won with a leap of 6 feet. Colvin also took second place in the broad jump for a total individual score of 14 points, which made the Wilson star the high-point man of the meet.

SUMMARIES

100-YARD DASH—Won by Ewing (Wilson); second, Lann (Tech); third, Trivette (Eastern); fourth, Marvin (Wilson); fifth, Sayer (Eastern). Time, 0:10.8 seconds.

880-YARD RUN—Won by Pearce (Coolidge); second, Miller (Eastern); third, Solomon (Tech); fourth, Craig (Tech); fifth, Tash (Roosevelt). Time, 2:07.

440-YARD DASH—Won by Schreve (Tech); second, Spanrenburg (Wilson); third, Bauman (Coolidge); fourth, Beck (Wilson); fifth, Boteler (Western). Time, 0:52.1 seconds.

120-YARD HIGH HURDLES—Won by Salvanelli (Roosevelt); second, Leeth (Wetsern); third, Sanders (Wilson); fourth, Lann (Tech); fifth, Browning (Coolidge). Time, 0:16 seconds.

ONE-MILE RUN—Won by Gillette (Western); second, Streeter (Coolidge); third, Volkmer (Coolidge); fourth, Wiser (Tech); fifth, Rose (Eastern). Time, 4:43.8.

220-YARD DASH—Won by Ewing (Wilson); second, Trivette (Eastern); third, Schreve (Tech); fourth, Garner (Tech); fifth, Sayer (Eastern). Time, 0:23.3 seconds.

220-YARD LOW HURDLES—Won by Salvanelli (Roosevelt); second, Leeth (Western); third, Sanders (Wilson); fourth, Keith (Wilson); fifth, Solomon (Tech). Time, 0:26 seconds.

ONE-MILE RELAY—Won by Tech (Garner, Laughton, Solomon, Schreve); second, Wilson; third, Central; fourth, Coolidge; fifth, Eastern. Time, 3:38.

POLE VAULT—Won by Colvin (Wilson); second, Hunton (Tech); third, Wilson (Eastern); fourth, Wallace (Eastern); fifth, Crouch (Wilson). Height, 11 feet.

DISCUS—Won by Wickhardt (Eastern); second, Abrams (Roosevelt); third, Blatter (Wilson); fourth, Kolodne (Roosevelt); fifth, Grimes (Eastern). Distance, 112 feet 5 inches.

HIGH JUMP—Won by Colvin (Wilson); second, Case (Wilson); third, Wilson (Eastern) and Salvanelli (Roosevelt) tied; fifth, Johnson (Eastern). Height, 6 feet.

SHOTPUT—Won by Wickhardt (Eastern); second, Blatter (Wilson); third, Abrams (Roosevelt); fourth, Bishop (Western); fifth, First (Western). Distance, 43 feet 10 inches.

BROAD JUMP—Won by Lann (Tech); second, Colvin (Wilson); third, Jones (Western); fourth, Charnock (Eastern) and Parz (Western) tied. Distance, 22 feet 3 inches.

Armstrong Replaces Perry In Davis Bout

New York, May 26 (AP).—Henry Armstrong, who once held three world boxing titles at the same time, will oppose Al (Rummy) Davis of Brooklyn for 10 rounds or less in Madison Square Garden June 9, Armstrong replaces Aaron Perry, young Washington (D. C.) welterweight whom he knocked out Monday night in the Capital.

Earlier in the day, the Twentieth Century Sporting Club announced that Willie Pep, New York featherweight king, and NBA Lightweight Champion John Zurita has agreed to a 15-round nontitle bout in the Garden June 16.

Zurita, Pep Battle In Nontitle Bout

New York, May 26 (AP).—Juan Zurita, Mexican holder of the NBA lightweight title, and Willie Pep, recognized as featherweight king in New York and Pennsylvania, will meet in a 15-round bout at Madison Square Garden on June 16.

The fighters agreed to come in at 132 pounds. Although the weight limitations are below the lightweight maximum, Zurita's title will not be at stake because it is not recognized in New York.

Billy Brown Tests Hop, Skip, Jump Mark

Bainbridge, Md., May 26 (AP).—Billy Brown of Louisiana, national hop, skip and jump champion now instructor at the Bainbridge Naval Training Center recently, tested his previous record.

the judges declared that Brown

At the conclusion of his work, had maneuvered 50 feet and 7½ inches—just 4 inches short of his national record.

Kramer, Lanier, Javery Pace Major Hurlers in Strikeouts

New York, May 26 (AP).—The strikeout kings went off to war when Bobby Feller of Cleveland and Johnny Vander Meer of Cincinnati joined the Navy but their stand-ins are giving a fair imitation of the real thing.

Jack Kramer of the St. Louis Browns, leads the majors today with 43 victims as the clubs neared the quarter pole in the present campaign. Chunky Max Lanier of the Cardinals and Al Javery of Boston top the National League with 37, not including the number Lanier whiffed today in the fray with the Brooklyn Dodgers.

Last year Vander Meer's 174 was good enough to lead the pack and Allie Reynolds of Cleveland paced the American loop with 151. Vandy is gone and Reynolds has been accepted by the Navy but still is hurling and has whiffed 26 batters so far.

Despite the epidemic of low-hit games and the sprinkling of inexperienced players in the big time, only two hurlers have fanned 10 or more men in a single game in contrast to Feller's record 18 against the Detroit Tigers October 2, 1938. Bobo Newsom of the Philadelphia A's, whiffed 12 in a 11-inning losing effort against Cleveland Sunday and Lanier third-striked 10 Giants Saturday night.

Proving that success doesn't always follow the fellow with the fast ball, Javery and Bill Voiselle of the New York Giants, who has recorded 35 strikeouts, are the tough luck players of the National League.

Javery won his first game Thursday after six beatings and Voiselle has dropped six in a row after copping his first three.

Charles (Old Hoss) Radbourne struck out 411 for the Providence entry in the National League in 1884 for the record. Rube Waddell fanned 343 for the A's in 1904 and Christy Mathewson victimized 267 for the Giants in 1903.

Early Wynn Goes Route For Victory

By Shirley Povich
Post Staff Writer

Cleveland, May 26.—Early Wynn, who went to the mound with four straight defeats against his record and doubtless was wondering where his next victory was coming from, found a friend late this afternoon in George Case. It was the thirteenth inning, to be exact. Case produced a single that produced two runs and lifted Wynn to a 5-3 victory over the Indians.

The Nats' chunky right-hander deserved some sort of a triumph. He pitched shut-out ball in the last six innings of the 3-hour, 10-minute contest to win his duel with Vernon Kennedy and Allie Reynolds of the Cleveland staff. Of the 10 hits he yielded, 9 were singles.

And so the Nats are in second place pending the result of the Browns' game tonight.

Case Sends Pair Home

Two were out when defeat caught up with the Indians in the thirteenth. Pick Ferrell got his third single of the game into left field to commence the uprising with one out, and then Johnny Sullivan, a strikeout victim of Reynolds in his two previous times at bat, provided a big blow on the hit-and-run play. It was a single through short that moved Guerra, Ferrell's runner, to third, and Sullivan took second on the throw-in.

Wynn was no help to himself in this crisis, popping up for the second out, but Case did the Nats some good. He lashed a fierce single into center and both Guerra and Sullivan scooted home.

The Nats sort of got even with Vernon Kennedy who licked them with four hits in Washington last week. They belted him out in eight innings. Kennedy was threatened to hand the Nats an even more ignominious defeat than his four-hitter. Until the seventh, he yielded only one hit—Spence's double in the second. In the eighth, the Nats conked him for five hits and three runs that wiped out the Indians' 2-0 lead.

The Indians got that 2-0 lead back in the fourth inning on three hits, O'Dea singled to left, Rosar singled to left and Keltner got one run home with a double to center. The second was unearned. It scored with two out when Layne muffed Kennedy's grounder.

Kuhel Sparks Rally in 7th

Joe Kuhel set the Nats' three-run seventh in motion with a double to left. With one out, Ferrell singled to left to score him and Johnny Sullivan also contributed a single to left. Wynn's single to right merely filled the bases, and Case hit into a force-play at the plate, but Layne did very well. He rapped a long single against the right field wall for two more runs.

Wynn let his one-run lead get away in the home half of the inning. Pinch-hitter Pat Seerey led off with a single to left and scored on a sacrifice and Rocco's single to left.

But the day's run-making business ended for the Indians at that point, and eventually came the thirteenth inning as thirteenth innings will . . . Both clubs had men on bases in all of the extra innings, but flunked out until the finish . . . Wynn got himself out of trouble after O'Dea opened the tenth with a single . . . He grabbed Rosar's bunt, wheeled and started a nifty double play . . . Before he singled in the ninth today Case had gone to bat 15 times without a hit . . . He stole second immediately despite the fact Rosar had called for a pitch-out . . . The Nats might have scored the winning run in the tenth, except that Jake Powell was over-ambitious . . . He tried to make it to the plate from second when Grant fumbled Torres' grounder, and was out by, conservatively, 652 feet . . . The Nats have swapped a four-game losing streak in Cleveland for a three-game win streak . . . They've won six out of seven from the Indians this season . . . Tomorrow it gives Roger Wolff pitching for the Nats against Ed Kleine, rookie Cleveland southpaw.

Longshot Was Due

New York (AP).—Pensive is the first longshot to win the Kentucky Derby since 1940 when Gallahadion scored at 35 to 1. The three Derbies previous to the recent Run for the Roses were taken by the favorites—Whirlaway, Shut Out and Count Fleet.

The Box Score

WASHINGTON.	AB	R	H	O	A	E
Case, rf	7	0	2	3

Tumble Boy Wins by Photo at Charles Town

W. Morrow's Entry Pays Bettors $5.60

By Walter Haight
Post Staff Writer

Charles Town, W. Va., May 26.—Racing for the first time in the colors of William Morrow, Tumble Boy scored his initial success of the year today, winning the William Hill Purse in a thrilling nose photo finish with W. A. Edgar's Victory Blue. As if there wasn't enough excitement on the front end of the batle, E. Rinaldi's Pigeon and T. Presgrave's Royal Fleet finished in a dead heat for third money in the field of seven going six and a half furlongs.

The struggle for first money was between Jockey Buddy Root aboard Victory Blue, and Jockey Sammy Palumbo on Tumble Boy. The two veteran riders got everything out of their mounts but Tumble Boy had a little too much for the favored Victory Blue. The winner, a strongly played second choice, paid $5.60 and was clocked in 1.20 3-5 over a fast track and before an estimated crowd of 2800.

Root took Victory Blue to the top from the outside post position but Pigeon forced the pace on the inside while Palumbo was rating Tumble Boy in fourth position. In the stretch, Victory Blue disposed of Pigeon and then the battle to the wire began between Victory Blue and Tumble Boy.

This was Palumbo's second winner of the day. The Italian-American boy having brought home the Flamingo Farm's Bill K in the fourth race.

The daily double paid $65.20. R. H. Wesselman's Blue Melody won the first race at $5.40 and Arthur S. Moore's Mileave took the second at $9.

BETWEEN RACES: Sammy Palumbo is riding himself into top form . . . His performance on the Flamingo Farm's Bill K, for Trainer Stanley Greene, jr., yesterday, was a fine job of racing. . . . When Blue Melody won the first race today she was the 41st favorite to score in 81 races. . . . William Mein has taken over Mrs. H. W. Wageley's Freeque to train. . . . O. Decrescent has succeeded J. Paoli as the trainer of A. C. Paul's horses. . . . Jockey Buddy Root still hasn't made up his mind about staying here. . . . Seventeen horses are on the vet's list and five on the starter's list at this track. . . . G. O. Russell, now in the Army, was here to see his Our Orphan run in the fifth race. . . . The 4-year-old appeared to have the race locked up until Updo, a $66.60 shot, came along in the stretch. . . . Trainer A. T. Smith has shipped Nyleave, Lupoba and Clifton's Star to Delaware Park. . . . Major Kenneth Gilpin, Virginia breeder and former official at this track, was a visitor today.

Deep Run Horse Show Scheduled TodayatRichmond

Hunters and jumpers from the District area have a choice of objectives this weekend, with the Potomac Hunt Horse Show tomorrow at Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Claggett's Duration Farm near Rockville, Md., and the Deep Run Horse Show today and tomorrow at Richmond, Va.

The Potomac affair is expected to attract a topnotch field of working and conformation hunters because of a well-balanced prize list with classes for all types of mounts. F. Moran McConihe heads the committee.

To Richmond went several vanloads of Washington-Maryland competitors, including Maj. and Mrs. Alvin I. Kay's No Mistake, and Applejack, Angelina Carrabelli's Our Day, Mr. and Mrs. Gardner Hallman's No Foolin', Pfc. Bobby Lee's Bonne Fille and Flint Hill Farm's Caddy's Trump.

Major and Mrs. Kay also were to have been represented by their steady jumper, Smacko, but the big bay suffered a leg injury after the AWVS show last Sunday and Applejack was substituted.

Pfc. Lee, home on furlough from Fort Reno, Okla., also had expected to show his own mare but received a serious shoulder injury last week that sent him to Walter Reed Hospital. Partially recuperated, however, he was granted a weekend pass to watch Bonne Fille in action, with his sister, Dorothy Lee, sharing the saddle work with Hallman.

Jim Crowley Returns Home, Feeling Great

New Rochelle, N. Y., May 26 (AP).—Lieut. Comdr. James Crowley, former football coach at Fordham, arrived home last night from almost 18 months in the South Pacific and reports Monday for duty at Sampson, N. Y., Naval Base.

Crowley, who will take over the coaching duties of the Boston club in the National Football League when peace returns, said that "I have lost 15 pounds since I was home last and I feel great."

Rockville's Burner Hurls No-Hit Game

Rockville, Md., May 26.—Paul Burner entered the hall of fame of schoolboy baseball here today, hurling a no-hit-no-run game as his Rockville teammates defeated Poolesville High, 4 to 0.

Burner, in turning in his perfect performance, faced only 22 batters, one reaching base on an error. He struck out 11.

Poolesville	000	000	0	0	0
Rockville	120	001	x	4	1

Burner and Cubitt; Robertson, Luhn and Tipton.

Charles Town Charts

FRIDAY, MAY 26, 1944—BY WALTER HAIGHT.
Weather Clear, Track Fast.

FIRST RACE—About 4½ furlongs. Purse, $600. For 3-year-olds and upward: claiming. Start good. Off 1:12½. Winner, R. H. Wesselman. Value, $425. Time, 0:50⅘.

Post. Horses.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Strt.
2 Blue Melody	3¹	1nk	1½	1	$1.70
3 Ginomel	1¹	3²	2hd	2½	4.30
3 Psychoanalyst	4³	5³	4¹	3¹	4.80
4 Beitle Wynn	2nk	2¹	3¹	4²	3.40
6 Shipkins	6¹	6¹	6²	5¹	45.30
7 Blue Norther	5¹	4½	5½	6³	10.80
1 Oyster Bar	7¹	8	8	7¹	25.10
5 Sticky Gal	8	7hd	7½	8	41.10

Two-dollar mutuels paid:
BLUE MELODY (Palumbo). 5.40 3.00 2.40
GINOMEL (Frain) 3.80 3.00
PSYCHOANALYST (Root) 3.60

SECOND RACE—About 7 furlongs. Purse, $600. For 4-year-olds and upward: claiming. Start good. Off 1:38. Winner, Arthur S. Moore. Value, $425. Time, 1:24⅘.

Post. Horses.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Strt.
5 Milcave	1³	1¹	1¹	1¹	$3.50
7 Breese Along	2²	2¹	2²	2nk	13.10
4 Henry's Imp	5²	5²	4¹	3½	.80
1 Clock Time	6½	6²	3½	4³	37.90
2 Yankee Lad	8	8	7²	5²	20.90
8 Muddy Run	3²	3²	5½	6²	106.80
6 Ringmond	7²	7²	8	7²	5.00
3 Snowy Hill	4¹	4½	6²	8	19.90

Two-dollar mutuels paid:
MILCAVE (Hummer) 9.00 5.60 3.40
BREEZE ALONG (Sheaffer) 6.60 3.80
HENRY'S IMP (Palumbo) 3.20

DAILY DOUBLE PAID $65.20.

THIRD RACE—One and one-sixteenth miles. Purse, $600. For 3-year-olds and upward; claiming. Start good. Off 2:06. Winner, John Bosley, jr. Value, $425. Time, 1:49.

Post. Horses.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Strt.
5 Summer Stock	2²	3½	4½	1hd	$2.20
4 Strumming	5	4nk	3½	2½	1.90
3 Tantrum	1¹	1½	1¹	3²	2.70
2 On The Wane	3½	2²	2²	4²	8.20
1 Danzig	4²	5	5	5	6.20

Two-dollar mutuels paid:
SUMMER STOCK (Root) 7.40 3.20 2.20
STRUMMING (Grant) 3.20 2.20
TANTRUM (Bleiszacker) 2.20

FOURTH RACE—Charles Town course. Purse, $600. For 4-year-olds and upward: claiming. Start good. Off 2:37. Winner, Flamingo Farms. Value, $425. Time, 1:17.

Post. Horses.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Strt.
2 Bill K	1¹	1nk	1¹	1¹	$1.80
4 Queen Minatoka	2½	2½	2½	2nk	2.40
3 Ultima Thule	7¹	6¹	5²	3¹	4.00
8 Equipped	3¹	2¹	3¹	4nk	31.50
1 Freeborn	4¹	4¹	4²	5²	23.20
5 Clocks	5nk	5½	6²	6⁴	7.00
6 Bombs Away	8	8	7²	7²	26.30
7 Wild Call	6nk	7½	8	8	112.90

Two-dollar mutuels paid:
BILL K. (Palumbo) 5.20 2.80 2.40
QUEEN MINATOKA (W.Kirk) 3.20 2.80
ULTIMA THULE (Hernandes) 2.80

FIFTH RACE—Charles Town course. Purse, $600. For 4-year-olds and upward: claiming. Start good. Off 3:06½. Winner, W. J. McCune. Value, $425. Time, 1:17⅘.

Post. Horses.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Strt.
4 Updo	6³	5³	4½	1½	$32.50
1 Our Orphan	1¹	1¹	1²	2²	3.40
3 Real Boy	5²	6²	6²	3nk	3.40
5 Stolen Sweets	3hd	2nk	2¹	4²	2.90
2 Misty Eye	2¹	3½	3nk	5²	6.60
6 Pons	4²	4²	5hd	6³	1.90
8 Miss Upstart	7¹	7²	7²	7²	27.80
7 Olivia	8	8	8	8	162.80

Two-dollar mutuels paid:
UPDO (Edens) 66.60 21.80 6.40
OUR ORPHAN (W.Kirk) 10.60 3.80
REAL BOY (Root) 2.80

SIXTH RACE—Six and one-half furlongs. Purse, $800. For 3-year-olds and upward: allowances. Start good. Off 3:37. Winner, W. Morrow. Value, $600. Time, 1:20⅘.

Post. Horses.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Strt.
5 Tumble Boy	4¹	3¹	2¹	1¹	$1.80
7 Victory Blue	1nk	1½	1nk	2²	1.60
1 †Pigeon	3²	2²	3¹	3	19.60
2 †Royal Fleet	2¹	3²	3½	3²	4.10
6 Comedy Player	7	5¹	5²	5²	7.80
4 Tacaro Ned	5¹	6½	6²	6²	25.50
3 Calbraldon	5½	7	7	7	113.10

†Dead heat for third.
Two-dollar mutuels paid:
TUMBLE BOY (Palumbo) 5.60 2.80 2.20
VICTORY BLUE (Bleiszacker) 2.80 2.20
PIGEON (Hadry) 2.80
ROYAL FLEET (Hernandes) 2.40

SEVENTH RACE — About 7 furlongs. Purse, $700. For 3-year-olds and upward. Start good. Off 4:06½. Winner, Bruce Campbell. Value, $525. Time, 1:26.

Post. Horses.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Strt.
1 First Girl	5²	4¹	2½	1½	$3.20
8 Seven Seas	1¹	1¹	1¹	2½	30.50
5 Market Place	4²	3½	4½	3²	16.90
6 Gypsy Moth	7½	7²	6²	4½	35.50
3 Lit Up	2hd	2²	3²	5¹	6.70
7 Ashame	6½	2½	3¹	6¹	18.20
2 Well Allright	3hd	5½	7²	7²	.80
4 Tacaro Ginny	8	8	8	8	27.00

Two-dollar mutuels paid:
FIRST GIRL (Sheaffer) 8.40 5.00 3.20
SEVEN SEAS (W.Kirk) 16.60 6.80
MARKET PLACE (Hadry) 5.60

EIGHTH RACE—One and one-eighth miles. Purse, $600. For 4-year-olds and upward; claiming. Start good. Off 4:37½. Winner, John Morris. Value, $425. Time, 1:55.

Post. Horses.	¼	½	Str.	Fin.	Strt.
2 Allen Cald	4hd	4²	2½	1²	$0.40
4 Col Scott	3¹	3²	1¹	2¹	25.30
3 Merciless	1¹	1¹	4²	3½	16.30
6 Some Grouchier	5½	5¹	5²	4¹	5.50
5 Speed Demon	2¹	2¹	3¹	5¹²	5.70
1 Dispurr	6	6	6	6	28.70

Two-dollar mutuels paid:
ALLEN CAID (Root) 2.80 2.60 2.20
COL. SCOTT (Mastral) 11.80 6.20
MERCILESS (W.Kirk) 3.40

Belmont Park

Entries

1—⅝; $2200; maiden 3-yr.-olds up.

Dollar Limit 126 | Troop Train 116
Tudor King 116 | Silver Plate 116
Goldbart 116 | *Still Life 111
Sickleboy 116 | *Sea Base 111
Great Beyond 116 | Gallant Bull 116
Miss Winks 111 | Gabe Paul 116
Hero Mine 116 | Share Cropper 116
Sliding Home 116 | *Resolution 111
*Ranging 117 | Johnstown Boy 116
Pyrotechnic 116 | Inspired 111
2—1⅛; $2200; maiden 2-yr.-old fillies.
Sea Floe 115 | Head Smart 115
Dinah Home 115 | Zacawon 115
Service Ribbon 115 | †Eluros 115
Nuala 115 | Anaesthesia 115
Winning Bid 115 | War Date 115
*Savant d'Or 110 | †Spitha 115
Controversy 115 | Center Stage 115
†W. Hells entry.
3—2 miles; $2500; hurdles; 4-yr.-olds up.
Good Chance 148 | Shotlo 136
Parma 140 | †Burma Road 143
Greek Fire 150 | Equirita 140
†Picture Prince 137 | Frederic II 155
Simoon 136 | Winged Hoofs 147
†Mrs. E. D. Weir entry.
4—⅝; $3000; 2-yr.-olds; allowances.
Plebiscite 111 | Mile Brand 111
†Valdina Decoy 111 | Maransart 117
†Valdina Gaylad 111 | Alsahad 111
Great Power 111
†Mrs. E. Mulrenan entry.
5—3½; $5000 added; 3-yr.-olds up.
Ariel Lad 112 | Bill Sickle 105
Devils Thumb 126 | Cassis 112
Brownie 114 | †Adulator 112
†Signator 118 | New Moon 112
Son of Peace 112 | Breezing Home 107
Suncap 120
†Woolford Farm entry.
6—1⅝; $10,000 added; 3-yr.-olds fillies.
Twilight Tear 121 | Plucky Maud 121
Oh Ma Ma 116 | Vienna 121
Miss Biscuit 121 | Dare Me 121
7—¾; $3000 added; 3-yr.-olds up.
Suncap 120 | Ariel Lad 119
Bill Sickle 118 | †Flying Doug 117
Cordon 107 | Pressing Home 109
†Harvard Square 122 | Old Grad 114
True North 119 | Spare Man 116
†A. T. Simmons entry.
8—1⅛; $3000 added; 3-yr.-olds up.
Grey Hood 106 | In Question 124
He Rolls 115 | Yankee Girl 112
Strategic 110 | Bygones 112
Spoon Bread 100 | Futurama 114
*Apprentice allowance claimed.

BELMONT SELECTIONS (Fast)
1—Johnstown Boy, Tudor King, Sickleboy.
2—Hells entry, Savant D'Or, Head Smart.
3—No selections.
4—Alsahad, Valdina Decoy, Maransart.
5—Signator, Brownie, Ariel Lad.
6—TWILIGHT TEAR, Plucky Maud, Vienna.
7—Ariel Lad, Harvard Square, Spare Man.
8—Futurama, He Rolls, Bygones.
—Louisville Times (AP).

Results

1—⅝; $2500; 4-year-olds up; class D.
Bardia, 116 (Arcaro) 4.80 2.90 2.50
Jaco Royal, 114 (Atkinson) 7.80 4.30
Sentimental, 104 (Permane) 2.80
Cousin Nan, Dairy Lady, Five o' Eight, Enter, Blue Flight, Chance Grey, Menex also ran. Time, 1:26 2-5.
2—1⅛; $2500; 4-year-olds up; class D.
Supermont, 114 (Jemas) 10.20 5.70 4.10
Blue Pom, 114 (Zufelt) 10.00 7.40
Bold Dan, 124 (Arcaro) 4.80
Sunstorm, Hi-Anne, Good Stymie, Meneither, Dandy Fox, Hornbeam also ran. Time, 1:25 4-5.

DAILY DOUBLE PAID $34.90.

3—Ab. 2 m.; $2000; 4-year-olds up. clng.
Eremon, 142 (Owen) 6.80 3.40 3.10
Tioga, 149 (Miller) 4.20 3.80
Pico Blanco II, 144 (McGovern) 3.80
Royal Archer, Paper Cutter also ran. Time, 3:57 4-5.
4—1⅛; $2000; 3-year-olds; claiming.
Sammy Angott, 120 (B'fen) 19.80 6.90 4.40
Hello Bill, 113 (Longden) 4.00 3.80
Gunflash, 107 (Haskell) 3.70
Jimmy John, Sonnet Key, Darby Drucele, Cavallena, High Legend also ran. Time, 1:48 2-5.
5—¾; $2500; 2-year-old fillies; Wendy.
Ariel Display, 114 (E'son) 40.00 12.00 5.60
Drumuir, 114 (Permane) 4.80 3.80
Ace Card, 114 (Arcaro) 2.80
Naval Station, Pamela C., Jamesina also ran. Time, 0:50 2-5.
6—¾; $2000; 3-year-old fillies.
Good Thing, 110 (Zufelt) 12.70 7.00 3.90
Rolling On, 113 (Young) 5.80 2.90
Leaving, 116 (Atkinson) 2.40
Red Wonder, Dogtone, Miss Drummond, Smart Looking, Thread o' Gold also ran. Time, 1:13 1-5.
7—1⅛; $2200; 4-year-olds up; claiming.
Saxon Paul, 116 (Arcaro) 6.00 4.20 2.90
Orpheum, 119 (Mills) 8.50 4.70
†Searchlight, 115 (Jemas) 3.60
Rokrab, Star Bien, †Sting Pal, Umbril also ran. Time, 1:52 2-5.
†Louisiana Farm entry.
8—⅝; $2500; 4-year-olds up; class D.
Our Victory, 104 (Permane) 7.30 5.10 3.50
Pompagle, 114 (Wood) 7.80 5.40
One Only, 116 (Phelps) 3.70
Coat of Arms, Cheesestraw, Blenhour, Headoverheels, Seamanlike, Chuckle, Jimjoe, Gusher also ran. Time, 1:26 4-5.

Bill Bennings

AT CHARLES TOWN
1—Fama's Time, Ginogret, Arch McDonald.
2—Lena Girl, Daring, Feeling High.
3—Scottie, Wabaunsee, Inmate.
4—Lady Jaffa, Gay Player, Ler-Lin.
5—TOWN HALL, Silver Beam, Purilist.
6—Friedman entry, Cushlamacree, Alfred Stuart.
7—Rovers entry, Happy Hannah, Top Transit.
8—Bill's Anne, Which Two, Eyeopener.
Substitute—Rolls Rough, Heremon, True Pilate.

Post Consensus

AT BELMONT
1—Tudor King, Sickleboy, Still Life.
2—No selections.
3—Simoon, Frederic II, Good Chance.
4—No selections.
5—Son of Peace, Devil's Thumb, Brownie.
6—Twilight Dear, Vienna, Dare Me.
7—True North, Breezing Home, Ariel Lad.
8—FUTURAMA, In Question, Bygones.

AT HAWTHORNE
1—Rockwood Jean, Warrior Lad, Victory Fest.
2—Saraphara, Legal Eagle, Air Borne.
3—Devil's Frolic, To A Tee, David B., Jr.
4—Stars at Night, Door Yock, Beowoco.
5—JERAHEL, Twixt, Zacapet.
6—March entry, Best Effort, Limestone.
7—Hutchins entry, Cherry Trifle, Choppy Sea.
8—Greville, Whiscendent, Jungle Moon.

Charles Town

Entries

1—4½; $600; 3-yr.-olds; claiming.

Cogitate 112 | High Sir 112
Snowupomp 107 | Anisgoce 107
Linda Girl 107 | Famas Time 107
Clingret 107 | Alec 112
Arch McDonald 112
2—C. T. course; 4-yr.-olds up; cl'ing.
*Ohio Lady 105 | Meadow Sun 110
Daring 115 | *Charlotte Dear 105
Lena Girl 110 | *Good Whiskey 110
Kes 110 | Feeling High 116
Quatredom 110 | *Electric 110
3—7/8; $600; 3-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Wabaunsee 116 | *Nutmeg Lass 106
Piandome 110 | *Inmate 111
Shailleen 111 | Scootie 111
Kant Delay 116
4—6½; $600; 3-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Lady Jaffa 114 | Waugh Pop 119
Ler-Lin 119 | Bob Junior 115
Specialist 119 | Gay Player 119
Huntlands 119
5—C. T. course; $700; 3-yr.-olds up.
Appeal Agent 101 | Scotch Flag 112
Hazels Play 101 | Silver Beam 109
Pugilist 112 | *Yank Pilot 101
Town Hall 116
6—1⅛; $1000; 3-yr.-olds up; allowances.
Cushlamacree 112 | Baby Boy 114
Gino T 114 | †Red Rosette 115
Squadron 120 | Balloter 111
Alfred Stuart 120
†J. L. Friedman entry.
7—1½; $700; 4-yr.-olds up; allowances.
*Makann 106 | Happy Hannah 111
Darker Mart 114 | †Mardi Gras 118
Stellas Sun 114 | †Dividend 113
Milk Chocolate 109 | Top Transit 120
†C. P. Bowers entry.
8—1⅛; $600; 3-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Which Two 108 | Kate Smith 113
Bills Anne 113 | *Herods Pilate 113
*Long Vallee 113 | Eye Opener 113
*Milk Toast 113
9—6½; $600; 3-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Grouchy 110 | Frelan 117
Rolls Rough 115 | Alice Dodge 112
Magic Key 117 | *Regenal 112
Stellita 106 | *True Pilate 107
*Apprentice allowance claimed.

CHARLES TOWN SELECTIONS (Fast)
1—High Sir, Snow Pomp, Arch McDonald.
2—Electric, Meadow Sun, Daring.
3—Wabaunsee, Inmate, Shailleen.
4—Ler-Lin, Bob Junior, Waugh Pop.
5—Pugilist, Town Hall, Appeal Agent.
6—J. L. Friedman entry, Cushlamacree, Alfred Stuart.
7—Dividend, Top Transit, Milk Chocolate.
8—Herods Pilate, Eye Opener, Milk Toast.
9—Rolls Rough, Frelan, Alice Dodge.
—Louisville Times (AP).

Hawthorne

Entries

1—¾; $1500; 3-yr.-olds; claiming.

Rockwood Jean 114 | Air Watch 107
Maxie Fin 110 | Victory Fest 116
Warrior Lad 112 | River Fox 110
*Hicks 105 | *Rising Light 100
2—¾; $7500; 3 and 4 yr. olds.
Miss Orphan 108 | *Laughing Fair 110
Air Borne 108 | Magic Fate 105
Pleasure Hour 108 | Air Warden 118
Saraphara 108 | Whippet 110
Bell Song 108 | *The Answer 103
*Legal Eagle 108 | *Bagnall 103
Sigma Kappa 108 | *Bolo Babe 103
3—¾; $1800; 4-yr.-olds up; claiming.
War Bugle 117 | *Devil's Frolic 110
To A Tee 120 | Ghost Hunt 110
Rogers Boy 114 | David B. Jr 114
4—6½; $1500; 3-yr.-olds; claiming.
Gremlin 114 | *Lestabert 108
Campion Hall 113 | Door Yock 108
Stars At Night 111 | *Bosweco 106
Meminisse 113
5—6½; $1800; 3-year-olds.
Jezrahel 124 | *Merry March 107
Paragram 114 | Zacapet 112
American Eagle 110 | Santa Claus 112
Twixt 110
6—⅝; $3000 added; 2-year-olds.
Bess Darling 119 | †Alfa 122
Best Effort 125 | Icangetit 122
Hollyman 122 | Fox Rime 122
†Errard 122 | Ever Cross 114
Limestone 127 | Jesting Fox 122
Benjack 122
†John March entry.
7—1-70; $1500; 4-yr.-olds up.
Alaflag 111 | Cherry Trifle 111
Eugene 110 | †Port Harmony 106
†Soverton 112 | *Drollon 106
Choppy Sea 111
†John Hutchinson entry.
8—1-70; $1500; 4-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Jungle Moon 112 | Cannons Banner 112
Whiscendent 107 | Tom's Ladd 112
Dungeon 112 | *Masculine 110
Greville 112 | Good Get 112
*Apprentice allowance claimed.

HAWTHORNE SELECTIONS (Good)
1—Victory Fest, Air Watch, Warrior Lad.
2—Sigma Kappa, Air Warden, Bolo Babe.
3—Tee to Tee, War Bugle, Ghost Hunt.
4—Lestabert, Stars at Night, Meminisse.
5—Zacapet, Jezrahel, American Eagle.
6—ERRARD, Best Effort, Bess Darling.
7—Choppy Sea, Drollon, Alaflag.
8—Jungle Moon, Masculine, Dungeon.
—Louisville Times (AP).

Results

1—⅝; $1500; 3-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Pidry, 113 (Hirter) 9.00 4.80 2.80
Rex Avis, 118 (Bodiou) 5.80 2.80
Crumpet, 113 (Grohs) 2.40
Lewistown, War Declared, Sharp Advice, Dusty Duke also ran. Time, 1:16.
2—⅝; $1500; 3-yr.-olds up; claiming.
3—⅝; $1500; 2-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Belleeda, 115 (Thornburg) 16.60 9.00 5.60
Free Miss, 108 (Haynes) 6.80 4.20
Cloe Flight, 113 (Knott) 6.00
Lillian Roth, Bonsweep, New Glory, Sharp Shell, Border Boy, Sweet Helen also ran. Time, 1:14⅘.

DAILY DOUBLE PAID $132.40.

3—4½; $1500; 4-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Floataway, 113 (Campbell) 13.20 5.00 3.40
Proud Sister, 102 (Wegrzyn) 4.00 3.60
Valdina Rex, 113 (Scobo) 4.40
Camp Liberty, Ilabo, Quick Tool, Free Style also ran. Time, 1:21⅘.
4—⅝; $1500; 2-yr.-old fillies.
Bonage, 118 (Thornburg) 4.00 3.20 2.80
Good Wife, 113 (Hirter) 4.80 3.20
Martharine, 116 (Grohs) 3.00
Happy Dumpty, Lamaria, Grays Bay, Army March, Little Spinner also ran.
5—6½; $1500; 3-yr.-olds up; allowances.
Timecross, 111 (Scobo) 6.40 4.40 3.00
Hills Palm, 111 (Bodiou) 3.80 4.40
Captain Fury, 116 (Gillespie) 4.80
Chief Bud, Hank's Memo, Rose Canyon, Bonny Edge also ran. Time, 1:21⅘.
6—⅝; $1500; 4-yr.-olds up.
Bob's Dream, 118 (Grohs) 5.80 3.40 3.00
Three Dots, 110 (Bodiou) 5.00 4.00
Clarksville, 118 (Morrisey) 6.20
Miss Lexington, Super Justice, Whose Take Away also ran. Time, 1:13⅘.
7—1-70; $1500; 4-yr.-olds up; allowances.
Warrist, 105 (Gillespie) 26.00 9.20 2.80
Black Time, 105 (Grohs) 4.80 2.80
Cobegro, 113 (Scobo) 2.60
Idle Sun, Woodsman, Tee To, That A Boy also ran. Time, 1:46⅘.
8—1-70; $1800; 3-yr.-olds up; claiming.
Gentle Savage, 118 (Bod'n) 18.80 5.40 3.40
Maurice K., 119 (Gillespie) 4.00 2.80
Say Nemore, 118 (Grohs) 2.80
Field d'Or, Stepping Out, Our Willie, Hadamoon, Tetheeco also ran.

70 to Compete In Va. A.A.U. Meet Today

Charlottesville, Va., May 26.—Seventy contestants, representing colleges and universities, service outfits, high schools, with a sprinkling of unattached individuals, have been entered in the State AAU track and field meet to be run tomorrow afternoon on the University of Virginia's Lambeth Field.

Norton Pritchett, University of Virginia athletic director and State AAU president, is pleased and slightly embarrassed at the entry list. He is delighted that contestants are coming from every section of the State, but a bit abashed because half the entries are from the University of Virginia.

The University of Richmond and Bridgewater College also have entries in the meet. Fort Belvoir, the Norfolk Naval Training Station, the Portsmouth Navy Yark and the Portsmouth Naval Ammunition Depot are service outfits with men entered.

Maury High School, Norfolk, State champions; Granby High, Norfolk, and John Marshall High, Richmond, all have entered first-place winners in the track meet of the Virginia High School Athletic League.

The University of Virginia's track team, made up of Navy trainees and civilians, will be well represented, and there'll be several unattached entries from the university.

Dr. Frank Finger, psychology professor and assistant track coach, who was a hurdle star at Syracuse University, is in the low hurdles and the 440-yard run. Herbert Freedman, Army trainee in Medical School, has obtained permission to compete in the javelin throw, in which he was Southern Conference champion at Washington and Lee. Several of the chief petty officers on the physical training staff of Virginia's Navy unit are entered unattached.

Competition in the high jump has been stepped up with the entry of John Vislocky, who has cleared the bar at 6 feet 6 inches, while competing for the New York Athletic Club. He is representing the Portsmouth Navy Yard.

Vislocky, who has won the New York A. A. U. meet and placed second in the Millrose games, will jump against John Kurfman, unattached, from Norfolk; the University of Richmond's Siegel, and Virginia's Bob Cofer, Sam McCrain and John Pearson.

Preliminary events for the A. A. U. meet will begin at 2 o'clock, and there will be no charge for admission.

Grid Giants Sign Richmond Player

Richmond, Va., May 26 (AP).—Elwood Hudson of Lawrenceville has signed a contract to play football for the New York Giants in the National Pro League, it was learned here today.

The 180-pound Virginian was graduated from Georgia Military Academy in 1941 and played on Coach Magill's Richmond Rockets in 1942. He is 27 and stands 5 feet 10.

Hudson is the second member of the Rockets' club to sign a major professional football contract this year. The first was Larry Weldon, director of athletics at Hargrave Military Academy and Lynchburg pitcher, who signed with Washington Redskins.

Army, Navy Teams Clash Today

Annapolis, May 26 (AP).—Five Naval Academy sports teams will clash with five from the Army tomorrow to wind up the spring sports schedule, and indications were today that virtually all of the contests would be close.

The baseball, track and golf teams will meet at Annapolis and the tennis and lacrosse squads will clash at West Point.

The Tar baseball team will attempt to win its eighth consecutive victory, having won 13 out of 16 games this year, but Coach Max Bishop reported that the Army has an abundance of power at the plate.

Maury Nine Captures Tidewater Crown

Norfolk, Va., May 26 (AP).—Maury High School today gained its sixth consecutive Tidewater Scholastic Baseball League championship when league officials voted 5-4 not to sustain a protest by Norview High of a previous loss to Granby.

Maury finished the season with a record of 11 wins and a single loss. The lost game was in a return game at Norview, which finished second in the league winning 10 and losing 2. In addition to their loss to Granby the Norview team was defeated earlier in the season by Maury.

Maury has won the Tidewater championship every year since the league was organized in 1939.

Two More Outfielders Are Signed by Norfolk

Norfolk, Va., May 26 (AP).—Business Manager H. O. Dawson announced today that two new outfielders had been signed and would report to the ever changing Norfolk club at once. The new men were Richard Crossen of River Rouge, Mich., and Charles Giacalone of Detroit. Both men are classified 4-F. At the same time the outright release of Pitcher Carl Walker and Frank Smith and Fract Baseman Don Goben was made known.

Bob Morris, the first baseman optioned to Norfolk by Atlanta in the Southern Association, joined the club at Newport News. The addition of Morris gives Norfolk two first sackers, Traylor having joined the club two days ago.

Virginia Nine; Camp Lee to Clash Today

Charlottesville, Va., May 26.—Virginia's baseball team, after two victories at home, takes to the road again to play at Camp Lee tomorrow afternoon.

Four games in a row will be played away from home before the Cavaliers return to Lambeth Field for their second meeting with Camp Lee on June 10. The Travelers are fielding what is probably the strongest team the Virginians have played to date.

The Virginia ball club has won four games, all at home, and lost four, all away. Hank Neighbors, who was a reserve last year, and Roy Richard, tranfer from Texas A. and M., have done all the pitching except one inning in the opener when veteran outfielder Dick Babyak was pulled in for a short turn on the mound.

Gus Tebell, coach of the Cavaliers, is pleased with the improvement of his charges in recent games. There has been only one error in the last two games, each of which was played in 1 hour and 45 minutes. In these two tilts Hampden-Sydney was defeated, 6-1, and Carrier Aircraft Service Unit 21, 4-2.

Virginia's tennis team, which defeated Richmond, 6-1, in a Wednesday match cut short by rain, returns to the home courts tomorrow to play Langley Field.

Land Owner In Arlington Wins Verdict

Alexandria Bureau of The Post, 110 North St. Asaph St. TEmple 6538.

As their final action yesterday before being discharged at the close of the December court term running from December to June, a jury in the United States District Court in Alexandria awarded $60,000 to Joseph D. McDonnell of Arlington for a triangular piece of land in back of Fort Myer which has been used in construction of access roads to the Pentagon Building.

Terms originally outlined by the Department of Justice two years ago providing for payment of $60,000 which McDonnell said was acceptable to him, had been disapproved by the Federal Works agency as the acquiring Government purchaser. A deposit of only $15,000 was made by the FWA on April 25, 19942, and control of the land was assumed on April 27.

McDonnell, in entering the suit for the original offer, contended that the value of the triangle bounded by Washington and Lee blvds. and Courthouse rd., was based upon the operation of two filling stations on the site, which involved a considerable business loss in the Government condemnation proceedings.

At the close of the case, covering two days, Judge Robert N. Pollard of Richmond, presiding officer, ruled that in addition to the jury's award of an additional $45,000, McDonnell should be paid interest on that amount at 6 per cent from April, 1942, until the date of payment, which is to be in the next 30 to 60 days as soon as the Government transaction can be completed.

Collision Case Continued

A second delay in a hearing of reckless driving charges against the drivers of an Alexandria, Barcroft & Washington Transit Co. bus and of an automobile involved in a collision on May 18, was ordered yesterday in Alexandria Civil and Police Court by Judge James Reece Duncan.

The case originally set for May 19 was postponed until yesterday because two of the three automobile passengers who suffered injuries were still in the Alexandria Hospital. Although they have since been released, Judge Duncan ordered the trial continued until June 2.

Alexandria police entered the reckless driving charge against the bus driver, Stephen McDonald Satterwhite, 30, of Fairfax County, who in turn obtained a warrant against the other driver, Aubrey A. Phair, 38, of 417 North Columbus st., Alexandria.

The collision occurred at North St. Asaph and King sts. Miss Pearl Stewart, 35, of 417 North Columbus st., Alexandria, and Mrs. Elizabeth Bayliss of 435 North Columbus st, who were treated for cuts, bruises and shock were released from the hospital this week and Miss Mazie Whitaker, 21, of 417 North Columbus st., was released immediately after treatment.

Auto Driver Fined $100

After taking the case under advisement for a week, Judge Harry F. Kennedy of the Alexandria Civil and Police Court has ruled C. N. Biondi, 59, of 2 Blunt's la., Fairfax County, guilty of reckless driving. He was fined $100.

Additional charges of driving under the influence of liquor and failure to present an operator's license were dismissed. Biondi was arrested on May 8 at 10:40 p. m. in the 700 block of Alexandria by Officer Fred Kaus.

Camp Lee Defeats Wilson Hospital, 20-2

Camp Lee, a., May 26 (AP).—Camp Lee's Travelers collected 14 hits and took advantage of 12 walks today and defeated a baseball team from Woodrow Wilson General Army Hospital near Staunton, 20 to 2, in a seven-inning ball game.

Lidie went the route for the Leemen and allowed seven hits. Tom O'Laughlin, Lee centerfielder, hit safely in four out of five trips to the plate.

Wilson	0	0	0	0	1	1	—	2	7	4
Camp Lee	3	1	1	2	0

WFVA
1500 Kilocycles
SATURDAY
MORNING.
7:30 Music.
8:00 News.
8:15 Dr. I. Bob.
8:30 News Review.
9:00 Breakfast Club.
10:00 Yankee Quiz.
10:30 Treasury Songs.
10:45 Hollywood Show.
11:00 On Stage, Everybody.
11:30 Marching to Music
11:45 Treasury Star Parade.
AFTERNOON.
12:00 Blue Playhouse.
12:25 News.
12:30 Farm and Home Hour.
1:00 News.
1:15 Christy Brothers.
1:30 Concert Hall.
5:00 Tea and Crumpets.
5:30 Virginia Ramblers.
5:45 Hello, Sweetheart.
6:00 Young People's Church.
6:30 Harry Wismer.
6:45 Leon Henderson.
7:00 Good Old Days.
8:00 Watch the World Go By.
8:15 Sign Off.
FREDERICKSBURG BROADCASTING CORPORATION
Fredericksburg, Va.

WINC
1400 Kilocycles.
SATURDAY
MORNING.
7:30 Morning Show.
8:15 Morning Devotions.
8:30 News Review.
9:00 Breakfast Club.
10:00 Valley Serenader.
10:30 Ozark Ramblers.
11:00 On Stage.
11:30 Land of the Lost.
AFTERNOON.
12:00 Music.
12:30 Farm and Home Hour.
1:00 Sons by Bevie.
1:15 Transatlantic Quiz.
1:30 Joseph Stopak.
5:00 Tea and Crumpets.
6:45 Hello Sweetheart.
EVENING
6:00 Concert Hall.
6:30 Old Corrall.
6:45 Leon Henderson.
7:00 Good Old Days.
8:00 American Music.
8:30 Boston Pops Orchestra.
9:30 Spotlight Band.
10:00 Guy Lombardo.
10:30 Sign Off.
WINCHESTER, VIRGINIA

WCHV
1450 Kilocycles
SATURDAY
MORNING
7:00 Musical Clock.
7:25 News
7:30 Musical Clock.
7:55 News.
8:00 News Summary
8:15 Morning Melodies
8:30 Voice of the Army.
8:45 Lucky Lady
9:00 Breakfast Club.
10:00 Yankee Doodle Quiz.
10:30 Show Tunes.
10:45 Music for You.
11:00 Make Believe Ballroom.
11:45 Texas Rangers.
AFTERNOON
12:00 News; Noon-Time Devotions.
12:15 Town Crier.
12:25 Today's Movie Guide.
12:30 Farm and Home Hour.
1:00 Victory Gardens.
1:15 Transatlantic Quiz.
1:30 Swing Shift Frolics.
2:00 Symphony Hall.
3:30 Minstrel Orchestra.
4:00 Horace Heidt.
5:00 Saturday Concert.
6:45 Rhythm Roundup.
EVENING
6:00 Servicemen's Serenade.
6:30 John Kirby's Band.
7:00 Good Old Days.
7:30 Music America Likes.
8:00 Early American Dance Music.
8:30 Boston Pops Concert.
9:30 Spotlight Bands
10:00 Young People's Church.
10:30 Army Service Forces Present.
11:00 Some Like It Hot.
11:15 Hoosier Hop.
12:00 Sign Off.
Charlottesville, Va.

WFMD
SATURDAY
MORNING.
7:00 News; Sunrise Salute.
8:00 News of the World.
8:15 Community News.
8:30 Westminster Studios.
9:00 Ministerial Union.
9:30 Hanover Calling.
10:30 Rev. Paul Taylor.
11:00 Westminster Studios.
11:15 Fashions in Music
11:30 Fashions in Rations.
AFTERNOON.
12:00 Theater of Today.
12:30 Transradio News.
12:45 Yours for Asking.
1:00 Pop Six and Band.
1:30 Sr. Pearl Walters.
2:00 The Rev. Ralph Rudisill.
3:00 Westminster Studios.
3:30 The Rev. Dayhoff.
4:00 Report From London.
4:15 Jamboree.
4:30 The Rev. George A. Harns.
5:30 Addlesberger Sisters.
EVENING
6:00 News, Quincy Howe.
6:15 People's Platform.
6:45 Dance Music
7:00 Mayor of the Town.
7:30 Thanks to Yanks.
8:00 Jamboree.
9:00 Country Journal.
10:45 Talks.
11:00 World News.
11:15 Dateline.
11:30 Flashgun Casey.
12:05 Glenn Gray Orchestra.
12:30 Songs in the Night.
MONOCACY BROADCASTING CO.
Frederick, Md.

Many Prisoners Receiving Help From War Fund

Thousands of war prisoners from occupied countries as well as from the United States are being provided with food, clothing and recreational materials by the National War Fund which has allocated $4,048,769.48 during the first nine months of this year for their aid.

A report issued yesterday by Edwin C. Graham, general chairman of the Community War Fund, states that food and comfort items have meant the difference between life and death to imprisoned men, especially those from the occupied countries who have no one from whom to expect help since their families are also victims of Axis aggression.

Of the total, $2,057,978.98 went to War Prisoners Aid, a member agency of the fund, and is being used to purchase morale and recreational materials. Other member agencies have been granted $1,990,790.50 to provide interned men of the United Nations' armies with medical kits, special invalid food packages, and miscellaneous articles such as soap, towels and handkerchiefs.

WSVA
550 Kilocycles
SATURDAY
MORNING
6:00 Rev. Maiden.
6:15 Hill Billy Music.
6:30 Bandstand.
6:45 News and Markets.
7:00 Curley Joe.
7:15 Trading Post.
7:30 News
7:45 Joe Johnson.
8:00 Scruggs Show Case.
8:15 Smiles
8:30 Campfire Roundup.
9:00 Kitchen Prolic.
9:45 News
10:00 Sunday School Lesson.
10:30 Puffenbarger Children.
11:00 News.
11:15 Reed Organ.
11:30 Border Boys.
AFTERNOON
12:00 Dinner Bell.
12:30 News.
12:45 Markets.
1:00 Hillbilly Music.
1:45 Campfire Roundup.
2:00 News.
2:15 Town Crier.
2:30 Uncle Joe's Gang.
3:00 Johnson Cousins.
3:15 Sunny Gillam.
3:30 News
3:45 Hymn Time.
4:00 Roundup.
4:45 News.
5:00 Story Lady.
5:15 Toby Stroud.
5:30 Evening Melodies.
5:45 News.
6:00 Government Shows.
6:15 Dance Time.
6:45 News.
7:00 Sign Off.
SHENANDOAH VALLEY BROADCASTING CORPORATION
Harrisonburg, Va.

WJEJ
1240 Kilocycles
SATURDAY
MORNING
7:00 Early Bird.
8:00 News; Early Bird.
8:45 Family Altar.
9:00 Organ Melodies
9:30 Man With a Band.
10:00 News; Interlude
10:15 Morning Devotions.
10:30 Marty and Rangerettes.
11:00 News Roundup.
11:15 Ahoha Hawaii.
11:30 Saddle Pals.
AFTERNOON
12:00 News Parade.
12:30 Accent on Sons.
12:45 Red Cross.
1:00 The Jeans.
1:15 Sunday School.
1:30 Lunch with Lopez.
2:00 Charles Hodges.
2:15 Lani McIntyre.
2:30 Wilson College.
3:30 Jack Bundy's Carnival.
4:00 Adrian Rollini.
4:15 Amer. Oaks Handicap.
4:30 Dance Music.
5:00 News; Navy Bulletin Board.
5:30 Dance Music.
EVENING
6:00 Prayer; Sports.
6:15 Dick Kuhn Orch.
6:30 Saddle Pals.
6:45 Leon Henderson.
7:00 American Eagle in Britain.
7:30 Confidentially Yours.
7:45 Art Kassel Orch.
8:00 Frank Singiser.
8:15 Music.
8:30 Bread of Life.
9:00 Theater of the Air
10:00 Royal Arch Gunnison.
10:15 Marfree.
10:30 Lest We Forget.
10:45 Impact.
11:00 Band Music; Sports.
11:15 Sign Off.
HAGERSTOWN, MD.

Emancipation Of Women Seen For South America

By Genevieve Reynolds

Emancipation of women and the rise of a strong, middle class in Latin America is predicted by Ralph W. Hancock, Latin-American authority of Encyclopedia Americana. Speaking before approximately 600 women at the D. C. Federation of Women's Clubs annual luncheon yesterday at the Statler Hotel he declared that women in Latin America now occupy the same position as the United States women at the turn of the last century.

"Through cheaper transportation, improved communications as well as the motion-pictures, Latin-American women will be modernized," explained Mr. Hancock. That is, they will get suffrage, have political and civil rights, hold offices and in general serve as leaders."

Underwood & Underwood
MRS. TILLMAN PARKS
. . . Federation President

He went on to point out that 85 per cent of the women belong to the lower social classes, but that they are emerging into a large middle class. To illustrate his point, he showed numerous colored slides of their activities and life. Primarily, he sees a departure from the old mores brought about through communications and travel.

Was News Correspondent

A former news correspondent who has lived and traveled in South America for many years, Mr. Hancock recently headed an economic mission to the Caribbean area for the Board of Economic Warfare. At the luncheon he showed slides of his famous wild orchid photographs made in South America. Mrs. James H. Doolittle, wife of the famed Gen. "Jimmy" Doolittle, who was an honored guest, made a plea for more volunteers for the various types of war work.

Mrs. Arthur C. Watkins, retiring president of the federation, introduced the honored guests and presided over the luncheon. Two flower corsages, one of gardenias and another of pink roses, was worn on each shoulder of her lavender dress. Mrs. Tillman Bacon Parks, who was elected president of the federation at the annual business meeting Thursday, wore a simple black dress and a wide-brimmed black hat. Among the honored guests glimpsed at the head table (in addition to Mrs. Doolittle and Mr. Hancock) were Mrs. Walter Kriel, Mrs. Ruth Kelso Renfrow, president of the Missouri Federation of Women's Clubs; Mrs. George C. Marshall, and Miss Minerva Bernardino, chairman of the Inter-Amelcan Commission of Women.

Past Presidents Were There

Also seated at the head table were the past presidents of the federation, which included Mrs. Howard L. Hodgkins, Mrs. John W. Frizzell, Mrs. Virginia White Speel, Mrs. Edgar B. Merritt, Mrs. Harvey W. Wiley, Mrs. Lloyd W. Biddle and Mrs. Ernest Humphrey Daniel. At the annual business meeting Thursday at the Gill-Bert election of new officers, committee reports and the Penny Art Fund's show and awards were the main features of the day. Those elected to serve with Mrs. Parks, the president, are Mrs. Belle Pickett, first vice president; Mrs. Carlton Duffus, second vice president; Mrs. Ross H. Snyder, recording secretary; Mrs. Henry J. Smith, assistant recording secretary; Mrs. Ivan H. Simms, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Leo William Kasehagen, assistant corresponding secretary; Mrs. Henry Fanno Sawtelle, treasurer, and Mrs. Gladys B. Middlemiss, auditor.

Prize Winners Are Announced

Winners in the Annual Penny Art Funds awards were announced. For her water color, first prize goes to Mrs. B. M. Wheelock, a member of the Housekeepers' Alliance. Second prize went to Mrs. Miles G. Trowbridge of the Entre Nous Club and honorable mention to Florence Morgan, also of the Housekeepers' Alliance. Prizes were cash and a box of artists' oil colors—donated by George F. Muth. Judges were Miss Bertha Noyes, Miss Elisabeth Poe and Miss Grace Abbott. Clubs whose contributions to the Penny Art Fund won awards were the Entre Nous Club, Capitol Hill History Club and the Petworth Woman's Club.

Mrs. Johnson called attention to the fact that the protest made by the D. C. Federation against discontinuation of slice bread resulted in restoration of sliced bread on the market within 21 days after the federation took action.

Lieut. Bolling Takes Bride In Florida

Miss Jane Audrey Sharon, daughter of Judge and Mrs. James Gibson Sharon of Sanford, Fla., became the bride of Lieut. Sterling Ruffin Bolling, Army Air Forces, son of Richard W. Bolling and Mrs. Elanor L. Bolling of Washington and nephew of Mrs. Woodrow Wilson of Washington, last Saturday afternoon in Sanford's First Baptist Church.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white satin made along princess lines, full-length veil held with a Juliet cap; her shower bouquet was of white orchids and gardenias. Mrs. Harold Wilcox Mosely of Washington was matron of honor. Mrs. Cary C. M. Fuller of Deland, Fla., sister of the bridegroom; Miss Ann James, Miss Caroline Reid and Miss Sheldon Baldwin were bridesmaids. Mary Audrey Sharon was flower girl. Sergt. Richard W. Bolling, jr., was best man for his brother. Ushers were Cary C. M. Fuller, Lieut. Frank K. Holley, James G. Sharon, and Chandler H. Sharon. Immediately after the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The bride was graduated from Florida State College for Women in Tallahassee, a member of Chi Omega Sorority, Cotillion Club and Zeta Phi Eta, speech honorary. Lieutenant Bolling is a direct descendant of Pocohontas on his father's side. His mother's family have been residents of Washington for six generations. He attended Westminister Preparatory School at Simsbury, Conn. and George Washington University. Stationed in Bermuda for a year and a half, he is now at Turner Field, in Albany, Ga., where he is an instructor of pilots. After a brief honeymoon, the couple will be at home in Albany.

Ration Points

BEEFSTEAKS, roasts, canned milk, butter, margarine, cheese. Red stamps A-8, B-8, C-8, D-8, E-8, F-8, G-8 H-8, J-8 K-8, L-8, M-8, N-8, P-8 Q-8, R-8, S-8 and T-8 valid indefinitely. Red tokens may be used as change

PROCESSED FOODS—Canned vegetables, fruits, soups, juices, etc. Blue stamps A-8, B-8, C-8, D-8, E-8, F-8, G-8, H-8, J-8, K-8, L-8, M-8, N-8, P-8 and Q-8 valid indefinitely. Blue tokens may be used as change.

GASOLINE—Coupons A-10 valid through August 8. B-2 and C-2 good for 5 gallons each. B-3 and C-3 good for 5 gallons each. Expire according to date indicated in the individual books.

FAT SALVAGE—Every pound of waste kitchen fat is worth 2 red points and 4 cents.

SUGAR—Stamps 30 and 31 valid indefinitely. Stamp 40 worth 5 pounds of sugar for home canning, valid through February, 1945.

SHOES—Airplane stamps 1 and 2 valid indefinitely.

FUEL OIL—Period 4 and 5 coupons valid through September 30.

TWOSOME ON THE STARLIGHT ROOF of the Waldorf-Astoria in New York are Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Scully, the latter formerly Miss Betty Ryder of Washington and Ventnor, N. J.

Ft. Myer Chapel Nuptial Scene; Greers Will Live in Washington

Wave Yeoman Ivie Naida Ramin, West Potomac Park, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Ramin of Milwaukee, was married last Saturday at Fort Myer Chapel to Gilbert Charles Loeser, son of Edward G. Loeser, also of Milwaukee. Chaplain Lieut. (j. g.) Leo J. F. Ouellette, USNR, officiated. Yeoman Martha Heesaker and Alice Marie Adams attended the bride. John Gaitens of Milwaukee was best man.

Chief Yeoman Eugene A. Semaske of Washington gave the bride in marriage. She wore a princess gown of ivory faille, finger-tip veil and Juliet cap and carried white roses and lilies of the valley. Bridesmaids were dressed in orchid and pink organza and taffeta frocks with matching shoulder-length veils. They carried bouquets of tea roses.

Mrs. Loeser attended Milwaukee State Teachers College and is now stationed at the Navy Department here.

Greer-Hall Rites Performed

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph W. Hall of Washington announce the marriage of their daughter, Cleo Elaine Hall, to William Carlton Greer of La Plata, Md., son of Grover W. Greer and the late Mrs. Greer. The ceremony was performed last Saturday at 3 p. m. at St. Gabriel's rectory. A reception at the home of the bride's parents followed.

After a wedding trip the couple will live at 1301 Longfellow st. nw.

Solt-Swanson Ceremony Read

Miss Virginia Lee Swanson was married to Clyde William Solt at 12:30 last Sunday, the ceremony taking place in Garden Memorial Presbyterian Church, Anacostia. The Rev. Philip Goertz officiated.

Given in marriage by William H. Jones, the bride is the daughter of Mrs. Daisy Vealie Swanson of New London, Conn. She chose a blue print street-length dress with white accessories and corsage of white orchids. Mrs. Morris R. Davis of Wilkes-Barre, Pa., was matron of honor, wearing a brown suit with matching accessories and corsage of yellow roses.

Mr. Solt, son of Lieut. Comdr. and Mrs. Clyde T. Solt of Washington, had Robert Gordon as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Solt will make their home at 1608 16th st.

War Workers Married

A double wedding in the Unitarian Church Tuesday at 10:30 a. m. united Miss Hazel Maude Mullen Ross and Curtis R. Seely, and Miss Susan M. Baker and Roland Zeno Johnson, jr. The Rev. Dr. Seth R. Brooks presided at the ceremony, after which the couples left for Baltimore to spend several days.

Both couples are warworkers in the Pentagon Building and the Treasury Department and will make their home at 18 Lincoln ave., in Takoma Park, Md. Mr. Seely's home is in Madison, Wis.; Mrs. Seely is from Scranton, Pa. Both Mr. and Mrs. Johnson are from Tulsa, Okla.

Miss Dodge To Leave Soon For Summer

Entertaining for a small group of friends yesterday afternoon was Miss Alice Dodge, who will leave early in June for Manchester, Mass., to spend the summer.

Mrs. Andrew Carnegie of New York is in Washington for several days, stopping at the Wardman Park.

Admiral Arthur Hepburn entertained at a buffet supper last evening.

Miss Ann Elizabeth Briggs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edson Briggs, has returned after having completed her freshman year at Sweet Briar College.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vichor Preschel are entertaining at home May 31 in celebration of their twenty-fifth wedding anniversary. With them will be their children, Shirley, 18, and Kenneth, 8.

Attention Brides

June and wedding bells are just around the corner for a large number of wartime brides! Remember that wedding accounts and glossy prints must be in the society office before the wedding date. Sunday's deadline is the preceding Wednesday at noon. We print all nuptial news for which we have space, provided it is received within a week of the wedding date. Because of the record number of pictures we receive we can assume no responsibility for unsolicited prints.

Newcomers Are Included In 1944-45 Social List

Capital socialites are busy these days filling out questionnaires for the 1944-45 "Social List of Washington, D. C.," which Carolyn Hagner Shaw, who publishes the book, has just recently placed in the mails.

"The book is proving useful to more people than ever," Mrs. Shaw says regarding the publication which was started by her mother, the late Helen Ray Hagner. "The war has brought to our town so many families from other cities who want to find addresses and telephone numbers of their friends here, that 'Social List of Washington' proves an especial short cut as a locator."

Asked how she could possibly keep the list up to date, with so much moving around and changing from house to apartment, and apartment to house again, in the nomad life of the Capital City, Mrs. Shaw explained that subscribers to the book report to her on any changes in their residence or family status. Hence her own telephone number becomes the one and only clearing house for such information.

Authoritative Opinions Offered

Subscribers to the book, automatically become eligible too, for Mrs. Shaw's authoritative opinion on social precedence. Having been reared in an atmosphere of precedence discussion (her mother was social arbiter at the White House, and before that her great aunt, Isabel Hagner, was social secretary to Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt), Mrs. Shaw knows all the answers, or if she doesn't she knows where and how to open doors to get them.

"Rail as one will, especially if one is new in the life of the Capital, against the seemingly confining rigors of social protocol," Mrs. Shaw said, "such procedure remains in the final analysis the easiest way out. Imagine having to laugh off seating your best friend who perhaps is the raving beauty of the moment, way down below the salt. Following established protocal, she understands perfectly and no feelings are hurt."

War Increases Protocol Headache

"It isn't the easy matter it was when my mother and Aunt Belle were seating the dinners of the town," Mrs. Shaw declared. "The war has brought in many additional problems. So many high-ranking admirals and generals are here in various supply missions, the greatly-expanded embassies and legations in the Allied nations all help to increase the headache of the hostess who attempts to settle her own protocol."

"Come out to Bethesda, and help us answer the telephone some day," Callie Shaw concluded, adding, "one of the hardest things we have to do is to tell inquirers that our service is only for subscribers to our "Social List," and since we obviously cannot serve the entire population, the nmber of those individuals included in the list must, necessarily, be limited."

Accompanying the questionnaires are miniature brochures of the familiar green-backed "Social List of Washington." These convey to the subscriber the reference value and service of the book itself.

Sra. Munilla Is Hostess At Luncheon

Senora de Munilla, wife of the Cuban Military Attache, entertained yesterday at another in her series of buffet luncheons.

The party took place at her Hotel 2400 apartment. Among those attending were Mme. Ivan Franges, Sra. Emilio A. Maulme, Sra. Ignacio Garcia Jurado, Mme. Hassan Aktarzendi, Mme. Cemal Aydinalp, Sra. Ramon Rodriguez, Senorita Silva Shelton, Mrs. Herbert Parker, Mrs. Howard Adams and Miss Dorothy A. Rutherford.

In addition were Mrs. Adolph P. Buquor, Mrs. Charles H. Ruth, Mrs. E. S. Bettelheim, jr., Mrs. Walter S. Crosley, Mrs. R. B. Yessler, Mrs. John Donaldson, Mrs. W. A. Theophilus, Mrs. Stephen Verges, Mrs. Trendley Dean, Mrs. Horace McFarland, Mrs. Joseph H. Herbert, Mrs. Albert E. Schrader, Miss A. D. Ward, Mrs. E. D. Yarnell, Mrs. J. Hamilton Stone and Mrs. Jack Beall.

Tuesday night Col. and Sra. Munilla will entertain at dinner, the final party they will give before she leaves for Cuba, June 2, to spend the summer.

The Gentler Sex

Malvina Lindsay is on vacation. Her column, "The Gentler Sex," will be resumed after her vacation.

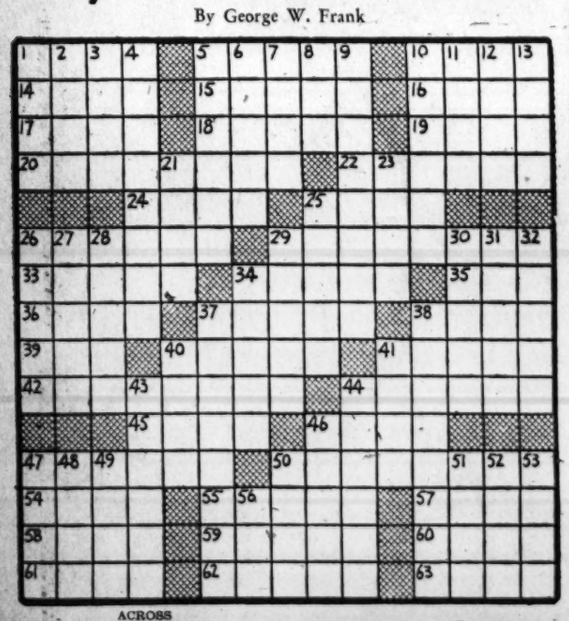
Mary Haworth's Mail

appears every day except Saturday in the women's pages. Tomorrow, in Section IV, Miss Haworth counsels a girl who is deeply in love with a confirmed bachelor, and dismally certain he never will marry.

Exclusive
FEATURES THAT WILL APPEAL TO ARMY AND NAVY FAMILIES!
A SELECT SUMMER COLONY NEAR WASHINGTON
Sherwood FOREST MARYLAND
A select summer colony—of attractively furnished summer cottages—fills a definite need in this housing shortage. Here you can have your family with you under unusually pleasant and attractive circumstances for the summer instead of being crowded in city quarters suffering the intense heat. Activities for your family include swimming, boating, fishing, golf, tennis, horseback riding and supervised play for children.
SEASON RATES $350 to $750
INQUIRIES ARE INVITED
Take Routes 50 and 178
For further information: "Ask Mr. Foster Travel Bureau," Washington, Mayflower Hotel or Palais Royal, or Home Office, 411 N. Charles St., Baltimore 1, Md.
NOTE: HOTEL ACCOMMODATIONS AVAILABLE MAY 30th ON

Today's Cross Word Puzzle

By George W. Frank



ACROSS
1 Author of "Essays of Elia"
8 Victor at Manila Bay
10 Italian capital
14 Exchange premium
15 Vacant
16 Wrong
17 Red planet
18 Picturesque Italian lake
19 Fur-bearing carnivore
20 Prediction
22 Greek island
24 Hop kiln
25 Small fly
26 Breath of life
28 Ancient
33 Follower of Genghis Khan
34 Hoisting device
35 Ostrichlike bird
36 Piercing tools
37 Object
38 Young herring
39 Zodiac sign
40 Address
41 Sew loosely
42 Mementos of victory
44 Hereditary Hindu classes
45 Station
46 Small pie
47 North American deer
50 Alaskan seal-breeding islands
54 Line of rotation
55 Polish dollar
57 Molten rock
58 Vegetable extract
59 Anew
60 Legal claim
61 Ardor
62 Depressions
63 Sea eagle

DOWN
1 Lighting device
2 Culture medium
3 New Zealand timber tree
4 Strait into Black Sea
5 Compendium
6 Perform
7 Vigilant
8 Complete
9 Strong desire
10 Part
11 Roman poet
12 Coal deposit
13 Lodge members
21 Salute
23 Harness piece
25 Civil War general
26 Deep-blue glass
27 Force
28 Eskimo house
29 Levers
30 Russian measure of distance
31 River in Louisiana
32 Guitarlike instruments
34 Part of the face
37 West Indies island
39 French prison fortress
40 Mountain pass
41 Sharp point
43 Penitentiary
44 Mounds of stones
46 Characteristic
47 Pacific island
48 Angle of branch's junction
49 Pineapple
50 Method
51 Den
52 Baking chamber
53 Temple
56 Ripen

STAB TUTU CEASE
PATE IRIS ARLEN
EXTIRPATE PRINT
SIEGE LUFFS BAR
NEAR LURIDITY
ART LOCALIZE
TOIL OUR GENEVA
OBVERSE SADIRON
PEEWIT ROT MATE
ITERATED DEW
TONSURED SARI
OPA ASPIC RECTO
REVAL OCEANWARD
TRAIL SALE ETUI
SALLY ELLS TEEN

INTERNATIONAL BID FOR THE INSTALLATION OF A SYNTHETIC RUBBER PLANT IN ARGENTINA

The Government of the Argentine Republic opens an international bid, to install in Argentina a manufacturing plant for Buna S or Buna N synthetic rubber, or similar products, and its basic hydrocarbons, of the type best suited to manufacture and retread tire casings and tubes for automotive vehicles.

The bases, awards established, and other conditions applying to this bid may be requested at the offices of the Argentine Embassy, 1816 Corcoran Street N.W., Washington 9, D. C.

The proposals may be presented not later than 4 P. M. on August 21, 1944.

MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE OF THE ARGENTINE REPUBLIC

Issued by the Argentine Embassy, Washington
May 22, 1944

WARNING

When you Order Genuine Lobster
When you Pay For Genuine Lobster
INSIST THAT YOU GET GENUINE LOBSTER

Look for the claws that distinguish real Lobster from common Sea Crawfish, sometimes sold as Spiny Lobster, Rock Lobster, African Lobster Tails or Langoosta.

• • •

In some cases unwittingly, but all too often with full knowledge of the deception, many seafood dealers and restaurants have been palming off ordinary sea crawfish on customers who order, pay for, and expect to receive Genuine Lobster.

Such misrepresentation is a practice that the lobster fishermen of the State of Maine intend to stop—FOR YOUR PROTECTION.

The sea crawfish, or crayfish (officially known as Panulirus Argus), is a genus of crustacea found in tropical and semi-tropical waters. Because it does resemble, in appearance, the tail of the real American Lobster, it has been variously sold as Spiny or Rock "Lobster," African "Lobster" Tails and Langoosta.

It is edible. BUT IT IS NOT LOBSTER—not even closely related to the American Lobster which is found in our colder, North Atlantic waters and whose official name is Homarus Americanus.

The Spiny "Lobster" has no claws—only the tail meat is served. Its quality distinctly differs from the firm texture and delicate taste of the American Lobster, which seafood epicures consider to be "The Sea's Greatest Delicacy."

It is illegal to sell crawfish as "lobster". In this country, however, the law permits crawfish to be branded as Rock or Spiny "Lobster" or African "Lobster" Tails as long as the qualifying words are given in direct connection with the word "lobster" and in type of equal prominence and size. Under Canadian law, the use of the word "lobster" in connection with sale of such products is expressly forbidden, and they must be sold under their proper name, "sea crawfish."

Don't be fooled. When you order lobster, say "Genuine State of Maine Lobster"—and, just to be sure, always look for the large claws when it is served.

The Department of Sea and Shore Fisheries of the State of Maine will promptly investigate any reports received from friends and lovers of Genuine State of Maine Lobster of such misrepresentation as are described above.

Arthur R. Gould COMMISSIONER

STATE OF MAINE
FIRMER MEAT
FINER FLAVOR
LOBSTER

MAINE DEPARTMENT OF SEA AND SHORE FISHERIES in cooperation with
MAINE DEVELOPMENT COMMISSION, STATE HOUSE, AUGUSTA, MAINE

Radio Programs

Saturday, May 27 — Washington — Eastern War Time

WMAL 4783M-630KC	WRC 516M—980KC	WOL 229M—1260KC	WTOP 208M—1500KC
Today's Prelude, 6:05. News, 6, 7, 8:30. Town Clock, 7:10-7:45 & 8-8. Mahoney, 7:45.	Bill Herson at 6:05. 7:15, 8:15, News. 6, 7, 7:55 & 8:30. World Roundup, 8.	Dawn Pat. to 6:30; Brown, 6:35-8:30; News, 6:30, 7:30, 8 & 8:30.	Corn Squeezing Time, 5:45-6:45. News, 6:45, 7:30 and 8:00, Godfrey, 7 to 9:15.
9:00—Breakfast 9:15— " " Club 9:30— " " 9:45— " "	First Piano Quartet News Symphony Hall	Art Brown at Organ Musical Bouquet	Godfrey; News Home Service D'ly Band of the Week Amigos Mios
10:00—Ceiling Girls 10:15—Montgomery 10:30— County 10:45— Hour	" " " " Betty Moore Pat Parode	News; Music Mr. Moneybags Arlington on the Air	Youth on Parade " " Mary Lee Taylor " " "
11:00—Alexandria 11:15— on the Air 11:30—Land of the 11:45— Lost	Melody Roundup Lighted Windows	" " " " Halls of Montezuma	News; Let's Pretend Fashions in Actions
12:00—News, Evans 12:15—Ear Teasers 12:30—Farm and 12:45— Home Hour	News, Novelette Consumer Time Music Room Devotions	Scratches; News Luncheon Music Red Cross	Armstrong Theater Of Today Stars Over Hollywood
1:00—London Report 1:15—Quiz 1:30—Nat'l Children 1:45— Frolic	Here's to Youth " " Indiana Indigo War Telescope	Russ Hodges " " Lunch With Lopez Dugout Chatter	Grand Central Station This Is Washington Sat. Serenade
2:00—Women in Blue 2:15— 2:30—E. Sherwood's 2:45— Orchestra	Musicana " Grantland Rice Sports Stories	Baseball: Washington vs. Cleveland " " "	Of Men and Books Postwar Reconst'n U. S. Maritime Fighters
3:00—Sez You 3:15— " " 3:30—Chicago 3:45— Minstrels	Minstrel Melodies Sing Out, Sweet Land	" " " " " " " "	Victory F. O. B. " " "Visiting Hour" " "
4:00—News, Evans 4:15—Horace Heidt 4:30— " " 4:45— " "	" " " Radio Reporter Doctors at War	Russ Hodges " " Amer. Oaks Races Russ Hodges	Report From L'don David Cheskin Or. The Colonel " "
5:00—Little Show 5:15— " " 5:30— " " 5:45—Sweetheart	Your America Fiesta Curt Massey	Navy Bulletin Board Eddie Howard's Orchestra	Carlisa Archer " " Mother and Dad " " "
6:00—First Call 6:15—News; Music 6:30—Sports; Music 6:45—L. Henderson	News; Leif Eid Musicade Dutch Bergman Richard Harkness	Sports Resume Walter Compton Dr. Fendrich Syncopation	Folliard, Costello People's Platform The World Today
7:00—Sports Show 7:15—W. Fleischer 7:30—Music Amer. 7:45— Loves Best	American Story Ellery Queen Mystery	American Eagle in Britain Confident, Yours Help Wanted	Mayor of the Town Thanks to the Yanks
8:00—Early Amer. 8:15— Dance Music 8:30—Boston 8:45— Pops	Abie's Irish Rose Truth Or Consequences	News, Singiser Christian Youth & Servicemen Meal of Your Life	Blue Ribbon Town Inner Sanctum " "
9:00— Concert 9:15— " " " 9:30—Spotlight 9:45— Bands	National Barn Dance Can You Top This?	Chicago Theater of the Air	Your Hit Parade Saturday Night
10:00—Musical 10:15— Autographs 10:30—Army Service 10:45— Forces	Palmolive Party Grand Ole Opry	R. A. Gunnison True Detective Mysteries Impact	Serenade Correction, Please " " Senator E. Moore
11:00—News, Evans 11:15—Hour of 11:30— Dreams 11:45— " "	News; Music Religious News I Sustain The Wings	News; Calli. Melodies J. Richards' Orch. Unity Viewpoint	News; Maj. Elliot Arch McDonald's "Moondial" Flashgun Casey

RADIO NOTES FOR TODAY

Haydn's "Surprise" Symphony (No. 94) is played on records by the CBS Symphony, Howard Barlow conducting. WINX—11:03 p. m.

John Carradine stars in "Ghost of Hamlet" on "Stars Over Hollywood." WTOP—12:30 p. m.

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, is guest speaker on "Victory F. O. B." WTOP—3 p. m.

Lionel Barrymore stars in "A Portion of Vet Field," a story with a Memorial Day theme, on "Mayor of the Town." WTOP—7 p. m.

Thornton Wilder's "Our Town" is adapted for radio with Sergt. Sweete starring, on "American Eagle in Britain." WOL—7 p. m.

Lawrence Tibbett and Helen Jepson are guests on "Music America Loves Best." WMAL—7:30 p. m.

Knights of Columbus Program—Charles J. Considine, District Deputy of the Knights of Columbus, will speak in connection with the sixth annual solemn memorial field mass. WWDC—3:15 p. m.

Boston Pops Concert—Prokofieff's "Classical" Symphony, in D major, is the feature work. WMAL—6:30 p. m.

Beethoven's Eighth Symphony, Vivaldi's Concerto in D minor and Resnicek's "Donna Diana" are played by the orchestra under Henry Weber. WOL—9 p. m.

Brahms' Symphony No. 4 in E minor is played on records by the BBC Symphony, Bruno Walter conducting. WINX—9:05 p. m.

Army Service Forces Present—"Forty-eight Hours," story of Signal Corps operation in the jungles of Burma. WMAL—10:30 p. m.

WINX and WWDC broadcast news every hour on the hour, and every available ½ hour.

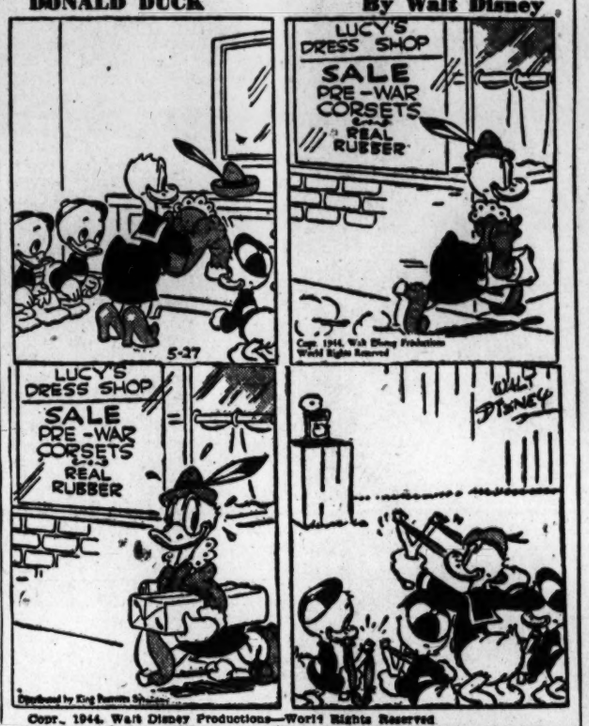
Station WINX, Saturday, May 27, 1944—E. W. T.—250 W.—1340 KC.

MORNING	AFTERNOON
6:00—Jerry Strong	12:00—Luncheon Music	7:05 Pop Concert
7:30—News Roundup	12:45—Once Upon a Time	7:30—News Roundup
7:45—Jerry Strong	1:15—Sports and Popular Music	7:45—Heard This One?
8:38—Strong & Johnson	5:05—Music Hall.	8:05—Smoke Rings
9:05—Music	EVENING	8:30—Saturday Serenade
9:30—Traffic Court	6:00—Sports Today.	9:05—Symphony Hour.
10:05—Music Hall.	6:15—Johannes Steel	10:05—USO Dance
11:05—Children's Symphony	6:30—Dinner Music	10:30—Traffic Court
		11:05—Places to Go
		11:35—Dance Party
		12:00—Midnight Newscast

Station WWDC, Saturday, May 27, 1944—E. W. T.—250 W.—1450 KC.

MORNING	AFTERNOON
6:00—Sunrise Serenade.	12:00—Dixieland Jamboree.	7:00—Bible Guis
6:30—News, Bob Ball.	1:00—Red Cross	7:30—"Fullness of Times"
6:45—Church of the Wildwood	1:15—Melody Moments	8:00—Let's Dance!
7:00—Mike Runnicutt	1:30—1450 Club	8:15—Knights of Columbus
10:00—Bing Crosby.	5:00—Band of the Day	8:30—Let's Dance!
10:30—Alice Lane	5:15—1450 Club.	11:00—Back Home Hour
11:15—Rosebud Jr. Chorus	EVENING	11:30—Continental Hits
11:30—Morning Matinee	6:00—Harry James Orch.	12:00—Midnight Dancing Party
	6:30—Morton Gould.

DONALD DUCK — By Walt Disney



RIGHT AROUND HOME — By Dudley Fisher

—! AND THAT GOES FOR THE WHOLE GARDEN!
I SPEND HOURS AND HOURS, FIXING A NICE BED FOR MY TOMATOES AND THEY'RE ALL LYING DOWN FLATTER THAN PANCAKES!
SUCH INGRATITUDE!
WELL IF YOU WERE IN A NICE SOFT BED WOULD YOU LIE DOWN OR STAND UP?
I'M GLAD I HAD A RUNNING START!
5-27

JOE PALOOKA — The Casualty — By Ham Fisher

IT'S ALL YOUR OWN FAULT.
ON ACCOUNTA YOU I GOT A BUSTED JAWR!
SHUT UP! WHERE'S FLOYD? WHERE IS HE?
OH-H-H!
FLOYD! WHAT HAPPENED— I WAS YELLIN' FER YOU—
LEMME ALONE— GIT OUTA MY WAY!
FLOYD— FLOYD WHATSAMATTER WITH YOU?

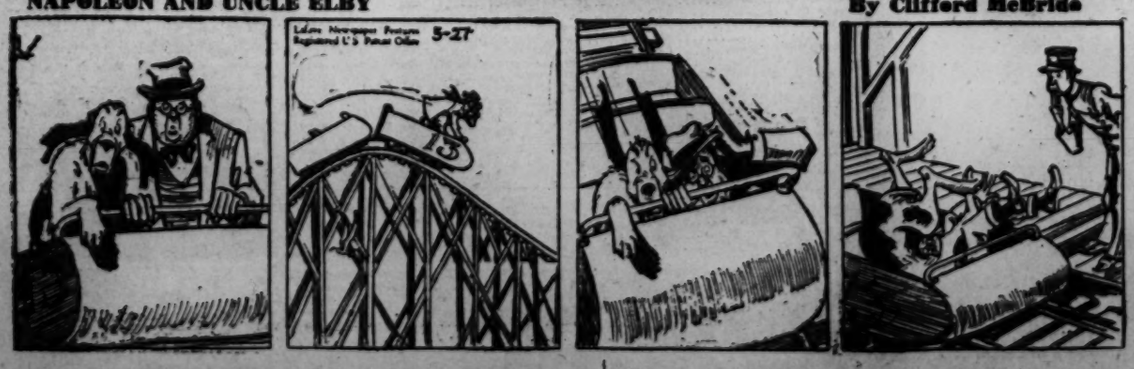
SUPERMAN — Hear Superman 5:45 P.M. Today—WOL — By Jerry Siegel and Joe Shuster

YOU'VE GOT TO HELP ME! YOU SEE, I'M IN LOVE WITH A GIRL WHO IGNORES ME COMPLETELY... IT'S TERRIBLE!...
AND YOU WANT MY ADVICE?
I ADVISE YOU TO FORGET HER!
BUT I CAN'T! AND IF YOU WON'T HELP ME WIN HER, I'LL— I'LL HURL MYSELF FROM THAT WINDOW!
DON'T TALK ROT! I DON'T HAPPEN TO BE THE LOVELORN EDITOR OF THIS PAPER, AND THERE ISN'T A THING I CAN DO FOR YOU!
ALL RIGHT THEN—

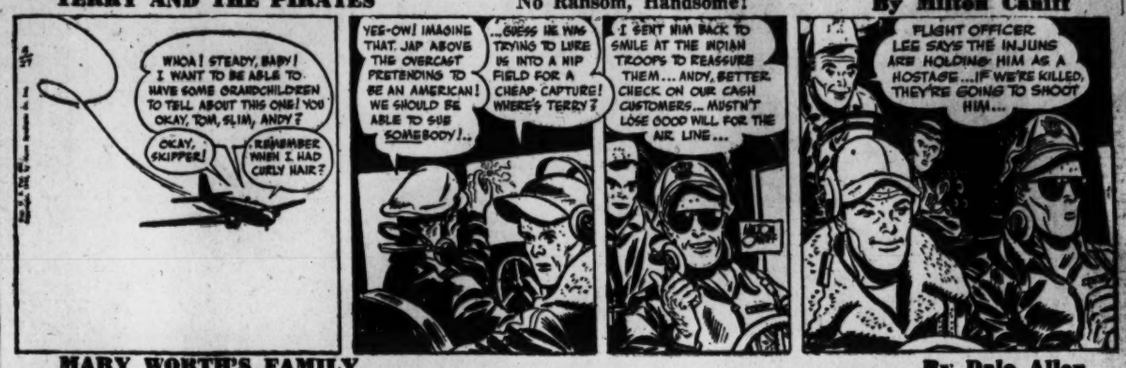
JANE ARDEN — Not Recognized — By Monte Barrett and Russell Ross

I FEEL SORRY FOR YOU—THEY'LL LET YOU TAKE THE RAP TO SAVE THEIR OWN SKINS—
OH, YEAH? YOU AIN'T KIDDIN' ME!
ALL SET, INSPECTOR— THEY'RE BRINGING THE GIRL IN NOW—
AND THIS WOMAN WILL RECOGNIZE HER ALL RIGHT— THAT WILL MAKE OUR CASE AIR TIGHT!
THAT'S WHAT YOU THINK!
HERE'S THE GIRL INSPECTOR!
I NEVER SET EYES ON HER BEFORE!
5-27

NAPOLEON AND UNCLE ELBY — By Clifford McBride



TERRY AND THE PIRATES — No Ransom, Handsome! — By Milton Caniff

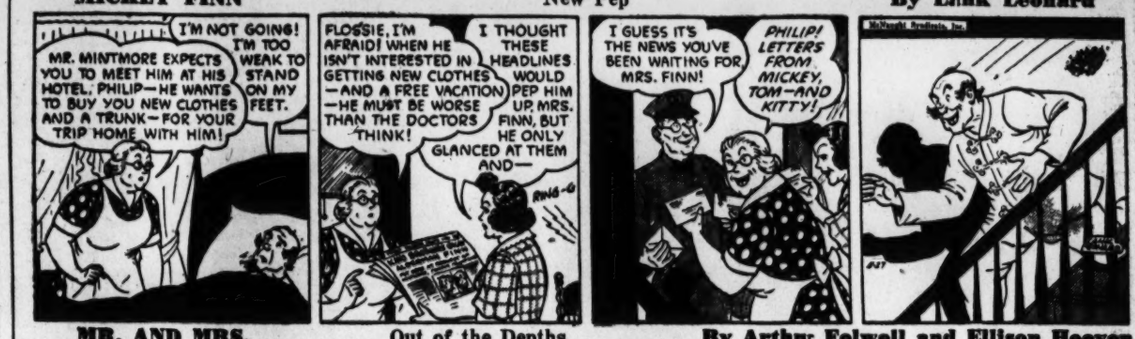


WHOA! STEADY, BABY! I WANT TO BE ABLE TO HAVE SOME GRANDCHILDREN TO TELL ABOUT THIS ONE! YOU OKAY, TOM, SLIM, ANDY?
OKAY, SKIPPER!
REMEMBER WHEN I HAD CURLY HAIR?
YEE-OW! IMAGINE THAT JAP ABOVE THE OVERCAST PRETENDING TO BE AN AMERICAN! WE SHOULD BE ABLE TO SUE SOMEBODY!..
...GUESS HE WAS TRYING TO LURE US INTO A HIP FIELD FOR A CHEAP CAPTURE! WHERE'S TERRY?
I SENT HIM BACK TO SMILE AT THE INDIAN TROOPS TO REASSURE THEM... ANDY, BETTER CHECK ON OUR CASH CUSTOMERS... MUSTN'T LOSE GOOD WILL FOR THE AIR LINE...
FLIGHT OFFICER LEE SAYS THE INJUNS ARE HOLDING HIM AS A HOSTAGE...IF WE'RE KILLED, THEY'RE GOING TO SHOOT HIM...

MARY WORTH'S FAMILY — By Dale Allen

YOU'RE A GOOD SCOUT, BUFF.. TAKING THE AFTERNOON TO EAT COAL DUST WITH ME... JUST TO CHECK MATERIAL IN MY BOOK!
IT'S GIVE AND TAKE, BARRY! I'LL PICK UP SOME ANGLES FOR MY ARTICLE IN "PAGEANT" MAGAZINE, TOO...
BESIDES, A GOOD-LOOKING GUIDE MAKES ANY TOUR A TREAT...!
DR. KAREN, A JOE SOMEBODY CALLED.. ..ABOUT HIS WIFE...!
YES.. JOE SWIERGOSZ, A COAL MINER.. I'LL GO SEE HIS WIFE THIS AFTERNOON, ANNA!

MICKEY FINN — New Pep — By Lank Leonard



I'M NOT GOING! I'M TOO WEAK TO STAND ON MY FEET.
MR. MINTMORE EXPECTS YOU TO MEET HIM AT HIS HOTEL, PHILIP—HE WANTS TO BUY YOU NEW CLOTHES AND A TRUNK—FOR YOUR TRIP HOME WITH HIM!
FLOSSIE, I'M AFRAID! WHEN HE ISN'T INTERESTED IN GETTING NEW CLOTHES—AND A FREE VACATION—HE MUST BE WORSE THAN THE DOCTORS THINK!
I THOUGHT THESE HEADLINES WOULD PEP HIM UP, MRS. FINN, BUT HE ONLY GLANCED AT THEM AND—I GUESS IT'S THE NEWS YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR, MRS. FINN!
PHILIP! LETTERS FROM MICKEY, TOM—AND KITTY!

MR. AND MRS. — Out of the Depths — By Arthur Folwell and Ellison Hoover

YOU SEEM IN GOOD HUMOR THIS MORNING
YEP. WHY NOT?
BUT WHY SO? IT'S SO UNUSUAL
OH, I JUST FEEL GOOD, THAT'S ALL
BUT WHAT HAS HAPPENED TO WORK THIS MIRACLE?
OH, JUST A LITTLE SURPRISE
IS IT A SECRET FROM ME
JUST BEEN DOWN CELLAR. WE'VE GOT HALF A TON OF COAL LEFT FOR NEXT YEAR

DIXIE DUGAN — Is Pa So Smart? — By J. P. McEvoy and H. J. Striebel

YESSIREE—NOAH WAS A SMART GUY! WAAL—TIM DUGAN'S A SMART GUY TOO!
YOU MEAN THOSE ANIMALS YOU HAVE IN THE CELLAR—
YEH! I'M GONNA DO JES WHUT NOAH DID—TH' BIBLE SAYS HIST'RY REPEATS ITSELF—WAAL—I'M GONNA PREPARE FER TH' RAINY DAY
AND THE BIBLE SAYS IT RAINED FORTY DAYS AND FORTY NIGHTS AND NOAH SAVED A PAIR OF EVERY ANIMAL AND BIRD AND PUT THEM IN A HUGE BOAT HE MADE CALLED THE ARK
SAY—WHY ALL TH' FUNNY LOOKS? YA ACT LIKE I'M CRAZY!
OH, PA—IT'S TOO EARLY IN THE MORNING TO ARGUE—GET SOME SLEEP
WELL?? WHAT DO YOU THINK?
HUMOR HIM
LET HIM ALONE, MA—SEE HOW THIS THING DEVELOPS
NOW WHAT'S GOING TO HAPPEN IN THE LIVES OF THE DUGANS??

DON WINSLOW OF THE NAVY — Identity Questioned — By Frank Martinek

WHAT KIND OF AN ISLAND?
SORRY, SIR. UNTIL YOU'RE PROPERLY IDENTIFIED IT'S A SECRET!
WHAT'S UP, JEFFREY?
HE SAYS HE'S DON WINSLOW. BUT HE'S GOT TO PROVE IT!

BIG CHIEF WAHOO — By Saunders and Woggon

WHAT DO YOU S'POSE PALEFACE PROFESSOR GOT IN LITTLE BOX, STEVE?
THE WAY HE GUARDS IT, I'D GUESS HE HAS HIS RATION BOOK IN IT, CHIEF--!
HE'S AN ODD BIRD! SEEMS TO BE PLENTY SOLID WITH ZIRCON, OUR HALF-CASTE HOSTESS, THOUGH!
HE'S HANDING THAT NATIVE HELMSMAN A FAST LINE-- --AND IN ARABIC!-- I'D GIVE A SIX-POUND STEAK TO KNOW WHAT HE'S TALKING ABOUT!

WINNIE WINKLE — Unappreciative Audience — By Branner

SHOW MR SMEE HOW SMART YOU ARE! RECITE A PIECE.. TWINKLE, TWINKLE, LITTLE...
STAR!
HOW I WONDER WHAT YOU...
ARE!
UP ABOVE TH' EARTH, SO...
HIGH!
LIKE A DIAMOND IN TH'...
SKY!
SWELL! NOW, DO Y'WANT HER TO RECITE ANOTHER.. ER— WHY, HE'S GONE!!

KING OF THE ROYAL MOUNTED — By Zane Grey

DR. CLINT, THIS'S KIDNAPIN'... AN' CAR-STEALIN'... AN'...
SO WHAT?.. I'M A MURDERER, IVY! EVEN ANOTHER KILLING DOESN'T MEAN A THING! SO DRIVE!
5-27
THAT CAR LEFT THE CABIN WHERE I HANDCUFFED CLINT!
HE'S GONE! BUT WHO HELPED THAT KILLER ESCAPE?

Fairfax School Gives Prizes In 7th Grade

Arlington, Fairfax Bureau of The Post.
Arlington, Va. Tel. CH. 3239.

At the final meeting of the 1943-44 session of the student body of the Fairfax Elementary School awards were made to members of the seventh grade class.

Mrs. Joseph Beard presented the Daughters of the American Revolution Good Citizenship Medal to Betsy Chapman; the McClandish award for the most outstanding pupil was given to Marjorie Beahm by Thomas J. Chapman who, also, presented the Rotary Club prize for improvement to Paul Neff.

Ann Blake was the winner of the faculty award for school helpfulness; Douglas Thompson received the Safety Patrol Medal. Betty Norfolk won a special award for her splendid attitude and cooperation in fulfilling patrol duties. All patrol members received certificates.

Officers of the student body included Paul Neff, president; Christina Sparks, vice president; Marjorie Beahm, secretary, and Mary Cox treasurer. Patrol officers were Douglas Thompson, captain; Melvin Sutpin, and Betty Norfolk, lieutenants, and Edith Sission, secretary.

Scouts Win Awards

Harold F. Weiler, scout commissioner, has presented awards to the following members of the McLean Boy Scout Troop at the court of honor held in Dunham Hall of the Lewinsville Presbyterian Church, he announced last night.

The life scout badge was presented to Beverly Boaz; second class badges were awarded to Carl Schmitz, Peter Nordlie, Berge Hatchik, Donald Beck, Lloyd Sanders, Andrew Pennington, John Baer and John Maragon.

Bykota Benefit Sale

The Bykota Society of the Falls Church Presbyterian Church is sponsoring a benefit cake sale today at 10 a. m., at Ware's Drug Store, Broad st. and Lee Highway, Falls Church. Mrs. A. M. Saffer, assisted by Mrs. J. D. Crittenden and Mrs. Charles Walker, are in charge of the sale.

Herndon School Visitors

Dr. Geronimo Ramirez Brown, Minister of Education of Nicaragua; Dr. John W. Studebaker, U. S. Commissioner of Education; D. P. Rotunda, senior specialist, Division of Inter-American Educational Relations; Miss Alice Lee, specialist agent, home economics education, and Dr. R. W. Gregory, assistant director, food production war training of the United States Office of Education, visited the Herndon High School this week to get information in regard to vocational training in secondary schools.

Dr. D. J. Howard, State supervisor of agriculture; Mrs. Rosa H. Loving, assistant supervisor of home economics, and W. R. Legge, District supervisor of agriculture, accompanied the guests on their tour of inspection.

Rep. Smith Will Address Va. Realtors

Representative Howard W. Smith, sr., (D. Va.) of 120 West Walnut st, Alexandria, will speak this evening at the closing dinner program of the spring meeting of the Virginia Real Estate Board at the Homestead Hotel in Hot Springs, Va.

Col. Christopher B. Garnett of 4503 North Rock Spring rd., Arlington, president of the Virginia Bar Association, and Charles W. Smith of the Alexandria-Arlington-Fairfax Real Estate Board, who is president of the State board, will speak at a board luncheon today.

Sessions began yesterday with several hundred Virginia realtors present. Heading the northern Virginia group are: R. L. Kane of Alexandria, president of the local board; Dan Ragalie of Arlington, and Henry Curtis Morris of Arlington, board member of long standing.

Keefer Grubb Wachter

Keefer Grubb Wachter, Washington Grove, Montgomery County, died in the U. S. Naval Hospital in Honolulu on May 18, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ray K. Wachter, have been informed. Wachter, who visited his home last March, suffered a back injury, which is believed to have contributed to his death.

Alexandrian Wounded on Italian Front

An Alexandria soldier who has been serving with the infantry in Italy, Pfc. Benjamin H. Allen, 21, was wounded in action on April 10, the War Department has informed his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Allen of 311 Duke st. Mrs. Allen said yesterday that in his latest letter, dated May 15, her son wrote that he had suffered leg wounds and was still in the hospital.

According to reports from the front it was Private Allen's second narrow escape with death as a member of Lieut. Gen. Mark Clark's Fifth Army. Late in March the War Department released a story of how the Alexandria soldier and his platoon moved out more than 300 yards in front of the main lines under mortar and artillery fire to man an observation post and after successfully completing the mission returned to their original position only to find the ground in that area blown to bits.

"There was my fox hole enlarged four times its original size. I didn't know whether to be mad because of that or thankful I was not in it," he related.

Private Allen was sborn in Alexandria and after attending school was employed by the Virginia Roofing Co. there for two years.

His brother, Sergt. Edward M. Allen, 23, of the Marine Corps, was one of the first marines to land on Guadalcanal in the First Division's invasion. Sergeant Allen has been in the South Pacific for two years.

Work Started On 2 Runways At Airport

Work has been started on concrete runways for additional hangars in the northern section of the Washington National Airport at Gravelly Point, Va., under a $263,000 contract, it was announced yesterday by W. F. Wilmoth, president of the Wilmoth Paving Co. of Washington, which was awarded the War Department contract.

The project, under the supervision of the United States Army area engineer, Maj. George H. Christensen of Arlington, includes aprons 1500 long and 300 feet wide and a taxiway 1500 feet by 100 feet with extensions running from the operating center almost to the north end of the airport, according to Wilmoth.

The Wilmoth Co. has been a contractor for work at the airport since it was first built three years ago under direction of Col. Robert Thomas, Corps of Engineers, of Lorton, Va., and has recently completed a $450,000 flood-control project for the Washington Quartermaster Depot at Cameron, Va., 2 miles west of Alexandria, which includes levees and a streamway modeled on the Bonnet Carre Spillway above New Orleans which was built by the Army Engineers in 1932 to protect the city from the Mississippi by diverting flood waters overland to Lake Pontchartrain.

Frederick Area Gets Rent Control

New York, May 26 (AP).—Frederick County, Md., will come under rent control June 1, with maximum rent to be based on those of July 1, 1943, Regional OPA Administrator Daniel P. Woolley announced today.

Rents, if higher now than those on the control date, must be rolled back to the lower level, Woolley said. The county, with a large number of resident warworkers, contains several military and naval establishments.

The area will be added to the Baltimore defense-rental area office and will be administered by that office, John J. Scofield, regional OPA rent executive, said,

Red Cross Room Rented

For use of the Red Cross for its camp and hospital work and other activities, promises at 8203 Georgia ave., Silver Spring, have been rented by the Montgomery County commissioners from June 1. The rental, which will be $75 a month, is to be charged to the national defense fund.

Fairfax Rezoning Proposal Dropped, Dog Pound Planned

A resolution adopted by the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors at an earlier meeting to rezone to industrial a tract of land owned by the county, on Jermantown Road, for the establishment of an incinerator, dog pound and potters' field, was rescinded by the board at a special meeting held yesterday.

The action was taken on the advice of Commonwealth's Attorney Hugh B. Marsh, who pointed out that the rezoning would establish a bad precedent, and would result in a weak case for board, if an injunction was sought in court by a group of citizens who are opposed to the location.

The supervisors' application for an use permit required under the county zoning ordinance, failed to meet the approval of the Board of Zoning Appeals, when a tie vote was recorded on a motion to reject the application.

Supervisor John T. Blincoe, one of th emembers favoring the rezoning, offered the motion to rescind the action, which was unanimously adopted.

The supervisors then requested the board of zoning appeals to consider again the supervisors' original application for a temporary use of the tract for a dog pound. The proposal to establish the dog pound and potters field in the proposed location has met with stiff opposition from property owners adjacent to the land, who allege that such an establishment will lower property values in that area. The town council of Fairfax has also gone on record as being opposed to the pound in the proposed location.

The supervisors approved the county welfare budget for the coming fiscal year, beginning July 1, which shows an increase of $1192 over the current fiscal year, or total estimated expenditures of $61,987. The county's share of the budget will be $21,303, or a decrease of $992.

Quotations on N. Y. Stock Exchange

By the Associated Press

Total sales yesterday, 835,830 shares; previous day, 804,210; week ago, 789,300; year ago, 1,047,729;; two years ago, 247,870; January 1 to date, 91,183,974; year ago, 147,252,583; two years ago, 44,318,213.

Dow-Jones Stocks

New York, May 26.

	Open.	High.	Low.	Close.	Chge.
30 ind..	140.45	141.20	140.31	141.03	+0.65
20 rails	39.86	40.00	39.70	39.88	+0.03
15 utils	22.82	23.02	22.78	23.02	+0.09
65 stks.	50.31	50.57	50.23	50.47	+0.17

Transactions in stocks used in averages today: industrials, 65,200; rails, 40,940; utilities, 32,900; 65 stocks, 139,040.

Sales. Add 00	High	Low	Close	Net Ch'ge
Abbott Lab.... 2	58	58	58	.....
Acme Sti..... 1	59¾	59¾	59¾	— ¼
Adams Exp.... 10	12	11¾	11¾	— ¼
Addressog-Mult. 1	22	22	22	+ ⅝
Air Reduction.. 6	39	38½	38⅞	+ ¼
Alaska Juneau.. 8	5¾	5¾	5¾	.....
Allegheny Corp 19	2¼	2⅛	2¼	+ ⅛
Alles pf.... 14	30	29½	29¾	+ ⅜
Alles pr pf.... 4	56⅞	56¼	56⅞	+ ⅛
Alles Lud Sti... 6	26⅛	25⅞	25¾	— ⅛
Allen Industries 6	12	12	12	+ ⅛
Al Chem & Dye 4	143	142¼	143	.....
Allied Mills.... 1	30⅞	30½	30⅝	.....
Allied Stra.... 102	17	16⅞	17	+ ⅛
Allied St pf.... 2	99⅝	99⅝	99⅝	.....
Allis-Ch Mfg... 41	36⅜	35⅝	36⅛	+ ⅛
Allis-Ch Mfg pf. 10	110¼	110	110⅛	+ ⅛
Alpha P Cem.. 15	20⅛	19½	20⅛	+ ⅜
Amal Leather pf 1	38½	38½	38½	— ¼
Am Ag Ch Del.. 1	26⅞	26⅞	26⅞	— ⅛
Am Airlines.... 1	61½	61½	61½	+ ¼
Am Bank Note. 19	18	17½	18	+ ½
Am Bosch..... 7	15⅝	15⅜	15⅝	+ ⅛
Am Brake Shoe. 1	40	40	40	— ⅛
Am Cable&Rad 1	8¾	8¾	8¾	+ ⅛
Am Can..... 4	89	88¾	89	+1
Am Car & Fdy. 6	35	34⅞	35	.....
Am Car & F pf 4	77	76½	77	+1
Am Ch & Cable 5	23¾	23½	23¾	.....
Am Colortype.. 1	11⅝	11⅝	11⅝	— ⅛
Am Crystal Sug 3	14¾	14⅝	14⅝	— ⅛
Am Distill.... 7	27½	27¼	27¼	— ¼
Am Encaus Til. 1	2⅝	2⅝	2⅝	.....
Am European.. 3	8½	8⅜	8⅜	.....
Am Export L... 4	25	25	25	.....
Am & For Pow. 26	5⅛	5⅛	5⅛	+ ⅛
Am F & P $6 pf 20	85	83	84¾	+ 2½
Am & F P $7 pf 49	94½	91½	93¾	+ 2½
Am & F P 2 pf..244	25½	24½	25⅜	+ 1¼
Am-Hawaii SS.. 1	34⅜	34⅜	34⅜	.....
Am Hide & Lea 3	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	.....
Am Home Prod 3	72¾	71⅞	72¾	+ 1⅜
Am Ice..... 1	67½	67½	67½	.....
Am Internat.... 2	8⅛	8⅛	8¼	+ ⅛
Am Loco..... 7	17⅛	17	17	.....
Am Loco pf.... 2	90⅞	90½	90⅞	— ⅜
Am M & Fdy.. 4	15¾	15⅝	15⅝	— ⅛
Am M & Met.. 1	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜	+ ⅛
Am Metal.... 4	21⅝	21½	21⅝	+ ⅛
Am Pow & Lt.. 4	2¼	2¼	2¼	+ ⅛
Am P&L $6 pf 10	46¾	46¾	46¾	+ ⅛
Am P&L $5 pf 7	44¼	44	44	.....
Am Rad & SS 70	9¾	9⅜	9¾	+ ⅛
Am Roll Mill.. 23	13⅜	13½	13⅝	+ ⅛
Am Seating.... 5	15¼	14⅞	15¼	+ ⅛
Am Smelt & R 28	37⅞	37½	37¾	— ⅛
Am Snuff..... 1	41	41	41	.....
Am Stl Fdrs.. 10	24½	24	24½	+ ⅛
Am Stores.... 1	15¾	15¾	15¾	+ ⅛
Am Stove..... 2	20½	20½	20½	— ⅛
Am Sugar Ref. 7	41½	41½	41½	+ ⅛
Am Sugar pf.. 2	120½	120¼	120¼	+ ⅛
Am Tel & Tel. 33	160¼	159½	160⅛	+ 1⅛
Am Tobacco.... 2	64	63¾	64	.....
Am Tob B..... 7	64¾	64¾	64¾	+ ⅛
Am Type Fdrs 12	10⅝	10⅜	10½	+ ⅛
Am Viscose.... 14	44	43⅝	44	+ ½
Am Wat Wks.. 7	6⅞	6¾	6¾	.....
Am Woolen.... 5	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞	— ⅛
Am Zinc Le&S.. 43	4¼	4¼	4¼	— ⅛
Anaconda Cop. 38	25¾	25½	25¾	.....
A P W Paper.. 6	3	2⅞	2⅞	— ⅛
Arm Ill 80	5¾	5⅝	5¾	+ ⅛
Arm Ill pr pf.. 2	87⅛	87⅛	87⅛	— ⅜
Armstrong Cork 16	41	39¾	41	+1¾
Arnold Const.. 3	10¼	10¼	10¼	+ ⅛
Asso Dry Goods 14	11	10⅞	11	.....
Atch T&SF.... 17	66⅞	66½	66⅝	+ ⅛
Atch T&SF pf 7	94¾	94¾	94¾	— ⅛
Atl Coast Line. 13	41½	41⅛	41½	+ ½
Atl G&W Ln pf 1	62	62	62	+ ½
Atl Refining.. 23	32⅛	31⅝	31⅝	— ⅜
Atlas Corp.... 10	13⅛	13	13⅛	+ ⅛
Atlas Tack.... 1	14¼	14¼	14¼	+ ¼
Aust Nichols.. 19	12½	12¼	12⅜	+ ⅛
Aviation Corp. 8	3¾	3⅝	3¾	.....
Bald Loco ct... 18	20¼	20	20⅛	+ ⅛
Balt & Ohio.... 7	7⅝	7½	7½	— ⅛
Balt & Ohio pf. 19	15	14⅝	15	+ ⅛
Bangor & Ar... 2	9	8⅞	8⅞	— ⅛
Barber Asph.... 3	23	22⅞	23	+ ⅜
Barnsdall Oil.. 5	16	15⅞	15⅞	.....
Bath Ir Wks.. 4	17⅛	17	17	.....
Bayuk Cigars.. 1	28	28	28	.....
Beatrice Cream 29	31¾	31¼	31¾	+ ⅛
Beatrice Cr rts. 94	1	⅞	1	+ ⅛
Bell Aircr..... 13	12⅛	12⅛	12¼	— ⅛
Bendix Aviat... 13	37⅞	37½	37½	— ⅛
Best & Co..... 1	37⅝	37⅝	37⅝	— ⅜
Best Foods..... 4	18⅛	18⅛	18⅛	.....
Beth Steel..... 10	57⅞	57⅝	57¾	— ⅛
Beth Steel pf... 1	120½	120½	120½	— ⅛
Bigelow-Sanf... 5	43	43⅝	43⅞	+1⅛
Black & Decker 5	19¼	19	19¼	+ ⅛
Blaw-Knox..... 1	8⅝	8⅝	8⅝	+ ⅛
Boeing Airplane 7	13⅛	13	13	.....
Bohn Al & Brass 2	49¼	49¼	49¼	— ¼
Bond Strs..... 3	41	40¾	41	+ ¾
Borden Co..... 22	31¾	31½	31⅝	— ⅛
Borg-Warner... 22	37⅝	36¾	37⅝	+ ⅛
Bower Roll Bear 1	39¾	39¾	39¾	— ¼
Braniff Airw... 16	14⅜	14⅜	14½	.....
Briggs Mfg..... 8	31⅝	31⅛	31½	+ ½
Briggs & Strat.. 1	44¼	44¼	44¼	+ ¼
Bristol-Myers.. 3	47¼	47¼	47¼	+ ⅛
Bklyn Un Gas.. 6	19¼	19⅛	19⅛	— ⅛
Brunswick-Balke 16	19⅞	19½	19¾	+ ⅛
Bucyrus-Erie... 9	9¾	9½	9⅝	.....
Budd Mfg..... 16	7¼	7¼	7¼	.....
Budd Wheel.... 9	8⅛	7⅞	8⅛	+ ⅛
Bullard Co..... 8	18	17⅝	18	+ ⅛
Burling Mills.. 3	29	28½	29	+ ½
Burr Add Mach 15	13	12⅞	12⅞	+ ⅛
Bush Term..... 1	4¾	4¾	4¾	— ⅛
Butler Bros.... 3	10⅛	10	10	.....
Butte Cop & Z.. 5	3	3	3	+ ⅛
Byers (A M) Co.. 1	13½	13½	13½	.....
Byron Jackson.. 1	21¼	21¼	21¼	.....
Calif Packing.. 6	27¾	27¼	27¼	— ⅛
Callahan Z-Lead 6	1	1	¾	— ⅛
Calumet & Hec 6	6¼	6⅛	6⅛	.....
Campbell Wyant 7	18½	18⅜	18½	.....
Can Dry G A.. 10	27	26⅜	27	+ ⅛
Canad Pacific.. 14	9⅜	9⅜	9⅜	— ⅛
Capital Adm.. A 1	7⅞	7⅞	7⅞	.....
Carpenter Stl.. 1	28	28	28	.....
Case (J I) Co.. 15	36¾	36¼	36¾	+ ⅛
Caterpil Tractor 18	47¾	47½	47¾	— ⅛
Celanese Corp. 17	34	33⅝	34	+ ⅛
Celotex Corp.. 2	11¾	11⅝	11¾	.....
Cent Aguirre.. 13	20⅝	19⅝	20⅝	+ ⅛
Cent Foundry.. 4	3½	3½	3½	.....
Cent G R & E J 1	11¼	11¼	11¼	+ ¼
Cent Violet Sug 2	25½	25⅜	25½	+ ⅛
Cerro de Pas.. 1	32	32	32	.....
Certain-teed P 68	6¼	6	6¼	+ ⅛
Cer-teed pf ct....	63½	63½	63½	+ ⅛
Ches & Ohio... 17	45⅝	45	45⅝	+ ⅛
Ches Corp Va.. 1	12¼	12¼	12¼	.....
Chi & E Ill.... 7	7⅛	7⅛	7⅛	.....
Chi & E Ill A 1	14⅞	14⅞	14⅞	— ⅛
Chi Grt West.. 1	6⅜	6⅜	6⅜	.....
Chi Grt W pf.. 6	24⅜	24	24⅜	+ ¼
Chi & N West 55	26⅜	25¼	26⅜	+ 1⅛
Chi Mail Order 2	17	16⅞	17	+ ⅛
Chi & NW pf.. 84	57½	56¾	57½	+ 1¼
Chi Pneu Tool.. 4	17⅜	17⅜	17⅜	+ ⅛
Chi Pn T cv pf 1	46	46	46	.....
Chickasha Cot O 3	15	14⅞	15	.....
Chrysler Corp. 32	86⅛	85	86¼	+ ⅛
City Stores.... 19	9¼	8⅞	9⅛	+ ⅛
Clev Graph Br 4	41¼	41¼	41¼	— ⅛
Climax Molyb.. 8	33¾	33¼	33¾	— ⅛
Cluett Peabody 13	36⅛	36	36⅛	.....
Colgate-P-P.... 3	28¾	28⅝	28¾	+ ⅛
Collins & Aik.. 2	29⅜	29⅜	29⅜	+ ⅛
Col Fuel & Iron. 1	17	17	17	— ⅛
Colum Br cast A 3	32½	32¼	32½	— ⅛
Colum Br cast B 2	32¼	32	32¼	— ¼
Colum G & El.. 35	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	.....
Col G&E 6% pf 3	81⅞	81⅞	81⅞	+ ⅛
Colum Pict..... 29	20	19½	19⅝	+ ⅛
Colum Pict pf.. 1	42½	42½	42½	.....
Coml Credit.... 25	39⅞	38¾	39½	— ⅛
Coml Invest Tr. 7	43¾	43¾	43¾	.....
Coml Solvents.. 3	15⅜	15⅜	15⅜	.....
Com & South.... 15	1	1	1	.....
Com & South pf 6	83¾	82½	83⅜	+1¼
Com'wealth Ed.. 25	26⅝	26¼	26¼	— ⅛
Congoleum-Nairn 2	24½	24½	24½	+ ⅛
Consol Cigar.... 1	27	27	27	+ ⅛
Cons Coppermin 3	3⅛	3⅛	3⅛	— ⅛
Cons Edison.... 38	21¾	21½	21½	— ⅛
Cons Edison pf.. 5	104¾	104¾	104¾	.....
Cons Film Ind pf 7	21½	21⅜	21½	.....
Cons Laundries.. 4	10¼	10¼	10¼	+ ⅛
Cons Nat Gas.. 13	30⅞	30⅝	30⅞	+ ⅛
Cons Vultee.... 14	12⅜	12⅛	12⅛	— ⅛
Cons Vultee pf.. 2	20½	20¼	20½	+ ¼
Consol'n Coal.. 10	15	14⅞	15	.....
Container Corp. 7	24½	23¾	24½	— ⅛
Cont Bak..... 13	9¼	9	9	— ¼
Cont Can..... 7	39½	39	39	+ ¼
Cont Diam Fib.. 6	10⅝	10⅜	10½	+ ⅛
Cont Ins..... 3	44⅜	44⅜	44⅜	+ ⅛
Cont Motors.... 14	6⅛	6	6	— ⅛
Cont Oil Del... 6	31¼	31⅛	31⅜	.....
Cooper Bess.... 4	13⅜	13⅜	13⅜	+ ⅛
Cooper Bess pf.. 50	42	42	42	.....
Copperweld Stl 1	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜	.....
Corn Products.. 3	56⅜	56⅜	56⅜	.....
Cornell-Dub El.. 4	18	17⅞	17⅞	— ⅜
Crane Co..... 17	24⅛	23¾	24⅛	+ ⅜
Crown Cork & S 4	32⅝	32½	32½	.....
Crown Zeller.... 2	17⅛	17⅛	17⅛	.....
Crucible Steel.. 1	30½	30¼	30¼	.....
Crucible Stl pf.. 2	77⅛	77⅜	77⅛	+ ⅜
Cuban-Am Sug.. 26	14½	14¼	14½	+ ⅛
Cub-Am S cv pf .1	116⅜	116⅛	116⅛	+ ⅛
Cudahy Pack.... 1	26⅜	26⅛	26⅛	+ ⅛
Curtis Publishg 70	5⅞	5¾	5⅞	+ ⅛
Curtis Pub pr pf 1	44⅛	44⅛	44⅛	+ ¼
Curtiss-Wright.. 21	5¼	5	5	.....
Curtiss-Wr A.. 3	15⅛	15⅜	15⅛	+ ⅛
Cutler-Hammer.. 2	23½	23⅜	23½	+ ⅜
Davega Stores.. 1	7¾	7¾	7¾	.....
Davison Chem.. 5	15	14⅝	15	.....
Deere & Co.... 30	42	41⅜	41⅝	+ ⅜
Deere & Co pf.. 1	35	35	35	.....
Del & Hudson.. 15	28⅛	28	28⅛	+ ⅛
Del Lack & W.. 29	8¾	8¾	8¾	— ⅛
Detroit Edison.. 9	19⅝	19⅜	19⅝	.....
Diamond Match.. 1	29¼	29¼	29¼	— ¼
Diam T Motor.. 6	15⅝	15	15⅜	+ ⅛
Dist Corp-Ses.. 43	36¼	35⅞	36¼	+ ⅛
Dist Corp S pf.. 2	98⅛	97½	98⅛	+ ⅜
Doehler Die C.. 11	40	39¾	40	.....
Dome Mines.... 4	22¾	22¾	22¾	— ⅜
Douglas Aircraft 4	48¾	48½	48½	.....
Dow Chem pf.. 1	109½	109½	109½	+ ¼
Dresser Mfg.... 1	33¼	33¼	33¼	.....
Dunhill Int.... 1	9⅛	9⅛	9⅛	.....
Duplan Corp.... 1	15	15	15	+ ⅛
du Pont de N 6	146½	146¼	146⅜	+ ⅛
Eagle Pich Ld.. 7	11¾	11½	11½	— ⅛
Eastern Roll M.. 1	7¾	7¾	7¾	.....
Eastman Kod.. 2	164	163	164	+1
Eaton Mfg.... 2	44⅜	44⅛	44⅛	— ⅛
Edis Bros Stge 1	17⅞	17⅞	17⅞	— ⅛
El & Mus Ind.. 1	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	.....
El Auto-Lite.. 15	42	41½	42	+ ⅛
Elec Boat..... 35	11⅜	11⅜	11⅜	— ⅛
El Power & Lt.. 8	4⅛	4⅛	4⅛	.....
El Pow &Lt$6pf 4	89½	89	89½	+ 1¾
El Pow & Lt$7pf 10	94	93½	94	+ 1
El Storage Bat 8	42⅜	42	42	— ½
Evans Products 6	11½	11½	11½	.....
Ex-Cello-O 2	31⅜	31¼	31¼	+ ⅛
Exchange Buff.. 1	3⅜	3⅜	3⅜	— ⅛
Fairbanks Mor.. 1	39¾	39¾	39¾	+ ⅛
Fajardo Sugar.. 45	23⅞	22¼	23⅞	+ 1¾
Farns Tel & R.. 7	12¼	12	12⅛	+ ⅛
Fed Lt & Tract.. 2	16¼	16¼	16¼	+ ⅛
Fed Mot Truck.. 6	7¼	7⅛	7⅛	— ⅛
Federat D Strs.. 1	25¾	25¾	25¾	.....
Ferro Enam..... 1	21	21	21	— ⅜
Firestone T & R 4	48	48	48	— ⅜
Firest T&R pf.. 1	106¾	106¾	106⅜	+ ⅛
First Nat Strs.. 2	39½	39½	39½	+ ⅛
Flintkote 27	22½	22⅛	22⅜	+ ⅛
Florsheim Shoe A 2	28¼	28¼	28¼	.....
Food Fair Strs.. 1	13	13	13	— ⅛
Foster Wheeler.. 4	20⅝	20½	20½	— ⅛
Francisco Sugar 5	16	15⅞	16	+ ⅛
Fruehauf Tra.. 1	38¼	38	38	— ⅛
Frueh Tra 4½ pf 110		109¼	109¾	+ ½
Gabriel Co..... 3	4	4	4	.....
Gair (Robert).. 6	3¾	3⅝	3⅝	.....
Gar Wood Ind.. 18	5½	5¼	5⅛	+ ⅛
Gaylord Cont.. 2	17⅝	17⅝	17⅝	— ⅛
Gen Am Invest.. 5	12	12	12	.....
Gen Am Inv pf.. 1	106½	106½	106½	.....
Gen Am Trans.. 2	44¾	44½	44¾	+ ½
Gen Baking.... 2	8	7⅞	8	.....
Gen Bronze..... 7	9⅝	9¼	9⅝	.....
Gen Cable..... 1	5	5	5	.....
Gen Cigar..... 42	36¼	35¾	36	+ ⅛
Gen Elec..... 90	38½	38⅛	38⅜	.....
Gen Foods..... 5	42¾	42½	42¾	+ ⅛
Gen G & El A.. 25	2¾	2⅝	2⅝	— ⅛
Gen Mills..... 2	111½	110⅜	111½	+ ⅛
Gen Motors.... 55	60	59¾	60	+ ⅛
Gen Mot pf.... 2	127¼	127¼	127¼	.....
Gen Out Adverti 9	8⅜	8⅛	8⅜	.....
Gen Out Adv A 1	45½	45½	45½	+ ½
Gen Prec Eq.. 17	20⅝	20⅜	20½	+ ⅛
Gen Print Ink.. 2	7½	7½	7½	— ⅛
Gen Ry Signal.. 9	23½	23	23	.....
Gen Real & Util 1	1½	1½	1½	.....
Gen Real&Ut pf 1	76½	76½	76½	.....
Gen Refract.... 3	21⅜	21¼	21⅜	+ ⅛
Gen Shoe..... 1	17⅞	17⅞	17⅞	+ ⅛
Gen Tel..... 2	24½	24½	24½	.....
Gen Time Inst.. 4	27	27	27	.....
Gen T & Rub.... 3	22⅛	22	22⅛	— ⅛
Gen T & Rub pf	100	100	100	— ½
Gillette Saf R.. 6	10⅜	10¼	10¼	— ⅛
Gillette Saf R pf 1	82½	82½	82½	+ ½
GimbleBros$6pf 2	96½	96⅛	96⅛	.....
GimbelBros$6 pf 1	96½	96½	96½	+ ⅜
Gliddden Co.... 10	20½	20	20⅜	.....
Gliddden cv pf.. 1	48½	48½	48⅝	.....
Gobel (Adolf).. 15	1⅝	1⅝	1⅝	.....
Goebel Brew.... 1	3⅜	3⅜	3¾	+ ⅛
Goodrich (BF).. 15	49⅛	48⅞	49	.....
Goodyear T & R 33	46⅜	45⅞	46⅛	+ ⅛
Goodyear T&Rpf 1	108½	108½	108½	—1¼
Goth Hosiery.. 5	13⅛	13	13⅛	.....
Graham-PaigeM 5	1⅝	1½	1⅝	.....
Granite City Stl 13	13	13	13	— ⅛
Grant (WT).... 2	35½	34½	35¼	+ ⅛
Gt Nor IrOre ct 7	15	14⅜	14⅜	— ¾
Gt Northn Ry pf 26	33¾	33⅛	33¾	+ ⅜
Gt West Sug.... 4	25½	25⅜	25½	.....
Green (HL).... 4	47	46½	46½	—1½
Greyhound Corp 26	21⅜	21⅛	21⅜	+ ⅜
Greyhound pf.. 17	11¼	11¼	11⅜	+ ⅛
Guantan Sugar.. 4	3⅞	3⅞	3⅞	.....
Gulf Mob&Ohio 17	15⅝	15⅜	15⅝	+ ⅛
GulfMob&Oh pf 4	57¾	57¼	57¾	.....